PROSPECTUS SUMMARY

The following is a summary of certain of the information contained elsewhere in this Prospectus. This summary is not intended to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the detailed information and financial statements, including the notes thereto, contained elsewhere in this Prospectus. Unless the context otherwise requires, references to the "Company" include Clean Harbors, Inc. and its subsidiaries.

THE COMPANY

The Company provides a wide range of industrial waste management services to a diversified customer base in 26 states. It is one of the largest providers of industrial waste management services in the Northeast, with a growing presence in the Mid-Atlantic, Central, and Midwest regions of the United States. The Company seeks to be recognized by customers as the premier supplier of a broad range of value-added industrial waste management services based upon quality, responsiveness, customer service, variety of risk containment systems, and cost effectiveness. The Company currently maintains a network of eight sales offices, 22 service centers and ten waste management facilities. The service centers perform site specific services and ultimately direct collected waste to the waste management facilities for treatment and processing. The Company does not own or operate end disposal sites such as landfills or incinerators.

The United States industrial waste management industry had total revenues in 1992 of approximately $18.6 billion. The demand for industrial waste management services has resulted primarily from the adoption and enforcement of increasingly stringent federal, state and local environmental laws and regulations over the past 20 years. These laws and regulations have significantly increased the costs and potential liabilities associated with the handling of industrial wastes. Under these laws and regulations, a broad list of industrial wastes are classified as "hazardous," and generators of hazardous wastes retain potential legal liability for the proper treatment of such wastes through and including their ultimate disposal. In response to these laws and regulations, many generators of both hazardous and nonhazardous wastes have chosen not to maintain their own treatment and disposal facilities nor to develop the technical expertise necessary to assure regulatory compliance. These generators have instead sought to have their waste streams managed by firms that possess collection, transportation, recycling, treatment, disposal and waste-tracking capabilities and have the expertise and financial capacity necessary to comply with applicable environmental laws and regulations.

The principal services provided by the Company fit within three categories: treatment and disposal of industrial wastes; field services provided at customer sites; and specialized repackaging, treatment and disposal services for laboratory chemicals and household hazardous wastes. The Company markets these services on an integrated basis and, in many instances, services in one area of the business support or lead to a project undertaken in another area.

Since January 1994, the Company has executed approximately 2,500 work orders per month for over 4,400 customers. The Company's sales efforts are directed toward establishing and maintaining relationships with businesses which have ongoing requirements for one or more of the Company's services. The Company's customer list includes 296 of the companies on the 1994 Forbes 500 list of largest United States companies. In addition, the Company's customers include most of the major utilities in the Northeast and Mid-Atlantic regions. The Company's customers are primarily chemical, petroleum, transportation, utility and industrial firms, other waste management companies and government agencies. Management believes that the Company's diverse customer base, in terms of number, industry and geographic location, as well as its large presence in New England, provide it with a recurring stream of revenue and stability of cash flow. The Company estimates that in excess of 80% of its revenues is derived from previously served customers with recurring needs for the Company's services.

The Company's consolidated revenues grew 52% between the fiscal year ended February 28, 1990 and the fiscal year ended December 31, 1993, from $131.4 million to $200.1 million. Consolidated EBITDA (as defined below) increased 88% over the same period from $12.4 million to $23.3 million.

As a large industrial waste management firm, the Company has significant cost advantages over many of its competitors in terms of its ability to efficiently utilize its waste management facilities and to negotiate more favorable terms for end disposal of waste. Several recent industry trends provide the Company with opportunities to grow by focusing on technological innovation, sound waste-tracking capabilities, cost reduction and a heightened commitment to customer service and responsiveness. These trends include: (i) efforts by many generators of industrial wastes to decrease the number of service providers that they utilize to a select group of industry leaders in order to minimize the potential liability inherent in using less qualified firms; (ii) efforts by waste generators to reduce or recycle their waste through utilizing service providers which offer alternative disposal and treatment technologies; and (iii) a reduction in the cost of end disposal as a result of surplus landfill and incinerator capacity and the emergence of new disposal alternatives. These trends are leading to a significant consolidation of the industrial waste management industry. The Company has benefited and expects to continue to benefit from these trends through attractive acquisitions, increased market share and new market opportunities.

For a description of certain recent developments, see "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations--Recent Developments."

The Company was incorporated in Massachusetts in 1980. The principal offices of the Company are located at 1200 Crown Colony Drive, Quincy, Massachusetts 02169, and the telephone number is (617) 849-1800.

BUSINESS STRATEGY

In order to maintain and enhance its leading position in the industrial waste management industry, the Company has implemented a strategy of internal growth through the increased utilization of existing facilities, the addition of new sales offices and service centers, and the development of new waste management services. In addition, the Company achieves external growth through strategic acquisitions.

Increased Utilization of Waste Management Facilities. The Company currently has ten waste management facilities which represent a substantial investment in permits, plant and equipment. These facilities provide the Company with significant operating leverage. There are opportunities to expand capacity at these facilities by modifying the terms of the existing permits and by adding capital equipment and new technology. Through selected permit modifications, the Company can expand the range of treatment services which it offers to its customers without the large capital investment necessary to acquire or build new waste management facilities. The Company believes that permits for new industrial waste management facilities will become increasingly difficult to obtain, thereby placing new entrants and weaker competitors at a disadvantage.

Sales Office/Service Center Expansion. The Company opens sales offices in attractive target markets which can be serviced by existing facilities and expand the Company's service areas. As demand at a particular sales office reaches a sufficient level, the sales office can be upgraded to a service center with field service capabilities by the addition of field technicians, service personnel and equipment. The Company's sales offices and service centers direct waste into the Company's waste management facilities. This allows the Company to expand its service areas with low risk capital investment and to maximize throughput with minimal incremental cost by obtaining additional wastes to be handled by the Company's service centers and waste management facilities. Since January 1, 1993, the Company has added eight sales offices and one service center, and three sales offices have been upgraded to service centers.

New Waste Management Services. Industrial waste generators are demanding alternatives to traditional waste disposal methods in order to increase recycling and reclamation and to minimize the end disposal of hazardous waste into the environment. The Company utilizes its technological expertise and innovation to improve and expand the range of services which it offers to its customers. The Company has commercialized a hazardous waste treatment system, the Clean Extraction System ("CES"), to extract toxic compounds from industrial wastewaters by utilizing non-toxic liquid carbon dioxide at high pressures. CES offers for certain wastewater streams a recycling alternative to incineration or injection into deep underground wells. The Company has also recently signed a development agreement with Molten Metal Technology, Inc., an environmental technology company developing a proprietary technology known as Catalytic Extraction Processing which uses a molten metal bath as a catalyst and solvent to break down the molecular structures of various hazardous wastes into their elements for recycling or reuse.

Capitalization on Industry Consolidation. The Company believes that its large industrial customers will ultimately require a comprehensive range of waste treatment capabilities to be provided by a select number of service providers. This trend will put smaller operators at a competitive disadvantage due to their size and limited financial resources. To respond to its customers' needs, the Company has increased the range of waste management services it offers and has followed a strategy of acquiring companies in existing, contiguous and new market areas. Since its formation in 1980, the Company has completed 12 acquisitions, each of which has proven successful in expanding the Company's market share and cash flow. The Company continues to investigate and discuss other potential acquisitions of permitted facilities in order to enhance service to its existing customer base and expand its customer base to include new regional and super-regional waste generators. The Company has signed a letter of intent with Chemical Waste Management, Inc. which would allow the Company to expand its Chicago waste management facility into an adjoining site. See "Business--Properties--Hazardous Waste Management Facilities--Chicago, IL." Acquisitions within the Company's existing areas of operation serve to capture incremental market share, while geographic expansion creates new market opportunities.

- (1) In January 1992, the Company elected to change its fiscal year to coincide with the calendar year rather than maintain a February 28 fiscal year end. As a result, the Company had a ten-month transition period, from March 1, 1991 to December 31, 1991, between fiscal years.
- (2) In the fall of 1990, the Company abandoned an effort it began in 1987 to obtain a permit to install a high temperature rotary kiln incinerator ("RKI") at its facility in Braintree, Massachusetts. During its fiscal year ended February 28, 1991, the Company wrote off its investment in the project and exited certain unprofitable businesses, resulting in restructuring charges of $19.9 million.
- (3) EBITDA is defined as income from operations before depreciation and amortization of intangible assets and the restructuring costs and RKI write-off described in note (2). EBITDA is not required by generally accepted accounting principles but is presented because it is a widely accepted financial indicator of a company's ability to service and incur debt. EBITDA should not be considered by an investor as an alternative to net income as an indicator of the Company's operating performance or to cash flows as a measure of liquidity.

- (4) The ratio of earnings to fixed charges is expressed as the ratio of: (i) fixed charges plus income from operations, to (ii) fixed charges. Fixed charges consist of interest expense, amortization of deferred financing fees and the interest component of operating leases. The pro forma ratio is computed in a similar manner. Earnings were insufficient by $14.6 million and $1.3 million to cover fixed charges for the fiscal years ended February 28, 1991 and 1990, respectively.

- (5) Gives effect to the sale of the Senior Notes and the application of the net proceeds therefrom as described in "Use of Proceeds." Assumes a prepayment penalty of $1.0 million and the write-off of deferred financing fees of $1.1 million ($1.3 million combined net of tax).

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information set forth in this Prospectus, prospective purchasers should carefully consider the following factors in evaluating an investment in the Senior Notes.

SIGNIFICANT LEVERAGE

After consummation of the Offering and the application of the net proceeds therefrom, the Company will have substantial indebtedness. As a result, the Company will have significant debt service obligations. As of March 31, 1994 on a pro forma basis the Company would have had total outstanding long-term indebtedness (including the current portion thereof) of $73.7 million (including the Senior Notes and excluding the effect of deferred financing fees of $2.3 million) and stockholders' equity of $66.5 million, resulting in a debt to equity ratio of 1.1 to 1. See "Capitalization" and "Description of Other Indebtedness."

The Company's substantial level of leverage could have important consequences to the holders of the Senior Notes, including the following: (i) a substantial portion of the Company's net cash provided by operations will be committed to the payment of the Company's interest expense and principal repayment obligations and will not be available to the Company for its operations, capital expenditures, acquisitions or other purposes; (ii) the Company's ability to obtain additional financing in the future for working capital, capital expenditures or acquisitions may be limited; (iii) the Company will be more highly leveraged than certain of its competitors which may place it at a competitive disadvantage and limit the Company's flexibility in reacting to changes in its business; and (iv) the Company's borrowings under its Bank Revolver are at variable rates of interest, which would result in higher interest expense in the event of an increase in interest rates. See "Description of Other Indebtedness" and "Description of the Senior Notes." The ability of the Company to make scheduled payments or to refinance its obligations with respect to its indebtedness depends on its financial and operating performance, which, in turn, is subject to prevailing economic conditions and to financial, business and other factors beyond its control.

LIMITATIONS IMPOSED BY CERTAIN INDEBTEDNESS

The documents governing the indebtedness of the Company expected to be in effect upon consummation of the Offering (including the Note Indenture and the Bank Revolver) contain significant covenants that limit the Company's ability to engage in various transactions and, in certain cases, require satisfaction of specified financial performance criteria. In addition, under each of the foregoing documents, the occurrence of certain events (including, without limitation, failure to comply with the foregoing covenants, material inaccuracies of representations and warranties, certain defaults under or acceleration of other indebtedness and events of bankruptcy or insolvency) would, in certain cases after notice and grace periods, constitute an event of default permitting acceleration of the indebtedness covered by such documents. The limitations imposed by such documents are substantial, and failure to comply with them could have a material adverse effect on the Company. See "Description of Other Indebtedness" and "Description of the Senior Notes."

PLEDGE OF ASSETS

As collateral under the Bank Revolver, the Company and most of its subsidiaries have granted security interests in substantially all of their assets to the Company's bank lenders. The stock of the principal subsidiaries of the Company also has been pledged. The Senior Notes offered hereby are unsecured obligations of the Company. In the event of bankruptcy or liquidation of the Company, there can be no assurance that sufficient assets would be available for payment of the Senior Notes.

The Note Indenture limits, but does not prohibit, the incurrence of secured indebtedness by the Company and its subsidiaries. See "Description of Other Indebtedness" and "Description of the Senior Notes."

FRAUDULENT CONVEYANCE CONSIDERATIONS

The incurrence by the Company and the Guarantor Subsidiaries of indebtedness under the Senior Notes and the Subsidiary Guarantees may be subject to review under relevant federal and state fraudulent conveyance laws if a bankruptcy case or a lawsuit (including in circumstances where bankruptcy is not involved) were commenced by or on behalf of unpaid creditors of the Company or the Guarantor Subsidiaries. Under these laws, a "fraudulent conveyance" would be deemed to have occurred with respect to the Company or a Guarantor Subsidiary if at the time the Senior Notes or the Subsidiary Guarantee of such entity were issued, both: (1) either (a) the Company or such Guarantor Subsidiary incurred debt represented by the Senior Notes or such Subsidiary Guarantee with the intent of hindering, delaying or defrauding creditors, or (b) the Company or such Guarantor Subsidiary received less than reasonably equivalent value or consideration for incurring the indebtedness represented by the Senior Notes or such Subsidiary Guarantee; and (2) the Company or such Guarantor Subsidiary either (i) was insolvent or was rendered insolvent by reason of such transaction, (ii) was engaged in a business or transaction for which the assets remaining with such entity constituted unreasonably small capital, or (iii) intended to incur, or believed that it would incur, debts beyond its ability to pay such debts as they matured. If a court were to find that the Company or a Guarantor Subsidiary had effected a "fraudulent conveyance" by issuing the Senior Notes or a Subsidiary Guarantee, such court might subordinate the Senior Notes or such Subsidiary Guarantee to presently existing and future indebtedness of such entity, void the issuance of the Senior Notes or such Subsidiary Guarantee, direct the repayment of any amounts paid thereunder to such entity or to a fund for the benefit of such entity's creditors, or take other action detrimental to the holders of the Senior Notes.

The measure of insolvency for purposes of the foregoing would vary depending upon the law of the relevant jurisdiction. Generally, however, the Company or a Guarantor Subsidiary would be considered insolvent for purposes of the foregoing if the sum of such entity's debts were greater than all of such entity's property at a fair valuation, or if the present fair saleable value of such entity's assets were less than the amount that would be required to pay its probable liability on its existing debts as they become absolute and matured.

The Company and the Guarantor Subsidiaries believe they will receive equivalent value at the time the indebtedness represented by the Senior Notes and the Subsidiary Guarantees is incurred. In addition, neither the Company nor any of the Guarantor Subsidiaries believes that it, as a result of the issuance of the Senior Notes or the Subsidiary Guarantees, (i) will be insolvent or rendered insolvent under the foregoing standards, (ii) will be engaged in a business or transaction for which its remaining assets constitute unreasonably small capital, or (iii) intends to incur, or believes that it will incur, debts beyond its ability to pay such debts as they mature. These beliefs are based on the Company's and the Guarantor Subsidiaries' operating history, net worth and management's analysis of internal cash flow projections and estimated values of assets and liabilities of each entity at the time of the Offering. There can be no assurance, however, that a court passing on these issues would make the same determination.

As a result of the obligations of the Company and the Guarantor Subsidiaries in connection with the Note Indenture, the Senior Notes and the Subsidiary Guarantees, in the event of an insolvency proceeding of the Company, creditors of the Company might argue that, because the Guarantor Subsidiaries are affiliates of the Company and "insiders" within the context of the federal insolvency laws, the preference period under the Federal Bankruptcy Code should be extended from 90 days to one year. This argument, if successful, could have an adverse effect on the holders of the Senior

Notes with respect to interest and principal payments received during the preference period. In an attempt to avoid this result, the Guarantor Subsidiaries have waived in the Note Indenture any rights of subrogation or contribution against the Company, but there is no controlling legal precedent that assures that this attempt would be successful if challenged by other unpaid creditors of the Company.

HOLDING COMPANY STRUCTURE

As a holding company, Clean Harbors, Inc., derives substantially all of its operating income and cash flow from its subsidiaries. The Company's ability to make required principal and interest payments with respect to its indebtedness, including the Senior Notes, depends on the earnings of its subsidiaries through inter-company payments. The ability of the Company's subsidiaries to make such payments will be subject to, among other limitations, applicable state laws and restrictions that may be entered into by such subsidiaries. The Note Indenture will, however, require Clean Harbors, Inc. to prohibit its subsidiaries from agreeing to certain restrictions on distributions to the Company. See "Description of the Senior Notes--Certain Covenants--Limitation on Restrictions on Distributions from Subsidiaries."

Substantially all of the Company's operations are conducted, and substantially all of its assets are owned, by its subsidiaries. The Senior Notes will be guaranteed by all of the Company's direct subsidiaries under the Subsidiary Guarantees. However, in the event such Subsidiary Guarantees were held to be invalid as "fraudulent conveyances", the Senior Notes would effectively be subordinated to all existing and future liabilities of the Company's subsidiaries, including the obligations of most of the Company's subsidiaries with respect to indebtedness incurred under the Bank Revolver. Any right of Clean Harbors, Inc. to participate in any distribution of the assets of any of the Company's subsidiaries upon the subsidiary's liquidation, reorganization or insolvency (and the consequent right of the holders of the Senior Notes to participate in the distribution of those assets) would then be subject to the claims of the creditors (including trade creditors) of such subsidiary, except to the extent Clean Harbors, Inc. has a valid claim against such subsidiary as a creditor of such subsidiary. The ability of subsidiaries to incur indebtedness and to guarantee debt will, however, be limited by certain of the restrictive covenants in the Note Indenture and the Bank Revolver. See "Description of Other Indebtedness" and "Description of the Senior Notes--Certain Covenants--Limitation on Subsidiary Debt and Preferred Stock."

POTENTIAL LIABILITIES ARISING OUT OF ENVIRONMENTAL LAWS AND REGULATIONS

Although the Company believes that it generally benefits from increased environmental regulations and from enforcement of those regulations, increased regulation and enforcement also create significant risks for the Company. The assessment, analysis, remediation, transportation, handling and management of hazardous substances necessarily involve significant risks, including the possibility of damages or personal injuries caused by the escape of hazardous materials into the environment, and the possibility of fines, penalties or other regulatory action. These risks include potentially large civil and criminal liabilities to customers and to third parties for damages arising from performing services for customers. See "Environmental Regulation."

All facets of the Company's business are conducted in the context of a rapidly developing and changing statutory and regulatory framework. The Company's operations and services are affected by and subject to regulation by a number of federal agencies including the Environmental Protection Agency (the "EPA") and the Occupational Safety and Health Administration, as well as applicable state and local regulatory agencies.

The Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act of 1980, as amended (the "Superfund Act"), addresses the cleanup of sites at which there has been a release or threatened release of hazardous substances into the environment. Increasingly, there are efforts to expand the reach of the Superfund Act to make hazardous waste management companies responsible for cleanup costs of Superfund sites not owned or operated by such management companies by claiming that such management companies are "owners" or "operators" (as those terms are defined in the Superfund Act) of such sites or that such management companies arranged for "treatment, transportation or disposal" (as those terms are defined in the Superfund Act) of hazardous substances to or in such sites. Several recent court decisions have accepted such claims. Should the Company be held responsible under the Superfund Act for cleanup costs as a result of performing services or otherwise, it might be forced to bear significantly more than its proportional share of such cleanup costs if other responsible parties do not pay their share. See "Business--Legal Proceedings."

The Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976, as amended in 1984 ("RCRA"), is the principal federal statute governing hazardous waste generation, treatment, transportation, storage and disposal. RCRA or EPA approved state programs at least as stringent govern waste handling activities involving wastes classified as "hazardous." See "Environmental Regulation--Federal Regulation of Hazardous Wastes." Substantial fees and penalties may be imposed under RCRA and similar state statutes for any violation of such statutes and regulations thereunder.

POTENTIAL LIABILITIES INVOLVING CUSTOMERS AND THIRD PARTIES

In performing services for its customers, the Company potentially could be liable for breach of contract, personal injury, property damage (including environmental impairment), and negligence, including claims for lack of timely performance or for failure to deliver the service promised (including improper or negligent performance or design, failure to meet specifications, and breaches of express or implied warranties). The damages available to a client, should it prevail in its claims, are potentially large and could include consequential damages.

Industrial waste management companies, in connection with work performed for customers, also potentially face liabilities to third parties from various claims including claims for property damage or personal injury stemming from a release of hazardous substances or otherwise. Claims for damage to third parties could arise in a number of ways, including: through a sudden and accidental release or discharge of contaminants or pollutants during transportation of wastes or the performance of services; through the inability, despite reasonable care, of a remedial plan to contain or correct an ongoing seepage or release of pollutants; through the inadvertent exacerbation of an existing contamination problem; or through reliance on reports prepared by such waste management companies. Personal injury claims could arise contemporaneously with performance of the work or long after completion of projects as a result of alleged exposure to toxic or hazardous substances. In addition, increasing numbers of claimants assert that companies performing environmental remediation should be adjudged strictly liable for damages even though their services were performed using reasonable care, on the grounds that such services involved "abnormally dangerous activities."

Customers of industrial waste management companies frequently attempt to shift various of the liabilities arising out of disposal of their wastes or remediation of their environmental problems to contractors through contractual indemnities. Such provisions seek to require the contractors to assume liabilities for damage or personal injury to third parties and property and for environmental fines and penalties (including potential liabilities for cleanup costs arising under the Superfund Act). Moreover, the EPA has increasingly constricted the circumstances under which it will indemnify its contractors against liabilities incurred in connection with cleanup of Superfund sites. There are other proposals both in Congress and at the regulatory agencies to further restrict indemnification of contractors from third party claims. While such restrictions might have some adverse impact upon the Company, such impact should be immaterial because projects relating to the cleanup of Superfund sites have historically represented less than 5% of the Company's business. See "Business--Services."

Although the Company attempts to investigate thoroughly each other company that it acquires, there may be liabilities that the Company fails or is unable to discover, including liabilities arising from non-compliance with environmental laws by prior owners, and for which the Company, as a successor owner, might be responsible. The Company seeks to minimize the impact of these liabilities by obtaining indemnities and warranties from sellers of companies which may be supported by deferring payment of or by escrowing a portion of the purchase price. However, these indemnities and warranties, if obtained, may not fully cover the liabilities due to their limited scope, amounts, or duration, the financial limitations of the indemnitors or warrantors or other reasons. See "Business--Legal Proceedings."

COMPETITION

The market for industrial waste management services is highly competitive. The Company competes with many other firms, including large multinational firms having substantially greater financial, management and marketing resources than the Company. Competitive factors include quality of services, technical qualifications, reputation, geographic presence, price and the availability of key professional personnel. See "Business--Competition."

FLUCTUATIONS IN QUARTERLY FINANCIAL RESULTS; SEASONALITY

The Company's operations may be affected by the commencement and completion of major site remediation projects, seasonal fluctuations due to weather and budgetary cycles influencing the timing of customers' spending for remedial activities, and the timing of regulatory decisions relating to hazardous waste management projects. Accordingly, fluctuations in quarterly performance should be expected. See "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations--Results of Operations."

DEPENDENCE ON KEY OFFICERS

The Company is dependent upon the services of several of its key officers, particularly its Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer, Alan S. McKim, the loss of any of whom could have a material adverse effect on the Company.

CHANGE OF CONTROL PROVISIONS WITH RESPECT TO THE SENIOR NOTES

In the event of a Change of Control (as defined herein), the Company would be required, subject to certain conditions, to offer to purchase all outstanding Senior Notes at a price equal to 101% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued interest thereon. There can be no assurance that, at the time of a Change of Control, the Company would have sufficient cash to repay all amounts due under the Senior Notes. The terms of the Bank Revolver prohibit the optional payment or prepayment or any redemption of the Senior Notes. If, following a Change of Control, the Company has insufficient funds to purchase all the Senior Notes tendered pursuant to such an offer, or is prohibited from purchasing the Senior Notes pursuant to the terms of the Bank Revolver or other agreements, an event of default in respect of the Senior Notes would occur.

ABSENCE OF PUBLIC MARKET FOR THE SENIOR NOTES

The Senior Notes will constitute a new issue of securities with no established trading market. The Company does not intend to list the Senior Notes on any national securities exchange or to seek the admission thereof to trading in the National Association of Securities Dealers Automated Quotation System. The Underwriters have advised the Company that they currently intend to make a market in the Senior Notes, but they are not obligated to so do and may discontinue such market activity at any time. In addition, such market making activity will be subject to the limits imposed by the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"). Accordingly, no assurance can be given that an active public or other market will develop for the Senior Notes or as to the liquidity of the trading market for the Senior Notes. If a trading market does not develop or is not maintained, holders of the Senior Notes may experience difficulty in reselling the Senior Notes or may be unable to sell them at all. Future trading prices of such securities will depend on many factors, including, among other things, prevailing interest rates, the Company's results of operations and the market for similar securities.

USE OF PROCEEDS

The net proceeds to the Company from the sale of the Senior Notes offered hereby are estimated to be approximately $47.8 million after deduction of underwriting discounts and estimated expenses. The Company intends to use such net proceeds as follows:

(1) These notes have a final maturity of May 15, 1997, and bear interest at the rate of 13.25%. The amount of proceeds shown includes prepayment penalties of approximately $1.0 million.

(2) The amount outstanding as of June 30, 1994 was approximately $33.6 million. The Bank Revolver has a final maturity of July 1, 1996, and as of June 30, 1994 bore interest at an average rate of 7.5%. See "Description of Other Indebtedness."

(3) Such indebtedness has final maturities ranging from April 30, 1996 to December 31, 1997, and currently bears interest from 8.25% to 12.75%.

SELECTED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL DATA

In January 1992, the Company elected to change its fiscal year to coincide with the calendar year rather than maintain a February 28 fiscal year end. As a result, the Company had a ten-month transition period, from March 1, 1991 to December 31, 1991, between fiscal years. Set forth below are income statement and balance sheet data for the Company which should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included elsewhere in this Prospectus. In the opinion of management, the interim financial statements include all adjustments, consisting only of normal recurring adjustments, necessary for a fair presentation of the results for such interim period.

(1) In the fall of 1990, the Company abandoned an effort it began in 1987 to obtain a permit to install a high temperature rotary kiln incinerator ("RKI") at its facility in Braintree, Massachusetts. During its fiscal year ended February 28, 1991, the Company wrote off its investment in the project and exited certain unprofitable businesses, resulting in restructuring charges of $19.9 million.

(2) EBITDA is defined as income from operations before depreciation and amortization of intangible assets and the restructuring costs and RKI write-off described in note (1). EBITDA is not required by generally accepted accounting principles but is presented because it is a widely accepted financial indicator of a company's ability to service and incur debt. EBITDA should not be considered by an investor as an alternative to net income as an indicator of the Company's operating performance or to cash flows as a measure of liquidity.

(3) The ratio of earnings to fixed charges is expressed as the ratio of: (i) fixed charges plus income from operations, to (ii) fixed charges. Fixed charges consist of interest expense, amortization of deferred financing fees and the interest component of operating leases. Earnings were insufficient by $14.6 million and $1.3 million to cover fixed charges for the fiscal years ended February 28, 1991 and 1990, respectively.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

GENERAL

The Company has analyzed its results of operations to reflect the geographical locations of its service centers. The Company believes this method of analysis is appropriate because geographical areas differ in types of customers; the scope and maturity of the Company's operations; the Company's investments in facilities and the number of service centers and sales offices; degree of competition; and local economic and regulatory conditions.

As part of its growth strategy, the Company seeks to expand into additional service areas by opening new service centers and sales offices, and by acquiring additional hazardous waste management facilities. In 1992, the Company made two acquisitions (Connecticut Treatment Corporation and Mr. Frank, Inc.). During the first half of 1993, the Company made one acquisition (Spring Grove Resource Recovery, Inc.) and opened nine sales offices and a service center in Waukegan, Illinois. During the third quarter of 1993, as part of its efforts to consolidate its gains in market share and focus on areas where the Company has obtained substantial business, the Company closed two of the nine new sales offices (in Detroit, Michigan and Kansas City, Missouri), while opening another sales office (in Buffalo, New York) and a new service center in Portsmouth, New Hampshire. In July 1994, the Company opened an additional service center in Lake Charles, Louisiana.

Sales offices may become service centers as business around a sales office develops and the Company adds staff and equipment to support the increasing level of business. During the first quarter of 1994, the Company's sales office in St. Louis, Missouri became a service center, by relocating to larger space and adding field technicians and personnel to service customers. Also during the quarter, the Company relocated its sales personnel from its sales office in Newburgh, New York to other sales locations. The Company now has 22 service centers and eight sales offices. As its sales territories evolve, the Company will relocate sales personnel from one area to another. For example, the Company plans to relocate its sales personnel from Minneapolis, Minnesota and Columbus, Ohio to other territories, and to relocate other personnel to new sales locations in Georgia, South Carolina, Tennessee and Texas during the third quarter of 1994.

During 1993, the Company's cost of revenues increased to 67.2% of revenues, as compared to 66.1% of revenues in 1992. During the first quarter of 1994, the Company's cost of revenues increased to 70.0% of revenues, as compared to 65.3% for the first quarter of 1993. Although the Company's total revenues increased from $176,193,000 in 1992 to $200,114,000 in 1993, and from $43,452,000 in the first quarter of 1993 to $51,285,000 in the first quarter of 1994, this increase was less than the Company had anticipated at the beginning of 1993 primarily because of intense price competition for industrial waste management services which developed during 1993.

In August 1993, the Company began a company-wide reengineering program to improve gross margins by increasing the ratio of billable to nonbillable personnel, improving bidding and execution of jobs, improving the pricing of remediation work, and declining jobs with less than acceptable margins. At March 31, 1994, the Company had 1,459 regular employees (compared to 1,533 at September 30, 1993), and approximately 58% of its workforce at March 31, 1994 was billable personnel (compared to 57% at September 30, 1993). As part of the reengineering program, the Company has also implemented a new computerized service center job margin system, which allows daily tracking of margins on all work orders executed each month. Cost control efforts continue as the Company attempts to utilize its own resources more efficiently and reduce expenses paid to outside vendors for lab work, subcontract work, transportation and disposal.

The Company does not foresee further deterioration in gross margins in the near future. However, the various factors affecting its revenues and costs described above are expected to continue through 1994.

Primarily as a result of the reengineering program described above, selling, general and administrative expenses were reduced to below 20% of revenues in the first quarter of 1994. Management of the Company is determined to continue to hold costs at no more than that level and to improve productivity in order to offset the deterioration in gross margins caused by the current pricing environment.

The Company's operations are subject to seasonal fluctuations. Typically during the first quarter there is less demand for environmental remediation due to the cold weather, particularly in the Northeast and Midwest regions. In addition, factory closings for the year-end holidays reduce the volume of industrial waste generated, which results in lower volumes of waste handled by the Company during the first quarter of the following year. Customer spending for environmental remediation services is also influenced by budgetary cycles and constraints, and remediation projects are typically fewer in the first quarter of the budget year, with more projects occurring in subsequent quarters as customers seek to complete budgeted projects before the end of the year.

The following table sets forth for the periods indicated the Company's revenues by region, based upon the locations of its 21 service centers as of March 31, 1994.

Beginning in 1993, the Company also began to analyze its revenues on a product line basis based upon the type of principal services provided. The principal services provided by the Company fit within three categories: treatment and disposal of industrial wastes ("Treatment and Disposal"); field services provided at customer sites ("Field Services"); and specialized repackaging, treatment and disposal services for laboratory chemicals and household hazardous wastes ("LabPacks"). The following table sets forth such product line data for the periods indicated. Comparable data for prior periods is not available.

THREE MONTHS ENDED MARCH 31, 1994 COMPARED TO THREE MONTHS ENDED MARCH 31, 1993

Revenues. Revenues for the first quarter of 1994 increased 18% to $51,285,000, from revenues of $43,452,000 in the first quarter of the prior year. Combined revenues of the Mid-Atlantic, Midwest, and Central regions grew 37%, offsetting a 7% decline in the Northeast region, which was particularly hard-hit by winter weather in 1994. The Mid-Atlantic region includes the Company's service center in Puerto Rico, which had approximately $7 million of revenue during the first quarter of 1994 from the clean-up of the oil spill from a barge off the coast of Puerto Rico.

For the first quarter of 1994, Treatment and Disposal comprised 37% of total revenues, while Field Services comprised 50% and LabPacks comprised 13%. For the first quarter of 1993, Treatment and Disposal comprised 47% of total revenues, while Field Services comprised 40% and LabPacks comprised 13%. The increase in Field Services in the first quarter of 1994 was due primarily to the impact of the Puerto Rico oil spill. Without such spill, the revenues by product line would have been 43% for Treatment and Disposal; 42% for Field Services; and 15% for LabPacks.

The severe winter weather adversely impacted operations throughout the Company's service territory in January and February, causing business to be postponed or canceled. Although the weather caused a shortfall in revenue from its base business in January and February, the Company believes some of the postponed business was realized in March, since overall business in March was better than planned. The Company was also able during the quarter to reallocate its resources to facilitate the emergency response in Puerto Rico.

Cost of Revenues. For the three months ended March 31, 1994, the cost of revenues as a percentage of revenues increased to 70.0% as compared to 65.3% for the same period of the prior year, reflecting the competitive pricing trends in the hazardous waste industry. However, the first quarter's cost of revenues as a percentage of revenues was the same as it was for the preceding quarter ended December 31, 1993. Despite the bad weather during January and February, the Company realized a slight gross margin improvement in its base business from the fourth quarter of 1993. The gross margin on the revenue from the Puerto Rico oil spill was substantially below the gross margin on the Company's base business, since most of the labor involved in the spill cleanup was subcontracted locally for the project as required by local law. The cost of revenues as a percentage of total revenues would have been 69.1% without the Puerto Rico spill. The Company managed to utilize resources efficiently and control costs during the quarter, so that profitability did not suffer.

One of the largest components of cost of revenues is the cost of sending waste to other companies for disposal. Internal waste disposal capabilities have expanded as a result of continued modifications and upgrades at the Company's facilities, and acquisitions of facilities with waste treatment systems not found at other Company plants. For example, in February 1993, the Company acquired Spring Grove Resource Recovery, Inc., the operator of a hazardous waste management facility in Cincinnati, Ohio ("Spring Grove"), which provides hazardous wastewater treatment and pretreatment of waste to stabilize it before it is sent to landfills. The Company continues to benefit from a competitive pricing environment among disposal vendors, such as landfills and incinerators, to whom the Company sends waste for ultimate disposal. As a result, the Company's outside disposal costs decreased to 12.8% of revenues in the first quarter of 1994 (calculated excluding revenue from the Puerto Rico oil spill), from 15.7% of revenues in the first quarter of 1993.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses. Selling, general and administrative expenses for the three months ended March 31, 1994 decreased to 19.3% of revenues as compared to 21.6% for the three months ended March 31, 1993. This decrease is primarily due to the reengineering program begun in August 1993, which focuses on improving productivity and the ratio of billable to nonbillable staff. See "General" above. Since June 30, 1993, the Company has reduced its nonbillable staff by 13%, while increasing its billable staff by 2%. The Company has managed to reduce its payroll base 6% since June 30, 1993, and improve its ratio of billable to nonbillable staff. At March 31, 1994, the Company had 1,459 regular employees; approximately 58% of its workforce was billable personnel, compared to 54% at June 30, 1993. Management of the Company has accomplished the goal it set in August 1993 of driving selling, general and administrative costs to below 20% of revenues.

Interest Expense. Interest expense for the three month periods ended March 31, 1994 and March 31, 1993 was $1,819,000 and $1,737,000, respectively. No interest was capitalized during either quarter. Approximately half of the Company's debt outstanding as of March 31, 1994 consisted of amounts drawn under its Bank Revolver. Interest on amounts outstanding under the Bank Revolver are payable monthly in arrears and accrue at The First National Bank of Boston's base rate plus 1%, or at the Company's option, at a rate which is 3% over the "Eurodollar Rate" offered to the bank by prime banks in the Eurodollar interbank market. At May 31, 1994, the Company had elected the Eurodollar option with respect to $32,000,000 of the amounts outstanding under the Bank Revolver; the Eurodollar Rate was 4.38% and the bank's base rate was 7.25%. See "Liquidity and Capital Resources" below.

Income Taxes. The effective income tax rate for the first quarter of 1994 was 46%, as compared to 44% in the first quarter of 1993. The effective rates are higher than the combined state and federal statutory rates due in part to the amortization of goodwill for accounting purposes, which is nondeductible for income tax reporting purposes. The effective rate fluctuates depending on the amount of goodwill amortization and other nondeductible amounts as compared to income before taxes. The Company expects its effective income tax rate for 1994 to be approximately 46%.

Revenues. Revenues for 1993 were $200,114,000, a 13.6% increase over 1992 revenues of $176,193,000. As shown in the regional revenue table above, the Mid-Atlantic, Central, and Midwest regions showed the benefit of the Company's expansion efforts, as the combined revenues in those three regions grew 17%, in contrast to the Northeast region, where revenues grew 9%. Despite the recessionary economy, industry-wide pricing pressures, and efforts by customers to minimize the amount of hazardous waste generated, the Company continued to experience growth in revenues, primarily from gains in market share in all regions, by expanding the range of services offered and the geographic territory served. New services not previously offered included: pretreatment of waste to stabilize it before it is sent to landfills, treatment and disposal of special categories of hazardous wastewaters (so-called "listed" waste and "lean water") previously sent to competitors for disposal; blending of waste used as supplemental fuel by industrial furnaces; and the introduction of new waste treatment technology, such as the Clean Extraction System ("CES"). The territory served expanded through opening new sales offices in areas outside the existing service area, such as Minnesota, Missouri, Kentucky, and Puerto Rico.

Revenue in the Mid-Atlantic region grew 16% from 1992 to 1993, primarily through gains in market share. No new sales offices were opened in the region in 1993. In addition to expanding its base business in the Mid-Atlantic region, the Company also benefited from rapid growth of its Puerto Rico business, which accounted for approximately one-half of the $8.5 million increase in revenue from 1992 to 1993.

Revenue in the Central region grew 17% from 1992 to 1993. The Central region benefited from the February 1993 acquisition of Spring Grove, the operator of a hazardous waste management facility in Cincinnati, and the opening of two sales offices (Buffalo and Columbus). The Company experienced significant gains in market share in the Central region over the past several years. For example, 1992 revenues were 53% higher than 1991 revenues. The Company expected even higher revenue growth in the Central region in 1993, leveraging off the Spring Grove acquisition. While volumes of waste handled at the Spring Grove facility and its revenues have grown since the acquisition, Central region revenue growth overall was lower than expected, largely because of lower remediation activity in the region in 1993.

Revenue in the Midwest region grew 22% from 1992 to 1993. The Midwest region benefited from the July 1992 acquisition of Mr. Frank, Inc., an established transportation and environmental services company located near Chicago, Illinois, and the opening of a service center in Waukegan, Illinois and four sales offices (Grand Rapids, St. Louis, Minneapolis, and Indianapolis). However, gains in market share in this region were increasingly difficult to achieve, due to competition from many smaller firms offering industrial maintenance and waste disposal services at lower cost.

The Northeast region continued to show improved business levels, despite a decline in industrial activity in the region. Revenue in the Northeast region grew 9% from 1992 to 1993. The Company believes it has regained market share from competitors, partly as a result of capitalizing on the July 1992 acquisition of Connecticut Treatment Corporation, a hazardous waste management facility located in Bristol, Connecticut, which treats "listed" wastewater. Although results for 1993 show an increase in revenues in the Northeast, revenues from 1991 to 1992 declined 6%. The prevailing trend over the past few years has been flat, as major industries in the region, such as defense, aerospace, computers, and high-technology, have experienced cutbacks in production.

Recent gains in revenue in the Northeast exceeded the Company's expectations, while revenue growth in the other three regions did not meet expectations, primarily because of significantly lower remediation activity, particularly in the Central and Midwest regions. While waste disposal volumes were strong, competition put downward pressure on prices, which contributed to a shortfall in revenues, relative to expectations.

Cost of Revenues. One of the largest components of cost of revenues is the cost of sending waste to other companies for disposal. The Company has been able to upgrade the quality and efficiency of its waste treatment services through the development of new technology, strategic acquisitions, and continued modifications and upgrades at its facilities. These actions reduce the Company's costs and its dependence on outside disposal vendors. Internal waste disposal capabilities expanded as a result of the CES beginning commercial operations in June 1992, the acquisition of Connecticut Treatment Corporation in the third quarter of 1992, the issuance of a new permit at the Baltimore facility in September 1992, and the acquisition of Spring Grove in the first quarter of 1993. The Company has also benefited from a competitive pricing environment among disposal facilities, such as landfills and incinerators, to which the Company sends waste for ultimate disposal. As a result, the Company's outside disposal costs decreased to 15.4% of revenue in 1993 from 18.2% of revenue in 1992.

However, the benefits the Company experiences from price competition among disposal vendors can be outweighed when the Company reduces its waste treatment prices in response to price reductions by others. For example, price reductions by incinerators of "lean water" streams have forced the Company to reduce its prices for processing such waste streams in the CES in Baltimore, reducing profitability since most of its costs for depreciation and labor are fixed.

Employee costs grew significantly in 1993, as the Company increased its staff in anticipation of double-digit revenue growth. At December 31, 1992, the Company had 1,310 regular employees. Employment peaked during September 1993; at September 30, 1993 the Company had 1,533 regular employees. The Company's cost of revenues, excluding disposal costs paid to third parties, increased from 47.9% of total revenues in 1992 to 51.8% in 1993, as intense price competition and increased labor costs combined to offset the benefits the Company experienced from a competitive pricing environment among disposal facilities. As a result, the cost of revenues increased to 67.2% of revenues in 1993, as compared to 66.1% of revenues in 1992, reflecting the competitive pricing trends in the hazardous waste industry.

In August 1993, the Company began a company-wide reengineering program to improve gross margins, by increasing the ratio of billable to nonbillable personnel, improved bidding and execution of jobs, better pricing of remediation work, and declining jobs with less than acceptable margins. See "General" above.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses. Selling, general and administrative expenses increased to $42,296,000 or 21.1% of revenues in 1993, as compared to $35,923,000 or 20.4% of revenues for 1992. This increase was primarily due to the costs associated with the expansion in the Mid-Atlantic,

Central and Midwest regions, and the administrative infrastructure required to support new sales offices and service centers. During the third quarter of 1993, as part of its efforts to consolidate its gains in market share and control costs, the Company closed two of the nine sales offices opened earlier in the year (in Detroit, Michigan and Kansas City, Missouri), while opening another sales office (in Buffalo, New York) and a new service center in Portsmouth, New Hampshire. At December 31, 1993, the Company maintained 29 service centers and sales offices.

One of the goals of the reengineering program begun in August 1993 is to reduce the number of nonbillable personnel, through elimination of positions and reassigning some people from nonbillable overhead positions to billable positions included in gross margin, in an effort to reduce selling, general and administrative costs to a quarterly rate of approximately $10 million in 1994. Management of the Company has set a goal of driving selling, general and administrative costs down from the 1993 level of $42.3 million, and reducing these costs approximately 5% in 1994.

Interest Expense. Interest expense for 1993 decreased to 3.6% of revenues, as compared to 4.0% of revenues for 1992. The decrease resulted primarily from a series of reductions in the interest rates of the Company's Bank Revolver and certain subordinated notes which occurred in the fourth quarter of 1992. The benefits of reduced interest rates were offset somewhat by the additional indebtedness incurred for acquisitions since the first half of 1992. Total debt at December 31, 1993 was approximately $5,000,000 higher than at December 31, 1992. No interest was capitalized during 1993, as compared to $301,000 of interest capitalized during 1992, primarily for the CES in Baltimore before it commenced commercial operation on June 1, 1992.

Provision for Income Taxes. The effective income tax rate for 1993 was 46%, an increase over the 35% effective income tax rate for 1992. The rate for 1992 was lower than the combined state and federal statutory rate due in part to the utilization of certain alternative minimum tax credit carryforwards. The rate for 1993 was higher than the combined state and federal statutory rate due in part to the amortization of goodwill which is nondeductible for income tax reporting purposes. The rate fluctuates depending on the amount of income before taxes, as compared to the fixed amount of goodwill and other nondeductible amounts. The Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993 did not impact 1993's effective income tax rate; the Company expects the Act to have a minimal impact on its rate in 1994, currently estimated to be 46%.

Revenues. Revenues for the year ended December 31, 1992 increased 16.5% to $176,193,000 from $151,278,000 for the unaudited twelve-month period ended December 31, 1991. Combined revenues in the Mid-Atlantic, Central and Midwest regions increased to 56% of total revenues for the year ended December 31, 1992 from 45% of total revenues for the unaudited twelve-month period ended December 31, 1991. The Company continued to experience growth in those three regions, which demonstrated the Company's ability to diversify successfully from its New England base while maintaining its leading position in the Northeast. The growth in revenues in those regions resulted from gains in market share in the new markets and increased volumes of business in both environmental remediation and hazardous waste management.

During the third quarter of 1992, the Company acquired Connecticut Treatment Corporation. This acquisition expanded the Company's range of waste processing capabilities and service lines, providing the Company with increased capacity as well as the ability to treat "listed" wastewaters, which the Company previously sent for outside disposal. During the third quarter of 1992, the Company also acquired Mr. Frank, Inc. which generated increased volumes of waste disposal, primarily for the Company's Chicago facility. These two acquisitions, along with the commencement of commercial operations of the CES in Baltimore in June 1992 and gains in market share in all regions, contributed to the 1992 revenue increase. In addition, during the fourth quarter of 1992 the Company completed a large factory decontamination project in the Mid-Atlantic region, which produced revenues in excess of $3,000,000.

Cost of Revenues. The Company's cost of revenues for the year ended December 31, 1992 decreased to 66.1% of revenues, as compared to 67.4% of revenues for the ten-month transition period ended December 31, 1991. This decrease reflected the Company's efforts to control costs through overtime minimization and the utilization of temporary labor, as well as the implementation of selective price increases on hazardous waste disposal. In addition, the Company benefited in 1992 from a competitive pricing environment among operators of disposal facilities, such as landfills and incinerators, to which the Company sends waste for ultimate disposal.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses. Selling, general and administrative expenses for the year ended December 31, 1992 increased to 20.4% of revenues, as compared to 18.7% of revenues during the ten-month transition period ended December 31, 1991. This increase resulted in substantial part from costs associated with the expansion of the Company in the Mid-Atlantic, Central and Midwest regions, and the administrative infrastructure required to support new sales offices and service centers. During 1992, the Company furnished and staffed 16 new locations.

Interest Expense. Interest expense for the year ended December 31, 1992 declined to 4.0% of revenues, as compared to 4.7% of revenues for the ten-month transition period ended December 31, 1991. Although the average balance of borrowings under the Company's Bank Revolver was approximately $29,000,000 for both 1991 and 1992, a decline in the prevailing "prime" lending rate from 10.3% in 1991 to 7.8% in 1992, and an adjustment to the Company's borrowing rate after its interest coverage ratio exceeded 2:1, both contributed to lowering interest expense. In addition, the interest rate charged on approximately $5,000,000 of other indebtedness was reduced from 10.0% to 8.0% in October 1992, and the interest rate charged on approximately $2,750,000 of other indebtedness was then reduced from 12.0% to 8.0%. These interest rate reductions were offset in part by additional indebtedness resulting from the July 1992 acquisitions of Connecticut Treatment Corporation, Mr. Frank, Inc., and the office building adjacent to the Company's Natick facility.

Provision for Income Taxes. The effective income tax rate was 35.3% during the year ended December 31, 1992, as compared to 30.3% for the transition period ended December 31, 1991. The effective income tax rate for both periods was lower than the statutory rate due to the Company's utilization of alternative minimum tax and net operating loss carryforwards. The rate for the transition period was lower than the 1992 rate because of tax benefits remaining from the 1990 write-off of the rotary kiln incinerator project.

FACTORS THAT MAY AFFECT FUTURE RESULTS

The Company's future operating results may be affected by a number of factors, including the Company's ability to: realize and make permanent the anticipated cost reduction benefits associated with its reengineering program initiated in August of 1993; utilize its facilities and workforce profitably, in the face of intense price competition; successfully increase market share in its existing service territory while expanding its product offerings into other markets; and integrate additional hazardous waste management facilities and generate incremental volumes of waste to be handled through such facilities from existing sales offices and service centers and others which may be opened in the future.

The Company's operations may be affected by the commencement and completion of major site remediation projects; seasonal fluctuations due to weather and budgetary cycles influencing the timing of customers' spending for remedial activities; the timing of regulatory decisions relating to hazardous waste management projects; secular changes in the process waste industry towards waste minimization and the propensity for delays in the remedial market; suspension of governmental permits; and fines and penalties for noncompliance with the myriad regulations governing the Company's diverse operations. As a result of these factors, the Company's revenues and net income could vary significantly from quarter to quarter, and past financial performance should not be considered a reliable indicator of future performance.

The Company participates in a highly volatile industry, with multiple competitors, many of which have recently taken large write-offs and asset write-downs and undergone major restructurings, while others have announced they will undergo such restructurings and incur special charges in the near future. The Company's participation in a highly dynamic industry often results in significant volatility of the Company's common stock price, as well as that of its competitors.

ENVIRONMENTAL CONTINGENCIES

While increasing environmental regulation often presents new business opportunities to the Company, it likewise often results in increased operating costs as the Company expands its compliance staff to cope with myriad federal, state and local regulations. The Company strives to conduct its operations in compliance with applicable laws and regulations, including environmental rules and regulations, and has as its goal 100% compliance. This effort requires programs to promote compliance, such as training employees and customers, purchasing health and safety equipment, and in some cases hiring outside consultants and lawyers. Even with these programs, management believes that in the ordinary course of doing business, companies in the environmental services and waste disposal industry are faced with governmental enforcement proceedings resulting in fines or other sanctions and will likely be required to pay civil penalties or to expend funds for remedial work on waste management facilities.

From time to time, the Company has paid fines or penalties in governmental environmental enforcement proceedings, usually involving its waste treatment, storage and disposal facilities. The possibility always exists that substantial expenditures could result from governmental proceedings, which would have a negative impact on earnings for a particular reporting period. More importantly, federal, state and local regulators have the power to suspend or revoke permits or licenses needed for operation of the Company's plants, equipment, and vehicles, based on the Company's compliance record, and customers may decide not to use a particular disposal facility or do business with a company because of concerns about the compliance record. Suspension or revocation of permits or licenses would impact the Company's operations and could have a material adverse impact on financial results.

Certain Company subsidiaries have transported or generated waste sent to sites which have been designated state or federal Superfund sites. As a result, the Company has been named as a potentially responsible party at 18 state and federal Superfund sites. Ten of these sites involve two subsidiaries which the Company acquired from Chemical Waste Management, Inc. ("ChemWaste"), a public company 77%-owned by WMX Technologies, Inc., and one site involves a subsidiary which the Company acquired from Southdown, Inc., a public company. As part of these acquisitions, ChemWaste and Southdown, Inc. agreed to indemnify the Company with respect to any liability of such subsidiaries for waste disposed of before the Company acquired them. With respect to the other Superfund sites at which the Company believes it may face liability, the Company has established reserves or escrows which it believes are appropriate. Therefore, the Company believes that any future settlement costs arising from any or all of the 18 Superfund sites will not be material to the Company's operations or financial position. As of June 1, 1994, the Company had accrued environmental costs of $455,000 for cleanup of Superfund sites. See "Business--Legal Proceedings."

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

The Company has financed its operations and capital expenditures primarily by cash flow from operations and additions to long-term debt. Cash provided by operations, before changes in current assets and current liabilities, was $15,404,000 in 1993, as compared to $15,850,000 in 1992. Net additions to long-term debt provided $4,928,000 and $220,000 in those years, respectively. Cash provided by operations, before changes in current assets and current liabilities, was $3,086,000 for the three months ended March 31, 1994 and $3,398,000 for the three months ended March 31, 1993.

During the three months ended March 31, 1994, net reductions in long-term debt were $2,105,000, and the Company spent $630,000 on additions to plant and equipment, as compared to the same period of the prior year when its capital expenditures were $2,179,000 (excluding the cost to acquire Spring Grove), and net additions to long-term debt were $2,255,000. The Company anticipates that its capital expenditures for the remainder of 1994 will be approximately $5,400,000. The Company expects to fund these requirements through cash flow from operations.

In February 1993, the Company purchased Spring Grove for $7,000,000. The consideration consisted of $1,400,000 in cash and 112,000 shares of Series B convertible preferred stock with a stated value of $5,600,000. During 1993, the Company spent $8,078,000 on additions to property, plant, and equipment and construction in progress, excluding the cost to purchase Spring Grove.

At December 31, 1993, the Bank Revolver provided for a $50,000,000 revolving line of credit. The obligations of the Company under the Bank Revolver are collateralized by substantially all of the Company's assets. On November 5, 1993, the Company and its banks had amended the Bank

Revolver to increase the limits on certain debt and operating lease obligations from $4,000,000 to $9,000,000, which allows the Company to add vehicles and equipment needed to support the growth of the Company's business. On February 1, 1994, the Company and its banks further amended the Bank Revolver to modify certain covenants and increase the amount of the Bank Revolver to $55,000,000. The Bank Revolver currently permits loans of up to $40,000,000 and allows the Company to have up to $20,000,000 in letters of credit outstanding, provided that the combination of loans and letters of credit outstanding may not exceed $55,000,000 at any one time. As described under "Description of Other Indebtedness," the Company anticipates that the current terms of the Bank Revolver will be amended effective upon completion of the Offering so that the maximum amount of $55,000,000 now available for loans and letters of credit under the Bank Revolver will be reduced to $35,000,000.

At June 30, 1994, the loans outstanding under the Bank Revolver were $33,563,963, the letters of credit aggregated $9,347,102 and the Company had available borrowing capacity of $6,436,037 under the Bank Revolver. After giving effect to the Offering and the application of net proceeds, the Company will have outstanding no indebtedness for borrowed money, except for (i) the Senior Notes, (ii) approximately $11.8 million of loans outstanding under the Bank Revolver, (iii) $5.0 million of 10.0% senior unsecured convertible notes having a final maturity in October 1999, and (iv) a $1.2 million junior subordinated note. This will increase the Company's ability to utilize its future cash flow from operations and borrowings under the Bank Revolver for operations and potential acquisitions. The Company believes that it will have adequate liquidity over the next 12 months based upon its cash flow from operations and available borrowing capacity under the Bank Revolver.

RECENT DEVELOPMENTS

On July 11, 1994, the Company announced its unaudited results for the second quarter ended June 30, 1994. Revenues for the second quarter of 1994 were $49,683,000 with net income of $1,251,000, as compared to revenues of $51,847,000 with net income of $1,440,000 for the second quarter of 1993.

Revenues for the six months ended June 30, 1994 were $100,968,000 with net income of $1,848,000, as compared to revenues of $95,299,000 with net income of $2,275,000 for the comparable six months of 1993.

Treatment and Disposal revenue in the second quarter of 1994 fell 14% from the second quarter of 1993, reflecting industry trends toward minimization of hazardous waste generation. As a percentage of total revenues, Treatment and Disposal declined to 41% of total revenues for the second quarter of 1994, from 45% of total revenues for the same period in the prior year. Although the volume of waste handled declined, the Company has been able to improve profitability of its Treatment and Disposal business by expanding its internal waste disposal capabilities and reducing the amount of waste it sends to other companies for disposal. The Company continues to benefit from a competitive pricing environment among disposal vendors, such as landfills and incinerators, to whom the Company sends waste for ultimate disposal. As a result, the Company's outside disposal costs fell 18% to 13% of total revenues in the second quarter of 1994, from 15.2% of total revenues in the second quarter of 1993.

Field Services revenue in the second quarter of 1994 was approximately the same as it was in the second quarter of 1993. As a percentage of total revenues, Field Services increased to 44% of total revenues for the second quarter of 1994, from 42% of total revenues for the same period in the prior year. LabPacks revenue in the second quarter of 1994 grew 18% from the second quarter of 1993. As a percentage of total revenues, LabPacks increased to 15% of total revenues for the second quarter of 1994, from 13% of total revenues for the same period in the prior year.

The following table sets forth the Company's service center revenues by region for the six quarters ended June 30, 1994.

BUSINESS

The Company provides a wide range of industrial waste management services to a diversified customer base in 26 states. It is one of the largest providers of industrial waste management services in the Northeast, with a growing presence in the Mid-Atlantic, Central, and Midwest regions of the United States. The Company seeks to be recognized by customers as the premier supplier of a broad range of value-added industrial waste management services based upon quality, responsiveness, customer service, variety of risk containment systems, and cost effectiveness. The Company currently maintains a network of eight sales offices, 22 service centers and ten waste management facilities. The service centers perform site specific services and ultimately direct collected waste to the waste management facilities for treatment and processing. The Company does not own or operate end disposal sites such as landfills or incinerators.

THE INDUSTRIAL WASTE MANAGEMENT INDUSTRY

According to industry sources, the United States industrial waste management industry had total revenues in 1992 of approximately $18.6 billion. The demand for industrial waste management services has resulted primarily from the adoption and enforcement of increasingly stringent federal, state and local environmental laws and regulations over the past 20 years. See "Environmental Regulation." These laws and regulations have significantly increased the costs and potential liabilities associated with the handling of industrial wastes. Under these laws and regulations, a broad list of industrial wastes are classified as "hazardous," and generators of hazardous wastes retain potential legal liability for the proper treatment of such wastes through and including their ultimate disposal. In response to these laws and regulations, many generators of both hazardous and nonhazardous wastes have chosen not to maintain their own treatment and disposal facilities nor to develop the technical expertise necessary to assure regulatory compliance. These generators have instead sought to have their waste streams managed by firms that possess collection, transportation, recycling, treatment, disposal and waste-tracking capabilities and have the expertise and financial capacity necessary to comply with applicable environmental laws and regulations.

The laws and regulations which govern the industrial waste management industry are complex and wide-reaching. The most significant of such laws affecting the Company are the following federal laws:

- . The Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976, as amended ("RCRA")--Governs hazardous waste generation, treatment, transportation, storage and disposal.
- . The Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act of 1980, as amended (the "Superfund Act")--Provides for immediate response and removal actions coordinated by the EPA to releases of hazardous substances into the environment, and authorizes the EPA to order potentially responsible parties to perform any necessary clean-up.
- . The Federal Water Pollution Control Act, as amended by the Clean Water Act and subsequent amendments (the "Clean Water Act")--Prohibits discharges of wastes into waters of the United States without governmental authorization.
- . The Toxic Substances Control Act ("TSCA")--Authorizes the EPA to regulate over 60,000 commercially produced chemical substances, including the proper disposal of polychlorinated biphenyls ("PCBs").
- .The Clean Air Act--Authorizes the EPA to regulate major sources of air emissions.

According to industry sources, the five industries which produced in 1992 the largest amounts of industrial hazardous wastes (by dollar amount of spending paid for management services) were chemicals (28.3%), oil (15.9%), paper and pulp (13.2%), primary metals (8.7%) and automotive (5.0%). In 1992, approximately 81% of the total industrial hazardous wastes in the United States (by dollar amount of spending paid for management services) were produced by plants located in 20 states. By order of spending in 1992, such states were Texas, California, Ohio, Louisiana, Illinois, Pennsylvania, Georgia, New York, Indiana, Michigan, New Jersey, Alabama, North Carolina, Tennessee, Washington, Wisconsin, Kentucky, South Carolina, Florida and Missouri. The Company currently operates service centers or sales offices in 12 of these 20 states and has plans to expand into an additional four states: Georgia, South Carolina, Tennessee and Texas.

As a large industrial waste management firm, the Company has significant cost advantages over many of its competitors in terms of its ability to efficiently utilize its waste management facilities and to negotiate more favorable terms for end disposal of waste. Several recent industry trends provide the Company with opportunities to grow by focusing on technological innovation, sound waste-tracking capabilities, cost reduction and a heightened commitment to customer service and responsiveness. These trends include: (i) efforts by many generators of industrial wastes to decrease the number of service providers that they utilize to a select group of industry leaders in order to minimize potential liability inherent in using less qualified firms; (ii) efforts by waste generators to reduce or recycle their waste through utilizing service providers which offer alternative disposal and treatment technologies; and (iii) a reduction in the cost of end disposal as a result of surplus landfill and incinerator capacity and the emergence of new disposal alternatives. These trends are leading to a significant consolidation of the industrial waste management industry. The Company has benefited and expects to continue to benefit from these trends through attractive acquisitions, increased market share and new market opportunities.

BUSINESS STRATEGY

In order to maintain and enhance its leading position in the industrial waste management industry, the Company has implemented a strategy of internal growth through the increased utilization of existing facilities, the addition of new sales offices and service centers, and the development of new waste management services. In addition, the Company achieves external growth through strategic acquisitions.

Increased Utilization of Waste Management Facilities. The Company currently has ten waste management facilities which represent a substantial investment in permits, plant and equipment. These facilities provide the Company with significant operating leverage. There are opportunities to expand capacity at these facilities by modifying the terms of the existing permits and by adding capital equipment and new technology. Through selected permit modifications, the Company can expand the range of treatment services which it offers to its customers without the large capital investment necessary to acquire or build new waste management facilities. The Company believes that permits for new industrial waste management facilities will become increasingly difficult to obtain, thereby placing new entrants and weaker competitors at a disadvantage.

Sales Office/Service Center Expansion. The Company opens sales offices in attractive target markets which can be serviced by existing facilities and expand the Company's service areas. As demand at a particular sales office reaches a sufficient level, the sales office can be upgraded to a service center with field service capabilities by the addition of field technicians, service personnel and equipment. The Company's sales offices and service centers direct waste into the Company's waste management facilities. This allows the Company to expand its service areas with low risk capital investment and to maximize throughput with minimal incremental cost by obtaining additional wastes to be handled by the Company's service centers and waste management facilities. Since January 1, 1993, the Company has added eight sales offices and one service center, and three sales offices have been upgraded to service centers.

New Waste Management Services. Industrial waste generators are demanding alternatives to traditional waste disposal methods in order to increase recycling and reclamation and to minimize the end disposal of hazardous waste into the environment. The Company utilizes its technological expertise and innovation to improve and expand the range of services which it offers to its customers. The Company has commercialized a hazardous waste treatment system, the Clean Extraction System ("CES"), to extract toxic compounds from industrial wastewaters by utilizing non-toxic liquid carbon dioxide at high pressures. CES offers for certain wastewater streams a recycling alternative to incineration or injection into deep underground wells. The Company has also recently signed a development agreement with Molten Metal Technology, Inc., an environmental technology company developing a proprietary technology known as Catalytic Extraction Processing which uses a molten metal bath as a catalyst and solvent to break down the molecular structures of various hazardous wastes into their elements for recycling or reuse.

Capitalization on Industry Consolidation. The Company believes that its large industrial customers will ultimately require a comprehensive range of waste treatment capabilities to be provided by a select number of service providers. This trend will put smaller operators at a competitive disadvantage due to their size and limited financial resources. To respond to its customers' needs, the Company has increased the range of waste management services it offers and has followed a strategy of acquiring companies in existing, contiguous and new market areas. Since its formation in 1980, the Company has completed 12 acquisitions, each of which has proven successful in expanding the Company's market share and cash flow. The Company continues to investigate and discuss other potential acquisitions of permitted facilities in order to enhance service to its existing customer base and expand its customer base to include new regional and super-regional waste generators. The Company has signed a letter of intent with Chemical Waste Management, Inc. which would allow the Company to expand its Chicago waste management facility into an adjoining site. See "Business--Properties--Hazardous Waste Management Facilities--Chicago, IL." Acquisitions within the Company's existing areas of operation serve to capture incremental market share, while geographic expansion creates new market opportunities. See "Acquisitions" below.

ACQUISITIONS

The Company has made five acquisitions since January 1, 1989.

DATE OF ACQUISITION -----	COMPANY ACQUIRED -----	PURCHASE PRICE -----
1989	ChemClear Inc., a publicly-traded company in the business of treating liquid and semi-liquid hazardous and nonhazardous industrial wastes at treatment plants in Baltimore, Maryland; Cleveland, Ohio; Chicago, Illinois; and Chester, Pennsylvania	$27.6 million
1989	Murphy's Waste Oil Service, Inc., the operator of a waste oil treatment and storage facility in Woburn, Massachusetts	$0.2 million
1992	Connecticut Treatment Corporation, the operator of a hazardous waste treatment facility in Bristol, Connecticut	$2.4 million
1992	Mr. Frank, Inc., a Chicago-based transportation and environmental services company serving industrial companies primarily in Illinois, Indiana and Michigan	$2.2 million
1993	Spring Grove Resource Recovery, Inc., the operator of a hazardous waste treatment facility in Cincinnati, Ohio	$7.0 million

Prior to closing any acquisition, the Company attempts to investigate thoroughly the current and contingent liabilities of the company to be acquired, including potential liabilities arising from noncompliance with environmental laws by prior owners for which the Company, as a successor owner, might become responsible. The Company also seeks to minimize the impact of potential liabilities by obtaining indemnities and warranties from the sellers which may be supported by deferring payment of or by escrowing a portion of the purchase price. See "Legal Proceedings" below for a description of the indemnities which the Company has received in connection with past acquisitions.

As part of its growth strategy the Company continues to investigate and discuss other potential acquisitions. However, no definitive agreements have been entered into by the Company relating to any potential material acquisition, and there can be no assurance that such discussions will result in additional acquisitions.

SERVICES

The principal services provided by the Company fit within three categories: treatment and disposal of industrial wastes ("Treatment and Disposal"); field services provided at customer sites ("Field Services"); and specialized repackaging, treatment and disposal services for laboratory chemicals and household hazardous wastes ("LabPacks"). The Company markets these services on an integrated basis and, in many instances, services in one area of the business support or lead to a project undertaken in another area.

[WHEEL CHART SHOWING THE TYPES OF SERVICES PROVIDED BY THE COMPANY AND THEIR RESPECTIVE PERCENTAGES OF TOTAL REVENUES]

In addition to these three principal services, the Company also provides technical services such as analytical testing and engineering services and personnel training. Such technical services primarily support the Company's principal services, although technical services are also offered to a limited extent on a stand-alone commercial basis.

The Company currently maintains a network of ten waste management facilities, 22 service centers and eight sales offices. The service centers and sales offices accommodate sales personnel who develop and maintain contact with the Company's customers. Customers are generally covered by a two person team: an "account manager" who is responsible for sales and a "customer service account manager" who is responsible for order taking, handling customer inquiries and other administrative tasks. Account managers utilize the expertise of product specialists in order to evaluate the scope of a potential job, quote a job and ultimately detail the work order, including personnel and equipment necessary to complete the job. The service centers also serve as depots for the specialized equipment and trained technical personnel which respond to customers' waste management requirements. The Company utilizes a "hub and spoke" organization where service centers and sales offices feed waste disposal business into the Company's ten waste management facilities.

As an integral part of the Company's services, industrial wastes are collected from customers and transported by the Company to and between its facilities for treatment or bulking for shipment to final disposal locations. In providing this service, the Company utilizes a variety of specially designed and constructed tank trucks and semi-trailers, as well as other third-party transporters, including railroads. Liquid waste is frequently transported in bulk, but may also be transported in drums. Heavier sludges or bulk solids are transported in sealed, roll-off containers or bulk dump trailers.

TREATMENT AND DISPOSAL. The Company transports, treats and disposes of industrial wastes for commercial and industrial customers, health care providers, educational and research organizations, other waste management companies and governmental entities. The wastes handled include substances which are classified as "hazardous" because of their corrosive, ignitable, infectious, reactive or toxic properties, and other substances subject to federal and state environmental regulation. Waste types processed or transferred in drummed or bulk quantities include:

- . flammables, combustibles and other organics,
- . acids and caustics,
- . cyanides and sulfides,
- . solids and sludges,
- . industrial wastewaters,
- . PCB materials and electrical light ballasts,
- . medical waste,
- . other regulated wastes, and
- . nonhazardous industrial waste.

Before the Company receives hazardous waste from a customer, detailed paperwork and analysis are completed to document the nature of the waste. A representative sample of the expected waste is analyzed in a Company-owned laboratory in order to establish a waste profile and to enable the Company to recommend the best method of treatment and disposal. Prior to unloading at the Company's treatment facility, a representative sample of the delivered waste is tested and analyzed to insure that it conforms to the customer's waste profile record. Once the wastes are characterized, compatible groups are consolidated to achieve economies in storage, handling, transportation and ultimate treatment and disposal. At the time of acceptance of a customer's waste at the Company's facility, a unique computer "bar code" identification character is assigned to each container of waste, enabling the Company to use sophisticated computer systems to track and document the status, location and disposition of the waste.

Wastewater Treatment. The Company's treatment and resource recovery operations involve processing hazardous wastes through the use of physical, chemical, thermal or other methods, and the reclamation and reuse of certain wastes. The nonrecoverable materials produced by these interim processing operations are then disposed of off-site at facilities owned and operated by unrelated businesses.

The Company treats a broad range of industrial liquid and semi-liquid wastes containing heavy metals, organics and suspended solids, including:

- . acids and caustics,
- . ammonias, sulfides, and cyanides,
- . heavy metals, ink wastes, and plating solutions,
- . landfill leachates and scrubber waters, and
- . oily wastes and water soluble coolants.

Wastewater treatment can be economical as well as environmentally sound, by combining different wastewaters in a "batching" process that reduces costs for multiple waste stream disposal. Acidic waste from one source can be neutralized with alkaline from a second source to produce a neutral solution.

Physical Treatment. Physical treatment methods include distillation, separation and stabilization. These methods are used to reduce the volume of waste material or to make it suitable for further treatment, reuse, or disposal. Distillation uses heat to remove liquids from solids or sludges. Separation utilizes techniques such as sedimentation, filtration, flocculation and centrifugation to remove solid materials from liquids. Stabilization refers to a category of waste treatment processes designed to reduce contaminant mobility or solubility and convert waste to a more chemically stable form. Stabilization technology includes many classes of immobilization systems and applications. Examples include low-temperature processes such as adding a sand-like cement material, and high-temperature processes such as vitrification. Stabilization is a frequent treatment method for metal-bearing wastes received at several Company facilities, which treat the waste to meet specific federal land disposal restrictions. After treatment, the waste is tested to confirm that it has been rendered nonhazardous. It can then be sent to a nonhazardous waste landfill, at significantly lower cost than disposal at a hazardous waste landfill.

Thermal Treatment. Thermal treatment refers to processes that use high temperature incineration as the principal means of waste destruction. The Company operates an incinerator at its Braintree facility which was previously used to destroy hospital waste. In late 1991, approvals were granted to allow the incinerator to destroy nonhazardous wastes which were previously sent to landfills or municipal incinerators. It also generates steam which is used in steam distillation equipment for reclaiming solvents. Other waste residues are incinerated in off-site facilities owned and operated by other companies.

Resource Recovery. Resource recovery involves the treatment of wastes using various methods which will effectively remove contaminants from the original material to restore its fitness for its intended purpose, and to reduce the volume of waste requiring disposal. In conjunction with recent regulatory provisions restricting the burial of various types of hazardous wastes, the Company substantially upgraded its existing facilities for the reclamation and reuse of certain wastes, particularly solvent-based wastes generated by industrial cleaning operations, metal finishing and other manufacturing processes.

Spent solvents that can be recycled are processed through thin film evaporators and other processing equipment and are distilled into clean, usable products. Upon recovery of these products, the Company either returns the recovered solvents to the original generator or sells them to third parties.

Other nonrecoverable organic liquids with sufficient heat value are blended to meet strict specifications for use as supplemental fuels for cement kilns, blast furnaces and other high-efficiency boilers. The Company has established relationships with a number of supplemental fuel users that are licensed to accept the blended fuel material. Although the Company pays a fee to the users who accept this product, this disposal method is substantially less costly than other disposal methods.

Clean Extraction System. The Clean Extraction System ("CES") is a hazardous waste treatment system commercialized by the Company which extracts organic compounds from industrial wastewater. CES uses carbon dioxide that has been compressed at high pressure into a liquid. Under these "supercritical" conditions, carbon dioxide acts as a powerful solvent for most commonly occurring contaminants. CES uses supercritical carbon dioxide as a solvent to remove organic contaminants, such as gasoline, acetone, methylene chloride, pesticides and other chemicals, from industrial wastewater called "lean water." Lean water is generated by oil companies, utilities, and manufacturers of specialty chemicals and pharmaceuticals.

The CES was installed at the Company's Baltimore facility, and began commercial operation in June 1992. The system includes specialized pretreatment and post-treatment systems and techniques, in addition to a central extractor unit, to maximize extraction efficiency. In the Baltimore CES, wastewater receives chemical and physical pretreatment before entering a central extractor unit. The wastewater is fed into the top of a 40-foot tall pressurized chamber, and flows down through a stack of perforated plates as a continual supply of liquefied carbon dioxide rises from the bottom of the chamber. As the wastewater and carbon dioxide mix, organic contaminants separate from the water and dissolve in the carbon dioxide. The liquid carbon dioxide flows from the top of the chamber into a decompression vessel. As the pressure decreases, the carbon dioxide vaporizes into a gas, leaving the organic contaminants at the bottom of the vessel, where they are collected. The concentrated organics can be recycled or burned as a supplemental fuel for resource recovery. The cleansed water flows from the bottom of the chamber, through a series of decompression and post-treatment tanks. After treatment, the cleansed water is discharged to the City of Baltimore sewer treatment works.

This process enables the Company to handle a broad range of complex, difficult to treat organic and inorganic "lean waters" formerly sent to other companies for disposal. CES offers the Company's industrial customers, such as chemical or pharmaceutical companies, an attractive recycling alternative to disposal of their "lean water" by incineration or injection into deep underground wells. Current treatment capacity is between six and ten million gallons per year, depending on the characteristics of the wastewater being treated.

Proposed Catalytic Extraction Processing. In May 1994, the Company signed a development agreement with Molten Metal Technology, Inc. of Waltham, Massachusetts ("MMT"), an environmental technology company developing an innovative, proprietary processing technology known as Catalytic Extraction Processing ("CEP"). CEP utilizes a molten metal bath as a catalyst and solvent to break down the molecular structures of various hazardous wastes into their elements. With the addition of various other elements, industrial compounds are made into products for reuse as a raw material by the feedstock generator or for sale to other industrial users. Under the development agreement, the Company and MMT have agreed to install a CEP system at one of the Company's waste management facilities. Under the proposed arrangement, MMT will be primarily responsible for the design, engineering, financing, construction, start-up and operation of the CEP system, while the Company will provide the site and infrastructure around a building which will house the CEP system. MMT will then build, own and operate the CEP system and be responsible for the disposition of CEP products generated from the processing of feedstocks, while the Company will be responsible for delivery of feedstocks. The Company will pay MMT market prices to process the feedstocks and will share in any profits generated by the CEP system. However, development of the CEP system pursuant to the development agreement is subject to a number of conditions and uncertainties, including the negotiation and execution of definitive agreements, and no assurances can be given that the CEP system will be successfully developed or operated.

Disposal. After treatment of industrial wastes at the Company's facilities, the hazardous waste residues (such as sludges) which remain after such treatment are disposed of in facilities operated by third parties. The Company also arranges for the disposal of its customers' hazardous wastes which cannot be treated at Company-owned facilities. Arrangements are made for disposal primarily in incinerators, landfills, or other permitted disposal facilities operated by third parties. These arrangements are typically made before the Company accepts waste. Although the Company's facilities are licensed to store waste, such storage is for a short period of time, usually a matter of days, before the waste is sent for ultimate disposal. On occasion, a service center may also arrange to ship a customer's waste direct to another disposal company, such as a landfill or incinerator, if the size of the waste shipment or its characteristics are such that the waste does not need to pass through one of the Company's own waste management facilities. As the volume of waste handled by the Company has grown, the Company has negotiated favorable disposal arrangements with numerous companies. The Company is not dependent on any one disposal company, and the loss of any particular outlet for disposal of waste would not have a material impact on the Company.

The Company's wastewater treatment operations are dependent upon access to publicly owned treatment works and to hazardous or nonhazardous waste landfills for the disposal of its byproduct wastes. Generally, the Company has not experienced significant difficulty in obtaining the necessary permits from local sewer authorities.

FIELD SERVICES. The Company provides a wide range of environmental field services to maintain industrial facilities and process equipment, as well as clean up or contain actual or threatened releases of hazardous materials into the environment. These services are provided primarily to large chemical, petroleum, transportation, utility, industrial and waste management companies, and to governmental agencies. The Company's strategy is to identify, evaluate, and solve its customers' environmental problems, on a planned or emergency basis, by providing a comprehensive interdisciplinary response to the specific requirements of each project.

Industrial Maintenance. Many of the Company's customers have a recurring need to clean equipment and facilities periodically in order to continue operations, maintain and improve operating efficiencies of their plants, and satisfy safety requirements. Industrial maintenance involves chemical cleaning, hydroblasting, vacuuming, and other methods to remove deposits from process equipment, such as paint booths and plating lines, and storage facilities for material used in the manufacturing or production process, such as feedstocks, chemicals, fuels, paints, oils, inks, metals and many other items. Service centers are equipped with specialty equipment, such as high volume pumps, pressure washers, nonsparking and chemical resistant tools, and a variety of personal protective equipment, to perform maintenance services quickly, usually during "off periods" to minimize downtime from production.

Project Management. An increasingly important area of the Company's operations is the management of complex environmental remediation projects. These projects may include surface remediation, groundwater restoration, site and facility decontamination, and emergency response. An interdisciplinary team of managers, chemists, engineers, and compliance experts design and implement result-oriented remedial programs, incorporating both off-site removal and on-site treatment, as needed. The remedial projects group functions as a single source management team, relieving the customer of the administrative and operational burdens associated with environmental remediation. As a full-service environmental services provider, the Company eliminates the need for multiple subcontractors.

These projects vary widely in scope, duration and revenue, and they are typically performed under service agreements between the customer and the Company. Environmental remediation projects may be undertaken in conjunction with or lead to contracts for additional remediation work or for hazardous waste management services, and typically involve the Company's analytical laboratory and engineering group.

Surface Remediation. Surface remediation projects arise in two principal areas: the planned cleanup of hazardous waste sites and the cleanup of accidental spills and discharges of hazardous materials, such as those resulting from transportation and industrial accidents. In addition, some surface remediation projects involve the cleanup and maintenance of industrial lagoons, ponds and other surface impoundments on a recurring basis. In all of these cases, an extremely broad range of hazardous substances may be encountered.

Surface remediation projects generally require considerable interaction among engineering, project management and analytical services. Following the selection of the preferred remedial alternative, the project team identifies the processes and equipment for cleanup. Simultaneously, the Company's health and safety staff develops a site safety plan for the project. Remedial approaches usually include physical removal, mechanical dewatering, stabilization or encapsulation.

Groundwater Restoration. The Company's groundwater restoration services typically involve response to above-ground spills, leaking underground tanks and lines, hazardous waste landfills and leaking surface impoundments. Groundwater restoration efforts often require complex recovery systems, including recovery drains or wells, air strippers, biodegradation or carbon filtration systems, and containment barriers. These systems and technologies can be used individually or in combination to remove a full range of floating or dissolved organic compounds from groundwater. The Company internally designs and fabricates most mobile or fixed site groundwater treatment systems.

Site and Facility Decontamination. Site and facility decontamination involves the cleanup and restoration of buildings, equipment and other sites and facilities that have been contaminated by exposure to hazardous materials during a manufacturing process, or by fires, process malfunctions, spills or other accidents. The Company's projects have included decontamination of electrical generating stations, electrical and electronics components, transformer vaults and commercial, educational, industrial, laboratory, research and manufacturing facilities.

Emergency Response. The Company undertakes environmental remediation projects on both a planned and emergency basis. Emergency response actions may develop into planned remedial action projects when soil, groundwater, buildings, or facilities are extensively contaminated. The Company has established specially trained emergency response teams which operate on a 24-hour basis from service centers covering 20 states. Many of the Company's remediation activities result from a response to an emergency situation by one of its response teams. These incidents can result from transportation accidents involving chemical substances, fires at chemical facilities or hazardous waste sites, transformer fires or explosions involving PCBs, and other unanticipated developments when the substances involved pose an immediate threat to public health or the environment, such as possible groundwater contamination.

Emergency response projects require trained personnel, equipped with protective gear and specialized equipment, prepared to respond promptly whenever these situations occur. To meet the staffing requirements for emergency response projects, the Company relies in part upon a network of trained personnel who are available on a contract basis for specific project assignments. The Company's health and safety specialists and other skilled personnel closely supervise these projects during and subsequent to the cleanup. The steps performed by the Company include rapid response, containment and control procedures, analytical testing and assessment, neutralization and treatment, collection, and transportation of the substances to an appropriate treatment or disposal facility.

LABPACKS. The Company provides specialized repackaging, treatment and disposal services for laboratory chemicals and household hazardous wastes. Such chemicals and wastes are put into

LabPacks, which are packages smaller than a 55-gallon drum, generally less than five gallons or 50 pounds. The Company offers generators of LabPack quantity waste the same economical and environmentally sound disposal services that have been offered for years to large industrial generators. The LabPack operation services a wide variety of customers, including:

- . engineering and research and development divisions of industrial companies,
- . college, university and high school labs,
- . EPA labs and Veterans Administration facilities,
- . hospitals and medical care labs,
- . state and local municipalities, and
- . tens of thousands of residents through household hazardous waste collection days.

The Company provides a team of qualified personnel with science degrees and special training to collect, label and package waste at the customer's site. LabPacks are then transported to one of the Company's facilities for consolidation into full-size containers, which are then sent for further treatment or disposal as part of the Company's treatment and disposal services described above. As described above, disposal options include reclamation, fuels blending, incineration, aqueous treatment, and secure chemical landfill.

TECHNICAL SERVICES. Technical services consist primarily of analytical testing, engineering services and personnel training. Many of the Company's principal services as described above involve the selection and application of various technologies. The Company's analytical testing laboratories perform a wide range of quantitative and qualitative analyses to determine the existence, nature, level, and extent of contamination in various media. The Company's engineering staff identifies, evaluates and implements the appropriate environmental solution.

Analytical Testing and Engineering Services. The Company provides analytical testing and engineering services as technical support to complement its primary services. For example, if the Company is engaged to perform an entire environmental remediation project, it will first perform a site or situation assessment. A site assessment begins with the determination of the existence of contamination. If present, the nature and extent of the contamination is defined by gathering samples and then analyzing them at one of the Company's laboratories in order to establish or verify the nature and extent of the contaminants. The Company's engineering staff then develops, evaluates and presents alternative solutions to remedy the particular situation. Often treatment systems are completely designed, engineered and fabricated by the Company in house. It then implements the mitigation and decontamination program mutually selected by the customer and the Company.

Analytical testing and engineering services are also provided as a separate service if a customer requires an analysis with respect to certain material, or if a customer is searching for an appropriate solution to an environmental problem or if an environmental assessment is required to allow a transfer of property.

The Company operates an EPA-qualified and state-certified analytical testing laboratory in Braintree, Massachusetts which tests samples provided by customers to identify and quantify toxic pollutants in virtually every component of the environment. The laboratory staff evaluates the properties of a given material, selects appropriate analytical methods, and executes a laboratory work plan that results in a comprehensive technical report. The Company operates a laboratory in Bedford, Massachusetts to test samples of "lean water" to determine suitability for treatment through the CES in Baltimore.

The Company also maintains laboratories at its waste management facilities to identify and characterize waste materials prior to acceptance for treatment and disposal, and operates mobile laboratory facilities for field use in emergency response and remedial action situations.

Personnel Training. The Company provides comprehensive personnel training programs for its own employees and those of its customers on a commercial basis. Such programs are designed to promote safe work practices under potential hazardous environmental conditions, whether or not toxic chemicals are present, in compliance with stringent regulations promulgated under RCRA and the federal Occupational Safety and Health Act ("OSHA"). The Company's Technical Training Center at its Kingston, Massachusetts facility includes a 2,000 gallon tank for confined space entry, exit, and extraction, an air-system demonstration maze, respirator fit testing room, leak and spill response equipment, and a layout of a mock decontamination zone, all designed to fulfill the requirements of OSHA Hazardous Waste and Emergency Response Standards.

CUSTOMERS

Since January 1994, the Company has executed approximately 2,500 work orders per month for over 4,400 customers. The Company's sales efforts are directed toward establishing and maintaining relationships with businesses which have ongoing requirements for one or more of the Company's services. The Company's customer list includes 296 of the companies on the 1994 Forbes 500 list of largest United States companies. In addition, the Company's customers include most of the major utilities in the Northeast and Mid-Atlantic regions. The Company's customers are primarily chemical, petroleum, transportation, utility and industrial firms, other waste management companies and government agencies. Management believes that the Company's diverse customer base, in terms of number, industry and geographic location, as well as its large presence in New England, provide it with a recurring stream of revenue and stability of cash flow. The Company estimates that in excess of 80% of its revenues is derived from previously served customers with recurring needs for the Company's services. The Company believes the loss of any single customer would not have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial condition or results of operations.

The Company's customer base is diverse, and generally not concentrated in particular industries, such as the petroleum or defense sectors, where business activity may be cyclical. In addition to serving industrial customers such as utilities, railroads, pipelines, pharmaceutical manufacturers, and chemical companies, the Company serves health care and educational institutions, federal, state and local governmental bodies, and thousands of small quantity generators who have recurring needs for multiple services in managing their

Under applicable environmental laws and regulations (see "Environmental Regulation"), generators of hazardous wastes retain potential legal liability for the proper treatment of such wastes through and including their ultimate disposal. In response to these potential liability concerns, many large generators of industrial wastes and other purchasers of waste management services (such as general contractors on major remediation projects) have increasingly sought to decrease the number of providers of such services that they utilize. Waste management companies which are selected as "approved vendors" by such large generators and other purchasers are firms, such as the Company, that possess sound collection, recycling, treatment, transportation, disposal and waste tracking capabilities and have the expertise and financial capacity necessary to comply with applicable environmental laws and regulations. By becoming an "approved vendor" of a large waste generator or other purchaser, the Company becomes eligible to provide waste management services to the various plants and projects of such generator or purchaser which are located in the Company's service areas. However, in order to obtain such "approved vendor" status, it may be necessary for the Company to bid against other qualified competitors in terms of the services and pricing to be provided. Furthermore, large generators or other purchasers of waste management services often periodically audit the Company's facilities and operations to insure that the Company's waste management services to such customers are being performed in compliance with applicable laws and regulations and with other criteria established by the Company and by such customers.

COMPLIANCE

The Company regards compliance with applicable environmental regulations as a critical component of its overall operations, both from the standpoint of the health and safety of its employees and as a service to its customers. See "Environmental Regulation." The Company strives to maintain the highest professional standards in its compliance activities; its internal operating requirements are in many instances more stringent than those imposed by regulation. The Company's compliance program has been developed for each of its operational facilities under the direction of the Company's corporate compliance staff. The compliance staff consists of approximately 40 full-time employees who are responsible for facilities permitting and compliance, health and safety, field safety, compliance training, transportation compliance, and related record keeping. The Company also performs periodic audits and inspections of the disposal facilities of other firms utilized by the Company.

The Company's treatment, storage and recovery facilities are frequently inspected and audited by regulatory agencies, as well as by customers. Although the Company's facilities have been cited on occasion for regulatory violations, the Company believes that each facility is in substantial compliance with applicable requirements. All major facilities and service centers have a full-time compliance or health and safety representative to oversee the implementation of the Company's compliance program at the facility or service center. These highly-trained regulatory specialists are independent from operations and report to corporate compliance, which in turn reports directly to the Chief Executive Officer.

MANAGEMENT OF RISKS

The Company follows a program of risk management policies and practices designed to reduce potential liability, as well as to manage customers' ongoing regulatory responsibility. This program includes employee training, environmental auditing, and policy decisions restricting the types of wastes handled. The Company evaluates all revenue opportunities and declines those which it believes involve unacceptable risks. The Company avoids handling high-hazard waste such as explosives, and frequently utilizes specialty subcontractors to handle such materials when confronted at a job site.

The Company only disposes of its wastes at facilities owned and operated by firms which the Company has approved as prudent and financially sound. Typically, the Company applies established technologies to the treatment, storage and recovery of hazardous wastes. The Company believes its operations are conducted in a safe and prudent manner and in substantial compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

INSURANCE

The Company's present insurance programs cover the potential risks associated with its multifaceted operations from two primary exposures: direct physical damage and third-party liability. The Company maintains a casualty insurance program providing coverage for vehicles, workers compensation, employers liability, and comprehensive general liability in the aggregate amount of $25,000,000 per year, subject to a retention of $250,000 per occurrence, except on general liability where the retention is $500,000. Since the early 1980s, casualty insurance policies have typically excluded liability for pollution, which is covered under a separate pollution liability program.

The Company has pollution liability insurance policies covering the Company's potential risk in three areas: as a contractor performing services at customer sites; as a transporter of waste; and while it handles waste at the Company's facilities. Acstar Insurance Company provides contractor's liability insurance of $2,000,000 per occurrence and $5,000,000 in the aggregate, covering off-site remedial activities and associated liabilities. Lloyds of London provides pollution liability coverage for waste in-transit with single occurrence and aggregate liability limits of $29,000,000. This Lloyds of London policy covers liability in excess of $1,000,000 for pollution caused by sudden and accidental occurrences during transportation of waste and at the Company's facilities, from the time waste is picked up from a customer until its delivery to the final disposal site.

Both federal and state regulations require liability insurance coverage for all facilities that treat, store, or dispose of hazardous waste. In 1989, the Company established a captive insurance company pursuant to the Federal Risk Retention Act of 1986. This company qualifies as a licensed insurance company and is authorized to write professional liability and pollution liability insurance for the Company and its operating subsidiaries. RCRA and comparable state hazardous waste regulations require hazardous waste handling facilities to maintain pollution liability insurance in the amount of $3,000,000 per occurrence and $6,000,000 in the aggregate per year for sudden and non-sudden occurrences. Currently, the Company uses its captive insurance company to provide (i) the first $1,000,000 of insurance against liability from sudden occurrences at its facilities, with the excess coverage provided by Lloyds of London, and (ii) the full policy limits of insurance for non-sudden occurrences.

The Company's ability to continue conducting its industrial waste management operations could be adversely affected if the Company should become unable to obtain sufficient insurance to meet its business and regulatory requirements in the future. The availability of insurance may also be influenced by developments within the insurance industry, although other businesses in the industrial waste management industry would be similarly impacted by such developments.

Under the Company's insurance programs, coverage is obtained for catastrophic exposures as well as those risks required to be insured by law or contract. It is the policy of the Company to retain a significant portion of certain expected losses related primarily to workers' compensation, physical loss to property, and comprehensive general and vehicle liability. Provisions for losses expected under these programs are recorded based upon the Company's estimates of the aggregate liability for claims. The Company has been successful in negotiating lower premiums recently, due in part to its favorable historical loss experience. The cancellation terms applicable to the Company are similar to those of other companies in other industries.

COMPETITION

The Company competes with numerous large and small companies, each of which is able to provide one or more of the industrial waste management services offered by the Company and some of which have access to greater financial resources. The Company believes it offers a more comprehensive range of industrial waste management services than any of its competitors in its service territory. The Company also believes that its ability to market and provide its services on an integrated basis constitutes a significant competitive advantage for the Company.

The Company's competitive position with respect to its treatment and disposal services is enhanced by the proximity of its facilities to hazardous waste generators and the barriers to market entry provided by capital and licensing requirements. However, treatment, recovery and disposal operations are conducted by a number of national and regional waste management firms. The Company believes that physical proximity of treatment and disposal facilities, comprehensiveness of services, safety, and quality of services and efficiency are the most significant factors in the market for treatment and disposal services.

In field services, the Company's competitors include major national and regional environmental services firms which have environmental remediation staffs. The availability of skilled technical professional personnel, quality of performance, diversity of services and, to a certain extent, price, are the key competitive factors.

EMPLOYEES

As of June 30, 1994, the Company employed 1,419 people on a regular basis. None of the Company's employees is subject to a collective bargaining agreement, and the Company believes that its relationship with its employees is satisfactory.

PROPERTIES

The properties of the Company consist primarily of ten waste management facilities, 22 service centers, various environmental remediation equipment and a fleet of approximately 600 transportation vehicles. The ten waste management facilities are described below. All of such facilities are owned by the Company, except for the Chicago hazardous waste management facility which is leased under a lease which (with extensions) expires September 2000 and the Woburn, Massachusetts waste oil treatment and storage facility which is leased under a lease which (with extensions) expires February 2004.

Hazardous Waste Management Facilities. The Company currently maintains seven hazardous waste management facilities at which it processes, treats and temporarily stores hazardous wastes for later resale, reuse or off-site treatment or disposal. Every facility that treats, stores or disposes of hazardous wastes must obtain a license from the federal EPA or an authorized state agency and must comply with certain operating requirements. See "Environmental Regulation--Federal Regulation of Hazardous Waste" below for a description of licenses issued under the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976 ("RCRA"). Seven of the Company's ten waste management facilities are subject to RCRA licensing; all seven have been issued RCRA Part B licenses, one of which is under appeal.

The Company has made substantial modifications and improvements to the physical plant and treatment and process equipment at its treatment facilities. These modifications are consistent with the Company's strategy to upgrade the quality and efficiency of treatment services, to expand the range of services provided and to ensure regulatory compliance and operating efficiencies at these facilities. Major features of this program are the addition of new treatment systems, such as the CES in Baltimore, expansion of analytical testing laboratories, drum storage and processing facilities, and equipment rearrangement and replacement to improve operating efficiency.

Braintree, MA. The Company's largest facility is located in Braintree, Massachusetts, just south of Boston. The facility is primarily engaged in drummed waste processing and consolidation, solvent recovery, transformer decommissioning, PCB storage and processing, blending of waste used as supplemental fuel by industrial furnaces, and incineration of small quantities of nonhazardous waste. The facility has been operated under a state Interim Hazardous Waste Facility License, which gave it Part A Interim Status, since 1981. The Company acquired the facility in 1985. In June 1992, the Massachusetts Department of Environmental Protection (the "DEP") approved the Company's application for a final Hazardous Waste Facility License, which would give the facility a final Part B license for a five-year term. The Town of Braintree and two adjoining communities have appealed the DEP's decision to issue the final Part B license, and requested an adjudicatory hearing before the DEP, which is the normal appeal process. The appeal is an administrative proceeding before the DEP, and the facility will continue to operate normally pursuant to its state license and Interim Status authority under RCRA while the DEP considers the appeal. The Company is confident the review will result in confirmation of the license as granted. The authority from the federal EPA to handle PCBs is not impacted by the towns' appeal of the Part B license.

Natick, MA. The Natick, Massachusetts facility is located just west of Boston. Its primary services are collecting LabPacks and repackaging the small quantities of laboratory and household chemicals into 55-gallon drum quantities, consolidating wastes for shipment to other Company facilities or third parties for further treatment or disposal, and serving as a transfer station for the Northeast region. The facility has a state Hazardous Waste Facility License (the state equivalent of a Part B license), which was issued in 1986 and expired in 1991. The Company applied for a new license in timely fashion. The law allows operations to continue under the expired license while the state reviews the renewal application. The facility is also authorized by the federal EPA to handle PCBs.

Chicago, IL. The Chicago, Illinois facility is located on the south side of Chicago, on Lake Calumet. It provides treatment of nonhazardous and hazardous industrial wastewaters, drummed waste processing and consolidation, and transfer and repackaging of laboratory chemicals into LabPacks. In 1991 a new drum storage warehouse was constructed, which increased storage capacity from 552 drums to 1,240 drums and expanded the range of hazardous wastes which can be processed at the facility. In November 1993, the Illinois EPA issued a Part B license for a ten-year term, which significantly expanded the waste handling and storage capacity of the facility. The new license increased drum storage capacity from 1,240 drums to 1,875 drums and allows handling of material destined for blending of waste used as supplemental fuel by industrial furnaces, pretreatment of waste to stabilize it before it is sent to landfills, and rail shipment of hazardous and nonhazardous waste. The Company plans to make substantial expenditures to implement this increased permitted capacity. As a possible alternative to making the needed improvements to its own site, the Company has entered into a letter of intent with Chemical Waste Management, Inc. ("ChemWaste") which would allow the Company to lease an adjoining site now leased by ChemWaste and acquire their existing improvements in exchange for sharing the costs of dismantling an existing hazardous waste incinerator and cleaning up the adjoining site. The improvements on the ChemWaste site would allow the Company to develop new product lines not currently handled at the Company's existing facility. Under the proposed sharing arrangement with ChemWaste, the Company could over a period of 15 years be required to contribute up to a maximum of $2 million for dismantling and decontaminating the incinerator and other equipment and up to a maximum of $7 million for studies and cleanup of the site. Any additional costs beyond those contemplated by the sharing arrangement during this time period would be borne by ChemWaste. This alternative is under continuing investigation, is subject to the negotiation of definitive agreements, and would require a rezoning of the property and numerous regulatory approvals which may not be possible to obtain.

Cleveland, OH. The Cleveland, Ohio facility is located south of downtown Cleveland. It is a wastewater treatment facility that treats nonhazardous and hazardous industrial wastewaters, and serves as a transfer station for various types of containerized nonhazardous waste. The facility is licensed by the state as a wastewater treatment facility. The facility is not subject to Part B licensing requirements, since its on-site wastewater treatment activities are regulated pursuant to the Clean Water Act, and therefore are exempt from RCRA.

Baltimore, MD. The Baltimore, Maryland facility is located adjacent to Interstate 95 in central Baltimore. It provides treatment of nonhazardous and hazardous industrial aqueous wastes, drummed waste processing, pretreatment of waste to stabilize it before it is sent to landfills, and transfer of LabPacks. It is the only commercial hazardous waste treatment facility in Maryland. The facility has a state Controlled Hazardous Substances permit (the state equivalent of a Part B license), which was issued in 1987. In 1990, the Company received a permit modification to expand the range of waste streams the facility can accept and to install the CES, which allows the facility to treat a wide range of hazardous wastewaters contaminated with gasoline, chlorinated solvents and many other organic contaminants, which were formerly sent to other companies for incineration. In 1992, the Maryland Department of the Environment issued a new Controlled Hazardous Substances permit for a three-year term, which significantly expanded the waste handling and storage capacity of the facility. The new permit also allows handling of LabPacks and material destined for fuels-blending, pretreatment of waste to stabilize it before it is sent to landfills, and rail shipment of hazardous and nonhazardous waste.

Bristol, CT. In July 1992, the Company acquired Connecticut Treatment Corporation ("CTC"), located in Bristol, Connecticut, approximately 20 miles southwest of Hartford. It provides hazardous wastewater treatment, drummed waste processing and consolidation, and transfer of LabPacks. This facility offers two services not offered at the Company's other facilities: equipment "de-manufacturing," such as dismantling outdated computers, and treatment of special categories of hazardous wastewaters known as "listed" wastewaters resulting from industrial processes such as electroplating. The facility has a Part B license issued by the EPA and the Connecticut DEP, which was issued in 1987 and expired in 1991. CTC applied for a new license in timely fashion, and continues to operate under the expired license while the renewal application is reviewed. The facility is also authorized by the federal EPA to handle PCBs. CTC's name has been changed to Clean Harbors of Connecticut, Inc.

Cincinnati, OH. In February 1993, the Company acquired Spring Grove Resource Recovery, Inc. ("Spring Grove"), located north of downtown Cincinnati, Ohio. It provides hazardous wastewater treatment, drummed waste processing and consolidation, pretreatment of waste to stabilize it before it is sent to landfills, and transfer of LabPacks. The facility holds a federal Part B license, which was issued in 1985 and expires in 1995, and a state Hazardous Waste Facility Installation and Operation permit which was renewed in December 1993 for a five-year term. The facility is also authorized to handle PCBs. On March 31, 1994, the Ohio EPA approved the Company's application for a revised, comprehensive state permit that expands the range of waste that may be received and treated at the facility and allows installation of equipment for handling and processing material to be sent to boilers and industrial furnaces and used as supplemental fuel. The transfer of ownership to the Company is subject to approval by regulatory authorities, which is expected during 1994. The regulatory authorities have granted an exemption allowing the Company to acquire the stock of Spring Grove and operate the facility in the interim. If the transfer of ownership is not approved, then the seller has agreed to repurchase Spring Grove for a price equal to what the Company paid for Spring Grove ($7,000,000) with adjustments for depreciation and improvements.

Waste Oil Treatment and Storage Facilities. The Company has three waste oil treatment and storage facilities: two in Massachusetts and one in Maine. The Massachusetts facilities are located in Kingston and Woburn, in the Boston area. The Kingston facility has a state recycling permit and is able to store oil collected from various activities, ranging from routine cleaning of oil storage terminals to oil spill cleanups. The facility is also used for maintenance activities and for training of employees of the Company and third party customers. The Woburn facility is a waste oil storage and transfer facility, and received a Part B license in October 1993 for a five-year term. The facility in South Portland, Maine is a petroleum reclamation facility that handles most of the waste oil received by the Company, which comes primarily from the Company's remediation activities. It has a municipal sewer user permit allowing the discharge of water separated from oil. The Company also owns another property in South Portland located on Main Street. It has a license to store virgin oil, but it also is permitted for the temporary storage and transfer of containerized hazardous waste.

LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

In April 1988, the Board of Selectmen of Braintree, Massachusetts, approved a cease and desist order with respect to the handling of flammable materials stored at the Company's Braintree facility. The Board concluded that, when the Company purchased the land on which the Braintree facility is located, a license for the storage of flammable liquids was not conveyed as an incident of ownership. The Company petitioned the Massachusetts Land Court for a declaratory judgment that either the Company possesses such a license by operation of law or that the statute requiring the license is pre-empted by the pervasive state regulation of hazardous waste facilities. In March 1994, the Land Court issued a favorable ruling, concluding that the statute is pre-empted by state hazardous waste laws and regulations and no local flammable storage license is required. The town has appealed this ruling.

In August 1990, an action was filed in the New York Supreme Court, Albany County, in connection with the accidental death of an employee of a Company subsidiary who was working on the Hudson River in September 1989 while responding to an oil spill. The complaint sought $10 million under the federal Longshoremen's and Harborworker's Compensation Act (the "Jones Act"). The Company sought to dismiss the Jones Act claims on the grounds that the employee was not a "seaman" within the meaning of the Jones Act and that the case was governed by the New York Workers' Compensation statute. In March 1994, the trial court judge granted the Company's motion for a summary judgment that the Jones Act does not apply. The decision has been appealed.

On June 13, 1994, the Company was served with a third party complaint filed in the Ulster County Superior Court of the State of New York by the Dormitory Authority of the State of New York ("DASNY"). The complaint arises out of an accident which occurred in December 1991 when a motor vehicle struck a utility pole near the State University of New York at New Paltz causing an electrical surge to overheat transformers which discharged toxic chemicals throughout various student dormitories and classroom buildings. The Company was hired by the State University of New York to perform technical supervisory and laboratory work for the cleanup. The actual work of cleaning the buildings was performed by numerous other contractors over approximately 15 months. In March 1993, a group of students sued DASNY claiming that they were exposed to toxic chemicals when DASNY allowed them to re-occupy the buildings after the accident and prior to a complete removal of the toxic chemicals, causing them increased risk of future illnesses. DASNY has denied the students' claims but recently decided to sue the Company along with 16 other third party defendants claiming that if DASNY is liable to the students, these third party defendants should indemnify DASNY. The Company was hired by the State University of New York to perform representative sampling for toxic chemicals but, according to its contract, was not responsible for decisions as to when students should re-occupy the buildings. The Company does not believe that it should incur any material liability as a result of this lawsuit; however, in view of the fact that the Company has only recently been served with the complaint, and only preliminary investigation and no discovery have been conducted, the Company is not in a position to evaluate the merits of the lawsuit.

Certain Company subsidiaries have transported or generated waste sent to sites which have been designated state or federal Superfund sites. See "Environmental Regulation--Federal Regulation of Hazardous Waste--The Superfund Act." As a result, the Company has been named as a potentially responsible party ("PRP") in a number of lawsuits arising from the disposal of wastes at 18 state and federal Superfund sites.

Ten of these sites involve two subsidiaries which the Company acquired from Chemical Waste Management, Inc. ("ChemWaste"), a public company 77%-owned by WMX Technologies, Inc. As part of the acquisition, ChemWaste agreed to indemnify the Company with respect to any liability of its Natick and Braintree subsidiaries for waste disposed of before the Company acquired them. Accordingly, ChemWaste is paying all costs of defending the Company's Natick and Braintree subsidiaries in these cases, including legal fees and settlement costs.

The Company's subsidiary which owns the Bristol, Connecticut facility is involved in one Superfund site. As part of the acquisition of the Bristol and Cincinnati, Ohio facilities, the seller and its parent company, Southdown, Inc., agreed to indemnify the Company with respect to any liability for waste disposed of before the Company acquired the facilities, which would include any liability arising from Superfund sites.

With respect to the other Superfund sites at which the Company believes it may face liability, the Company has established reserves or escrows which it believes are appropriate. Therefore, the Company believes that any future settlement costs arising from any or all of the 18 Superfund sites will not be material to the Company's operations or financial position. Management routinely reviews each Superfund site in which the Company's subsidiaries are involved, considers each subsidiary's role at each site and its relationship to the other PRPs at the site, the quantity and content of the waste it disposed of at the site, and the number and financial capabilities of the other PRPs at the site. Based on reviews of the various sites and currently available information, and management's judgment and prior experience with similar situations, expense accruals are provided by the Company for its share of future site cleanup costs, and existing accruals are revised as necessary. As of June 1, 1994, the Company had accrued environmental costs of $455,000 for cleanup of Superfund sites. Superfund legislation permits strict joint and several liability to be imposed without regard to fault, and as a result, one PRP might be required to bear significantly more than its proportional share of the cleanup costs if other PRPs do not pay their share of such costs.

Five of the 18 sites involve former subsidiaries of ChemClear Inc. One of the five sites is the Strasburg Landfill site in Pennsylvania. The Company and two other parties identified as PRPs received an order from the EPA in 1989 to perform certain emergency measures at the site. The Company responded by installing a leachate treatment and discharge system and repairing the landfill slope. Since early 1990, the Company has spent approximately $350,000 in complying with the EPA order. In 1992, the EPA issued its Record of Decision for the site which proposes recapping and revegetating the landfill and installing certain air emission and leachate treatment systems. The estimated capital cost of the remediation plan for the site is approximately $6.5 million with annual operating and maintenance costs of approximately $300,000. The EPA has identified more than 20 additional PRPs at the site. In addition, the Company and several other PRPs are attempting to identify other companies that sent waste to the landfill and have them named as PRPs. In January 1993, the Company and eight other PRPs submitted to the EPA a Response to Notice Letter, which recommended additional study be performed at the site by the PRP group and that a final remedy be based on the additional data developed during the study. No reply has been received from the EPA. The Company believes its ultimate exposure in this case will not have a material impact on its financial position or results of operations.

Mr. Frank, Inc., which was acquired by the Company in July 1992, is involved in two Superfund sites, as a transporter of waste generated by others prior to the Company's purchase of Mr. Frank, Inc. The Company acquired Mr. Frank, Inc. in exchange for 233,000 shares of the Company's common stock, of which 33,222 shares were deposited into an escrow account for a minimum of two years as security for the sellers' agreement to indemnify the Company against potential liabilities, including environmental liabilities arising from prior ownership and operation of Mr. Frank, Inc.

ENVIRONMENTAL REGULATION

While the Company's business has benefited substantially from increased governmental regulation of hazardous waste transportation, storage and disposal, the industrial waste management industry itself has become the subject of extensive and evolving regulation by federal, state and local authorities. The Company makes a continuing effort to anticipate regulatory, political and legal developments that might affect its operations, but is not always able to do so. The Company cannot predict the extent to which any environmental legislation or regulation that may be enacted or enforced in the future may affect its operations.

The Company is required to obtain federal, state and local licenses or approvals for each of its hazardous waste facilities. Such licenses are difficult to obtain and, in many instances, extensive studies, tests, and public hearings are required before the approvals can be issued. The Company has acquired or is in the process of applying for all operating licenses and approvals required for the current operation of its business and has applied for or is in the process of applying for all licenses and approvals needed in connection with planned expansion or modifications of its operations.

FEDERAL REGULATION OF HAZARDOUS WASTE

The most significant federal environmental laws affecting the Company are RCRA, the Superfund Act and the Clean Water Act.

RCRA. RCRA is the principal federal statute governing hazardous waste generation, treatment, transportation, storage and disposal. Pursuant to RCRA, the EPA has established a comprehensive, "cradle-to-grave" system for the management of a wide range of materials identified as hazardous waste. States, such as Massachusetts, Connecticut, Illinois, Maryland and Ohio, that have adopted hazardous waste management programs with standards at least as stringent as those promulgated by the EPA, have been authorized by the EPA to administer their facility permitting programs in lieu of the EPA's program.

Every facility that treats, stores or disposes of hazardous waste must obtain a RCRA license from the EPA or an authorized state agency and must comply with certain operating requirements. Under RCRA, hazardous waste management facilities in existence on November 19, 1980 were required to submit a preliminary license application to the EPA, the so-called Part A Application. By virtue of this filing, a facility obtained Interim Status, allowing it to operate until licensing proceedings are instituted pursuant to more comprehensive and exacting regulations (the Part B licensing process). Interim Status facilities may continue to operate pursuant to the Part A Application until their Part B licensing process is concluded. Of the Company's ten waste management facilities, seven are subject to RCRA licensing; all seven have been issued Part B licenses, one of which is under appeal.

RCRA requires that Part B licenses contain a schedule of required on-site study and cleanup activities, known as "corrective action," including detailed compliance schedules and provisions for assurance of financial responsibility. The EPA estimates that there are approximately 4,300 facilities that treat, store or dispose of hazardous wastes, which can be compelled to take corrective action when necessary. Some facilities are very large and have extensive contamination problems which rival the largest Superfund sites. Other facilities have relatively minor environmental problems. Still others will not need remedial action at all. It is the EPA's policy to compel corrective action at the "worst sites first." As a result, the EPA has developed a system for assessing the relative environmental cleanup priority of RCRA facilities, called the National Corrective Action Prioritization System, with a High, Medium or Low ranking for each facility. Although several facilities of its competitors have been assessed a High cleanup priority, none of the Company's RCRA facilities have been assessed as a High priority.

The EPA has begun RCRA corrective action investigations at the Company's Part B licensed facilities in Braintree, Natick, Baltimore, Chicago, and Woburn. The Company is also involved in site studies at its non-RCRA facilities in Cleveland, Ohio; Kingston, Massachusetts; and on Main Street in South Portland, Maine. The Company spent approximately $600,000 on corrective action at the foregoing facilities in 1993.

The Company may become involved in a RCRA corrective action investigation at a site in Chester, Pennsylvania owned by Philadelphia Electric Company ("PECO"). The site consists of approximately 30 acres which PECO has leased to various companies over the years. In 1989, the Company acquired by merger a public company called ChemClear Inc., which operated a hazardous waste treatment facility on approximately eight acres of the Chester site leased from PECO. The Company ceased operations at the Chester site, decontaminated the plant and equipment, engaged an independent engineer to certify closure, and obtained final approval from the Pennsylvania regulatory authorities, certifying final closure of the facility. In 1993, the EPA ordered PECO to perform a RCRA corrective action investigation at the Chester site, and PECO has asked the Company to participate in the site studies. The cost of these studies is now estimated to be in the range of $2 million. The Company and PECO are currently negotiating the sharing of these costs and seeking to establish the liability of an additional third party.

While the final scope of the work to be done at these facilities has not yet been agreed upon, the Company believes, based upon information known to date about the nature and extent of contamination at these sites, that such costs will not have a material effect on its results of operations or its competitive position, and that it will be able to finance from operating revenues any additional corrective action required at its facilities. Environmental expenditures that relate to current operations are expensed or capitalized as appropriate.

The Bristol, Connecticut and Cincinnati, Ohio facilities were acquired from a subsidiary of Southdown, Inc., which has agreed to indemnify the Company against any costs incurred or liability arising from contamination on-site, including the cost of corrective action, or waste disposed of off-site, including any liability under the Superfund Act.

The Superfund Act. The Superfund Act provides for immediate response and removal actions coordinated by the EPA to releases of hazardous substances into the environment, and authorizes the government to respond to the release or threatened release of hazardous substances or to order persons responsible for any such release to perform any necessary cleanup. The statute assigns joint and several liability for these responses and other related costs, including the cost of damage to natural resources, to the parties involved in the generation, transportation and disposal of such hazardous substances. Under the statute, the Company may be deemed liable as a generator or transporter of a hazardous substance which is released into the environment, or as the owner or operator of a facility from which there is a release of a hazardous substance into the environment. See also "Business--Legal Proceedings."

Clean Water Act. This legislation prohibits discharges to the waters of the United States without governmental authorization. The EPA has promulgated "pretreatment" regulations under the Clean Water Act, which establish pretreatment standards for introduction of pollutants into publicly owned treatment works. In the course of its treatment process, the Company's wastewater treatment facilities generate waste water which they discharge to publicly owned treatment works pursuant to permits issued by the appropriate governmental authority. The Clean Water Act also serves to create business opportunities for the Company in that it may prevent industrial users from discharging their untreated wastewaters to the sewer. If these industries cannot meet their discharge specifications, then they may utilize the services of an off-site pretreatment facility such as those of the Company.

Other Federal Laws. Company operations are also subject to the Toxic Substances Control Act ("TSCA"), pursuant to which the EPA regulates over 60,000 commercially produced chemical substances, including the proper disposal of PCBs. TSCA has established a comprehensive regulatory program for PCBs, under the jurisdiction of the EPA, which oversees the storage, treatment and disposal of PCBs at the Company's facilities in Braintree and Natick, Massachusetts; Cincinnati, Ohio; and Bristol, Connecticut. Under the Clean Air Act, the EPA also regulates emissions into the air of potentially harmful substances. In its transportation operations, the Company is regulated by the U.S. Department of Transportation and the Interstate Commerce Commission, as well as by the regulatory agencies of each state in which it operates or through which its trucks pass. Health and safety standards under the Occupational Safety and Health Act are also applicable.

STATE AND LOCAL REGULATIONS

Pursuant to the EPA's authorization of their RCRA equivalent programs, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Illinois, Maryland and Ohio have regulatory programs governing the operations and permitting of hazardous waste facilities. Accordingly, the hazardous waste treatment, storage and disposal activities of the Company's Braintree, Natick, Woburn, Bristol, Chicago, Baltimore and Cincinnati facilities are regulated by the relevant state agencies in lieu of federal EPA regulation.

Some states, such as Connecticut and Massachusetts, classify as hazardous some wastes which are not regulated under RCRA. For example, Massachusetts considers PCBs and used oil as "hazardous wastes," while RCRA does not. Accordingly, the Company must comply with state requirements for handling state regulated wastes, and when necessary obtain state licenses for treating, storing, and disposing of such wastes at its facilities.

The Company believes that each of its facilities is in substantial compliance with the applicable requirements of RCRA and state laws and regulations. All ten of the Company's waste management facilities have been issued final licenses, one of which is under appeal. Once issued, such licenses have maximum fixed terms of a given number of years, which differ from state to state, ranging from three years to ten years. The issuing state agency may review or modify a license at any time during its term. The Company anticipates that once a license is issued with respect to a facility, the license will be renewed at the end of its term if the facility's operations are in compliance with applicable requirements. However, there can be no assurance that regulations governing future licensing will remain static, or that the Company will be able to comply with such requirements.

The Company's wastewater treatment facilities are also subject to local regulation, most significantly sewer discharge regulations adopted by the municipalities which receive treated wastewater from the treatment processes. The Company's continued ability to operate its liquid waste treatment process at each such facility is dependent upon its ability to continue these sewer discharges.

The Company's facilities are regulated pursuant to state statutes, including those addressing clean water and clean air. Local sewer discharge and flammable storage requirements are applicable to certain of the Company's facilities. The Company's facilities are subject to local siting, zoning and land use restrictions. Although the Company's facilities occasionally have been cited for regulatory violations, the Company believes it is in substantial compliance with all federal, state and local laws regulating its business.

DESCRIPTION OF OTHER INDEBTEDNESS

BANK REVOLVER

The Company has a revolving credit agreement (the "Bank Revolver") with three banks, for which The First National Bank of Boston serves as agent (the "Agent"). As in effect prior to the completion of the Offering, the Bank Revolver permits loans of up to $40,000,000 and allows the Company to have a maximum of $20,000,000 of letters of credit outstanding. The combination of cash and letters of credit outstanding is limited to $55,000,000 at any one time. The maximum amount of the Bank Revolver reduces on April 1, 1995 to $50,000,000. The entire balance of the Bank Revolver matures on July 1, 1996. All of the Company's obligations under the Bank Revolver are collateralized by substantially all of the Company's assets.

Interest on loans outstanding under the Bank Revolver are payable monthly in arrears and accrue at the Agent's base rate plus 1%, or at the Company's option, at a rate which is 3% over the "Eurodollar Rate" offered to the Agent by prime banks in the Eurodollar interbank market. At June 30, 1994, the Company had elected the Eurodollar option with respect to $32,000,000 of the amounts outstanding under the Bank Revolver; the Eurodollar Rate was 7.44% and the Agent's base rate was 7.25%. The Company pays a fee of 1.5% per annum for outstanding letters of credit backing performance bonds and 3.0% per annum for all other outstanding letters of credit. The Company also pays a commitment fee at the rate of one-half of 1% per annum on the unused portion of the total commitment.

The Bank Revolver provides for the maintenance of certain restrictive covenants including, among others, restrictions on the ratio of accounts receivable to current liabilities, total liabilities to tangible net worth, and earnings before interest and taxes to total interest expense. The Company is also restricted from making certain dividend payments or stock redemptions, incurring certain additional debt, and capital expenditures are limited to $12,000,000 each year.

At June 30, 1994, the loans outstanding under the Bank Revolver were $33,563,963, the letters of credit aggregated $9,347,102, and the Company had available borrowing capacity of $6,436,037 under the Bank Revolver. As described under "Use of Proceeds," the Company anticipates that it will repay from the net proceeds of the Offering approximately $21.8 million of its then outstanding loan balance under the Bank Revolver.

The Company and its bank lenders have recently negotiated a proposed modification of the current terms of the Bank Revolver to become effective upon completion of the Offering. Under the amended terms, the maximum amount of $55,000,000 now available for loans and letters of credit under the Bank Revolver will be reduced to $35,000,000 upon the sale by the Company of the Senior Notes. The entire amount will be available for loans, and up to $20,000,000 will be available for letters of credit, provided that the combination of cash and letters of credit outstanding will be limited to $35,000,000 at any one time. In addition, the sum of loans and letters of credit outstanding at any one time must not exceed 80% of the Company's eligible accounts receivable (as defined in the Bank Revolver) plus $10,000,000. The maturity of the Company's entire balance under the Bank Revolver will be extended to August 1, 1997.

Under the amended terms of the Bank Revolver, interest on outstanding loans will be payable monthly in arrears and accrue at the Agent's base rate plus 1%, or at the Company's option, at a rate which is 2.5% over the Eurodollar Rate. The Company will continue to pay fees for outstanding letters of credit, and a commitment fee equal to one-half of 1% per annum on the unused portion of the total commitment.

The amended Bank Revolver will continue to provide for the maintenance of certain restrictive covenants with certain changes including, among others, changes with respect to the permitted ratios of total liabilities to tangible net worth and earnings before interest and taxes to total interest expense. The Company will continue to be restricted from making certain dividend payments or stock redemptions or from incurring certain additional debt, and capital expenditures will be limited to two times depreciation expense in any fiscal year.

SENIOR CONVERTIBLE NOTES

On November 12, 1991, the Company issued to a financial institution a $3,500,000 subordinated convertible note due in 1999, which is convertible into common stock at $15 per share. On July 17, 1992, the Company issued to the same financial institution an additional $1,500,000 subordinated convertible note due in 1999, which is convertible into common stock at $10 per share, bringing the total amount of convertible notes to $5,000,000 (the "Senior Convertible Notes"). These notes are payable in five equal annual installments of $1,000,000 each, beginning on October 31, 1995 and ending on October 31, 1999. The Company has the right to convert the notes into common stock at $25 per share. In connection with the sale of the Senior Notes, the holder of these notes has agreed that, upon completion of the Offering, (i) these notes will remain outstanding and will rank pari passu with the Senior Notes (consequently they will be renamed "senior convertible notes"); (ii) the rate of interest on these notes will be increased from 8% to 10%; (iii) all security interests securing these notes will be released; and (iv) the financial covenants in these notes will be amended so that they are identical to the covenants in the Note Indenture.

JUNIOR SUBORDINATED NOTE

The Company has outstanding a $1,883,000 Junior Subordinated Note dated June 30, 1992, of which the outstanding principal balance was $1,129,800 as of June 30, 1994. The remaining principal is payable in equal quarterly installments of $94,150, with the final installment due on June 30, 1997. The note bears interest at a floating rate equal to the base rate of The First National Bank of Boston plus 2.0% per annum. The note is unsecured and is subordinated to the outstanding balance under the Bank Revolver, the Senior Convertible Notes and the Senior Notes.

DESCRIPTION OF THE SENIOR NOTES

The Senior Notes will be issued under the Note Indenture, dated as of August 4, 1994, between the Company, the directly held Subsidiaries of the Company and Shawmut Bank, N.A., as trustee (the "Trustee"), a copy of the form of which is filed as an exhibit to the Registration Statement of which this Prospectus is a part. The following summary, which describes the Note Indenture and the Senior Notes, does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to, the Note Indenture and the Senior Notes, including the definitions therein of terms not defined in this Prospectus. As used in "Description of the Senior Notes" (i) capitalized or defined terms shall have the meanings ascribed to them within the portion of the Prospectus captioned "Description of the Senior Notes," and (ii) the term "Company" shall mean Clean Harbors, Inc., and shall not include its Subsidiaries.

GENERAL

The Senior Notes will be senior unsecured obligations of the Company, will be limited to $50.0 million aggregate principal amount, will mature on May 15, 2001 and will bear interest at the rate per annum stated on the cover page hereof from August 4, 1994, payable semiannually in arrears on May 15 and November 15 of each year, commencing November 15, 1994, to the persons who are registered holders thereof at the close of business on the May 1 or November 1 preceding such interest payment date. Interest on overdue principal and (to the extent permitted by law) on overdue installments of interest will accrue at a rate of 1.0% in excess of the rate per annum stated on the cover page.

Interest on the Senior Notes will be computed on the basis of a 360-day year of 12 30-day months. Principal and interest will be payable at the office of the Trustee, but, at the option of the Company, interest may be paid by check mailed to the registered holders at their registered addresses. The Senior Notes will be transferable and exchangeable at the office of the Trustee and will be issued in fully registered form, without coupons, in denominations of $1,000 and any integral multiple thereof.

The Company's obligations under the Senior Notes will be unconditionally guaranteed on an unsecured, senior basis, jointly and severally, by each of the Guarantor Subsidiaries. See "Subsidiary Guarantees" below.

OPTIONAL REDEMPTION

On or after May 15, 1999, the Senior Notes may be redeemed at the option of the Company, at any time as a whole, or from time to time in part, on not less than 30 nor more than 60 days' notice, at the redemption prices (expressed as percentages of principal amount) set forth below:

if redeemed during the 12-month period commencing May 15 of the years indicated:

YEAR	REDEMPTION PRICE
2000 and thereafter.....	100.00%

together, in the case of any such redemption, with accrued interest (if any) to the redemption date (subject to the right of holders of record on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant interest payment date). If less than all of the Senior Notes are to be redeemed, the Senior Notes will be chosen for redemption by the Trustee by lot or by a method that complies with applicable legal and securities exchange requirements.

RANKING

The Senior Notes will be senior unsecured obligations of the Company ranking pari passu with other senior unsecured indebtedness of the Company and senior to all Subordinated Obligations. After giving pro forma effect to the Offering and the application of the net proceeds therefrom, the Company and its subsidiaries on a consolidated basis will have outstanding $5.0 million of unsecured senior indebtedness other than the Senior Notes and expect to have approximately $11.8 million outstanding under a $35.0 million Bank Revolver. Following consummation of the Offering, the Company will also have the ability to incur, subject to certain limitations contained in the Note Indenture, additional senior indebtedness. See "Certain Covenants--Limitation on Liens" and "--Limitation on Debt" below.

The Company is a holding company which derives substantially all of its income from its Subsidiaries. The Company must rely on dividends or other intercompany transfers from its Subsidiaries to generate the funds necessary to meet its debt service and other obligations, including payment of principal and interest on the Senior Notes. The ability of such Subsidiaries to pay such dividends or other intercompany transfers is subject to applicable state laws. Claims of creditors of the Subsidiaries, including trade creditors, secured creditors and creditors holding guarantees of the Subsidiaries and claims of holders of Preferred Stock (if any), will generally have priority as to the assets of such Subsidiaries over the claims and equity interests of the Company and, thereby indirectly, the holders of indebtedness of the Company. Certain Subsidiaries of the Company have guaranteed or are co-borrowers with respect to all of the Company's obligations under the Bank Revolver. Although the Note Indenture limits the incurrence of Debt and issuance of Preferred Stock by the Company's Subsidiaries, such limitation is subject to a number of significant qualifications; moreover, the Note Indenture does not impose any limitation on the incurrence by such Subsidiaries of liabilities that are not considered Debt or Preferred Stock under the Note Indenture. See "Certain Covenants--Limitation on Subsidiary Debt and Preferred Stock" below.

SUBSIDIARY GUARANTEES

Each Guarantor Subsidiary will unconditionally guarantee on a joint and several basis the payment and performance by the Company of the Senior Notes and will pay all expenses (including, without limitation, fees and disbursements of counsel) paid or incurred by the Trustee or the holders in enforcing their rights under the Subsidiary Guarantees. Each of the Subsidiary Guarantees will be a senior unsecured obligation of the Guarantor Subsidiary providing such Subsidiary Guarantee, and will rank pari passu with other senior unsecured Debt of such Guarantor Subsidiary. The Note Indenture provides that all Subsidiaries created or acquired subsequent to the date of the Note Indenture and prior to the termination of the Subsidiary Guarantees will become Guarantor Subsidiaries with respect to the Senior Notes. Following any sale or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of a Guarantor Subsidiary or all of the Capital Stock of a Guarantor Subsidiary permitted by and in accordance with the terms of the Note Indenture, such Guarantor Subsidiary will be released from its Subsidiary Guarantee obligations. The obligations of each Guarantor Subsidiary under its Subsidiary Guarantee will be limited so as not to constitute a fraudulent conveyance under applicable law. See "Risk Factors--Fraudulent Conveyance Considerations."

Separate financial statements of the Guarantor Subsidiaries are not included herein because the Guarantor Subsidiaries have jointly and severally and fully and unconditionally guaranteed the Company's obligations with respect to the Senior Notes. There is one Subsidiary of the Company which is not a Guarantor Subsidiary. That Subsidiary is an indirect Subsidiary of the Company which is wholly owned by the Guarantor Subsidiaries and the assets, liabilities, operations and equity of that Subsidiary are insignificant.

CHANGE OF CONTROL

Upon the occurrence of any of the following events (each a "Change of Control"), each holder of Senior Notes will have the right to require the Company to repurchase all or any part of such holder's Senior Notes at a repurchase price equal to 101% of the principal amount thereof plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the date of repurchase (subject to the right of holders of record on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant interest payment date):

(i) except to the extent caused by the issuance of securities by the Company subsequent to the date on which the Senior Notes were originally issued, the Permitted Holders cease, at any time prior to the death or disability (as defined in Section 22(e)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code) of Alan McKim, to be the "beneficial owners" (as defined in Rules 13d-3 and 13d-5 under the Exchange Act, except that a person shall be deemed to have "beneficial ownership" of all shares that any such person has the right to acquire, whether such right is exercisable immediately or only after the passage of time), directly or indirectly, of at least 20% in the aggregate of the total voting power of the Voting Stock of the Company, whether as a result of any merger, consolidation, liquidation or dissolution of the Company, any direct or indirect transfer of securities or otherwise (for purposes of this clause (i) and clause (ii) below, the Permitted Holders shall be deemed to beneficially own any Voting Stock of a corporation (the "specified corporation") held by any other corporation (the "parent corporation") so long as the Permitted Holders beneficially own (as so defined), directly or indirectly, in the aggregate a majority of the voting power of the Voting Stock of the parent corporation);

(ii) any "person" (as such term is used in Sections 13(d) and 14(d) of the Exchange Act), other than one or more Permitted Holders, is or becomes the beneficial owner (as defined in clause (i) above), directly or indirectly, of more than 35% of the total voting power of the Voting Stock of the Company; provided, however, that the Permitted Holders "beneficially own" (as so defined), directly or indirectly, in the aggregate a lesser percentage of the total voting power of the Voting Stock of the Company than such other person and do not have the right or ability by voting power, contract or otherwise to elect or designate for election a majority of the Board of Directors of the Company (for the purposes of this clause (ii), such other person shall be deemed to beneficially own any Voting Stock of a specified corporation held by a parent corporation, if such other person "beneficially owns" (as so defined), directly or indirectly, a majority of the voting power of the Voting Stock of such parent corporation and the Permitted Holders "beneficially own" (as so defined), directly or indirectly, in the aggregate a lesser percentage of the voting power of the Voting Stock of such parent corporation and do not have the right or ability by voting power, contract or otherwise to elect or designate for election a majority of the Board of Directors of such parent corporation); or

(iii) during any period of two consecutive years, individuals who at the beginning of such period constituted the Board of Directors of the Company (together with any new directors whose election by such Board of Directors or whose nomination for election by the shareholders of the Company was approved by a vote of at least 66 2/3% of the directors of the Company then still in office who were either directors at the beginning of such period or whose election or nomination for election was previously so approved) cease for any reason to constitute a majority of the Board of Directors of the Company then in office.

Within 30 days following any Change of Control, the Company will mail a notice to each holder stating (i) that a Change of Control has occurred and that such holder has the right to require the Company to repurchase all or any part of such holder's Senior Notes at a repurchase price in cash equal to 101% of the principal amount thereof plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the date of repurchase; (ii) the circumstances and relevant facts regarding such Change of Control (including information with respect to pro forma historical income, cash flow and capitalization after giving effect to such Change of Control); (iii) the repurchase date (which will be no earlier than 30 days nor later than 60 days from the date such notice is mailed in the event of a Change of Control); and (iv) the instructions, determined by the Company consistent with the Note Indenture, that a holder must follow in order to have its Senior Notes repurchased.

The Change of Control purchase feature of the Senior Notes may in certain circumstances make more difficult or discourage a sale or takeover of the Company, and, thus, the removal of incumbent management. The Change of Control purchase feature, however, is not part of a plan by management to adopt a series of antitakeover provisions. Instead, the Change of Control purchase feature is a result of negotiations between the Company and the Underwriters. Subject to the limitations discussed below, the Company or any "person" meeting the definition of a Permitted Holder could, in the future, enter into certain transactions, including acquisitions, refinancings or other recapitalizations, that would not constitute a Change of Control under the Note Indenture, but that could increase the amount of indebtedness outstanding at such time or otherwise affect the Company's capital structure or credit ratings.

The Company's other indebtedness may contain prohibitions of certain events which would constitute a Change of Control. In addition, the exercise by the holders of the Senior Notes of their right to require the Company to repurchase the Senior Notes could cause a default under the terms of agreements between the Company and bank or other lenders, if the Change of Control itself does not, due to the financial effect of such repurchase on the Company. Finally, the Company's ability to pay cash to the holders of the Senior Notes upon a repurchase may be limited by the Company's then existing financial resources. The failure of the Company to repurchase Senior Notes in accordance with this provision would constitute an Event of Default. See "Defaults" below.

The Company will comply with any applicable tender offer rules under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act") which may then be applicable, including Rule 14e-1, and any other securities laws or regulations, in connection with any offer required to be made by the Company to repurchase the Senior Notes as a result of a Change of Control.

CERTAIN COVENANTS

Set forth below are certain covenants contained in the Note Indenture:

Limitation on Debt. The Company shall not issue, directly or indirectly, any Debt unless immediately after giving effect to the issuance of such Debt and the receipt and application of the proceeds thereof, the Consolidated EBITDA Coverage Ratio for the period of the most recently completed four fiscal quarters of the Company ending at least 45 days prior to the date such Debt is issued exceeds 2.5 to 1.0; provided, however, that nothing herein shall limit the ability of the Subsidiaries to incur Debt in accordance with "--Limitation on Subsidiary Debt and Preferred Stock" below.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company may issue the following Debt: (1) Debt issued pursuant to the Bank Revolver or any other Bank Debt in an aggregate principal amount outstanding at any one time not to exceed the greater of $35.0 million or 80% of Eligible Accounts Receivable; provided, however, that such amount shall be reduced by the aggregate outstanding principal amount of all Debt issued pursuant to clauses (5), (6) and (7) below and clause (3) under "--Limitation on Subsidiary Debt and Preferred Stock" below; (2) Debt owed to and held by a Wholly Owned Subsidiary; provided, however, that any subsequent issuance or transfer of any Capital Stock which results in any such Wholly Owned Subsidiary ceasing to be a Wholly Owned Subsidiary or any transfer of such Debt (other than to a Wholly Owned Subsidiary) shall be deemed, in each case, to constitute the issuance of such Debt by the Company; (3) the Senior Notes and Debt issued in exchange for, or the proceeds of which are used to refund or refinance, any Debt permitted by this clause (3); provided, however, that (i) the principal amount of the Debt so issued shall not exceed the principal amount of the Debt so exchanged, refunded or refinanced and (ii) the Debt so issued (A) shall not mature prior to the Stated Maturity of the Debt so exchanged, refunded or refinanced and (B) shall have an Average Life equal to or greater than the remaining Average Life of the Debt so exchanged, refunded or refinanced; (4) Debt (other than Debt described in clause (1), (2) or (3) above) outstanding on the date on which the Senior Notes were originally issued and Debt issued in exchange for, or the proceeds of which are used to refund or refinance, any Debt permitted by this clause (4) or by clause (4) under "--Limitation on Subsidiary Debt and Preferred Stock" below, or any Debt issued as permitted by the first paragraph of "Limitation on Debt" above; provided, however, that (i) the principal amount of the Debt so issued shall not exceed the principal amount of the Debt so exchanged, refunded or refinanced and (ii) the Debt so issued (A) shall not mature prior to the Stated Maturity of the Debt so exchanged, refunded or refinanced and (B) shall have an Average Life equal to or greater than the remaining Average Life of the Debt so exchanged, refunded or refinanced; (5) Debt issued with respect to obligations that are tax-exempt pursuant to Section 103 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as from time to time amended (the "Code"), and that are issued in connection with pollution control facilities or other plant and equipment or other facilities of the Company or a Subsidiary; provided, however, that the aggregate principal amount of all Debt permitted by this clause (5) outstanding at any one time shall not exceed $10.0 million; (6) Debt issued by the Company, whether or not secured by a Lien, constituting all or a part of the purchase price of assets or property acquired or constructed in the ordinary course of business after the date on which the Senior Notes were originally issued and Debt issued by the Company in exchange for, or the proceeds of which are used to refund or refinance, any then outstanding Debt permitted by this clause (6); provided, however, that (i) the principal amount of the Debt so issued shall not exceed the principal amount of the Debt so exchanged, refunded or refinanced, and (ii) the Debt so issued (A) shall not mature prior to the Stated Maturity of the Debt so exchanged, refunded or refinanced and (B) shall have an Average Life equal to or greater than the remaining Average Life of the Debt so exchanged, refunded or refinanced; provided further, however, that the aggregate principal amount of all Debt permitted by this clause (6) outstanding at any one time shall not exceed $10.0 million; and (7) Debt (other than Debt described in clauses (1) through (6) above and in the immediately preceding paragraph) in an aggregate principal amount outstanding at any one time not to exceed $10.0 million minus the aggregate outstanding principal amount of all Debt of Subsidiaries issued pursuant to clause (3) under "--Limitation on Subsidiary Debt and Preferred Stock" below.

Notwithstanding the two preceding paragraphs, the Company shall not issue any Debt (i) if the proceeds thereof are used, directly or indirectly, to repay, prepay, redeem, defease, retire, refund or refinance any Subordinated Obligations unless such Debt shall be subordinated to the Senior Notes to at least the same extent as such Subordinated Obligations or (ii) if such Debt is subordinate or junior in ranking in any respect to any other indebtedness unless such Debt is expressly subordinated in right of payment to the Senior Notes.

Limitation on Subsidiary Debt and Preferred Stock. The Company shall not permit any Subsidiary to issue, directly or indirectly, any Debt or Preferred Stock except: (1) any Subsidiary Guarantee and any Bank Obligation; (2) Debt or Preferred Stock issued to and held by the Company or a Wholly Owned Subsidiary; provided, however, that (i) any subsequent issuance or transfer of any Capital Stock which results in any such Wholly Owned Subsidiary ceasing to be a Wholly Owned Subsidiary, or (ii) any subsequent transfer of such Debt or Preferred Stock (other than to the Company or a Wholly Owned Subsidiary) shall be deemed, in each case, to constitute the issuance of such Debt or Preferred Stock by the issuer thereof; (3) Debt or Preferred Stock of a Subsidiary issued and outstanding on or prior to the date on which such Subsidiary was acquired by the Company (other than Debt or Preferred Stock issued as consideration in, or to provide all or any portion of the funds or credit support utilized to consummate, the transaction or series of related transactions pursuant to which such Subsidiary became a Subsidiary or was acquired by the Company); provided, however, that the aggregate principal amount or liquidation value of such Debt and Preferred Stock permitted by this clause (3) outstanding at any one time shall not exceed $10.0 million; (4) Debt or Preferred Stock (other than Debt or Preferred Stock described in clauses (1) through (3) above) outstanding on the date of the Note Indenture; and (5) Debt or Preferred Stock issued in exchange for, or the proceeds of which are used to refinance, Debt or Preferred Stock referred to in the foregoing clause (3) or (4); provided, however, that (i) the principal amount or liquidation value of such Debt or Preferred Stock so issued shall not exceed the principal amount or liquidation value of the Debt or Preferred Stock so exchanged, refunded or refinanced and (ii) the Debt or Preferred Stock so issued (A) shall have a Stated Maturity later than the Stated Maturity of the Debt or Preferred Stock so exchanged, refunded or refinanced and (B) shall have an Average Life equal to or greater than the remaining Average Life of the Debt or Preferred Stock so exchanged, refunded or refinanced.

Limitation on Liens. The Company shall not, and shall not permit any Subsidiary to, create or permit to exist any Lien upon any of its property or assets, now owned or hereafter acquired, securing any obligation unless concurrently with the creation of such Lien effective provision is made to secure the Senior Notes equally and ratably with such obligation for so long as such obligation is so secured; provided, however, that if such obligation is a Subordinated Obligation, the Lien securing such obligation shall be subordinated and junior to the Lien securing the Senior Notes with the same or lesser relative priority as such Subordinated Obligation shall have with respect to the Senior Notes. The preceding restriction shall not require the Company or any Subsidiary to equally and ratably secure the Senior Notes if the Lien consists of the following: (1) Liens created by the Note Indenture and Liens existing as of the date on which the Senior Notes were originally issued; (2) Permitted Liens; (3) Liens to secure Debt issued by the Company for the purpose of financing all or a part of the purchase price of assets or property acquired or constructed in the ordinary course of business after the date on which the Senior Notes were originally issued; provided, however, that (i) the aggregate principal amount (or accreted value in the case of Debt issued at a discount) of Debt so issued shall not exceed the lesser of cost or Fair Market Value, as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors of the Company, of the assets or property so acquired or constructed, (ii) the Debt secured by such Liens shall have been permitted to be issued under clause (6) of "--Limitation on Debt" above and (iii) such Liens shall not encumber any other assets or property of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries other than such assets or property or any improvement on such assets or property and shall attach to such assets or property within 90 days of the construction or acquisition of such assets or property; (4) Liens on the assets or property of a Subsidiary existing at the time such Subsidiary became a Subsidiary and not issued as a result of (or in connection with or in anticipation of) such Subsidiary becoming a Subsidiary; provided, however, that (i) the Debt secured by such Liens shall have been permitted to be issued under clause (3) of "--Limitation on Subsidiary Debt and Preferred Stock" above and (ii) such Liens do not extend to or cover any other property or assets of the Company or any of its other Subsidiaries; (5) Liens on the assets of the Company or any Subsidiary that is a guarantor thereof or which acts as a co-borrower thereunder securing Debt under the Bank Revolver or other Bank Debt permitted under clause (1) of "--Limitation on Debt" above; (6) Liens securing industrial revenue or pollution control bonds issued by the Company; provided, however, that (i) the aggregate principal amount of Debt secured by such Liens shall not exceed the lesser of cost or Fair Market Value, as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors of the Company, of the assets or property so financed, (ii) the Debt secured by such Liens shall have been permitted to be issued under clause (5) of "--Limitation on Debt" above, and (iii) such Liens do not extend to or cover any other property or assets of the Company; or (7) Liens securing Debt issued to refinance Debt which has been secured by a Lien permitted under the Note Indenture and is permitted to be refinanced under the Note Indenture; provided, however, that such Liens do not extend to or cover any property or assets of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries not securing the Debt so refinanced, and the principal amount (or accreted value) of the Debt so secured is not increased except as otherwise permitted pursuant to the Note Indenture.

Limitation on Sale/Leaseback Transactions. The Company shall not, and shall not permit any Subsidiary to, enter into, Guarantee or otherwise become liable with respect to any Sale/Leaseback Transaction unless at least one of the following conditions is satisfied:

(1) The Company or such Subsidiary, under clauses (2) through (7) of "--Limitation on Liens" above, could create a Lien on the property to secure Debt in an amount at least equal to the Attributable Debt in respect of such Sale/Leaseback Transaction and the Company or such Subsidiary, as the case may be, receives consideration at least equal to the Fair Market Value, as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors of the Company, of the property transferred; or

(2) the Sale/Leaseback Transaction is treated as an Asset Disposition and all the conditions of "--Limitation on Sales of Assets and Subsidiary Stock" below are satisfied with respect to such Sale/Leaseback Transaction (without giving effect to the exceptions for Net Available Cash, as set forth in the second paragraph of "--Limitation on Sales of Assets and Subsidiary Stock" below).

Limitation on Restricted Payments. The Company shall not, and shall not permit any Subsidiary, directly or indirectly, to (i) declare or pay any dividend or make any distribution on or in respect of its Capital Stock (including any payment in connection with any merger or consolidation involving the Company) or to the direct or indirect holders of its Capital Stock (except dividends or distributions payable solely in its Non-Convertible Capital Stock or in options, warrants or other rights to purchase its Non-Convertible Capital Stock and except dividends or distributions payable to the Company or a Wholly Owned Subsidiary), (ii) purchase, redeem or otherwise acquire or retire for value any of its Capital Stock (except Capital Stock of a Wholly Owned Subsidiary), (iii) purchase, repurchase, redeem, defease or otherwise acquire or retire for value, prior to scheduled maturity, scheduled repayment or scheduled sinking fund payment, any Subordinated Obligations (other than the purchase, repurchase or other acquisition of Subordinated Obligations purchased in anticipation of satisfying a sinking fund obligation, principal installment or final maturity, in each case due within one year of the date of acquisition), or (iv) make any Investment other than Permitted Investments (any such dividend, distribution, purchase, redemption, repurchase, defeasance, other acquisition, retirement or Investment being herein referred to as a "Restricted Payment"), if at the time the Company or such Subsidiary makes such Restricted Payment: (1) a Default shall have occurred and be continuing (or would result therefrom); or (2) upon giving effect to such Restricted Payment, the Company is not able to incur an additional $1.00 of Debt pursuant to the Consolidated EBITDA Coverage Ratio as set forth in the first paragraph of "--Limitation on Debt" above; or (3) upon giving effect to such Restricted Payment, the aggregate amount of such Restricted Payment and all other Restricted Payments since the date on which the Senior Notes were originally issued would exceed the sum of: (a) 50% of the Consolidated Net Income accrued during the period (treated as one accounting period) from the first day of the first month of the fiscal quarter in which the Senior Notes were originally issued through the last full fiscal quarter for which quarterly or annual financial statements are available prior to the date of such Restricted Payment (or, in case such Consolidated Net Income shall be a deficit, minus 100% of such deficit); provided, however, that if a Public

Offering as described in "--Limitation on Issuance and Sale of Capital Stock of Subsidiaries" below has been consummated, Consolidated Net Income for purposes of this clause (iv) (3) (a) shall be reduced by an amount equal to the net income of CHTC from the date of original issuance of the Senior Notes to the date of the closing of the Public Offering determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles; (b) the aggregate Net Cash Proceeds received by the Company from the issue or sale of its Capital Stock (other than Redeemable Stock or Exchangeable Stock) subsequent to the date on which the Senior Notes were originally issued (other than an issuance or sale to a Subsidiary or an employee stock ownership plan or similar trust); (c) the aggregate Net Cash Proceeds received by the Company from the issue or sale of its Capital Stock (other than Redeemable Stock or Exchangeable Stock) to an employee stock ownership plan subsequent to the date on which the Senior Notes were originally issued but (if such employee stock ownership plan incurs any Debt) only to the extent that any such proceeds are equal to any increase in the Consolidated Net Worth of the Company resulting from principal repayments made by such employee stock ownership plan with respect to indebtedness incurred by it to finance the purchase of such Capital Stock; and (d) the amount by which consolidated Debt of the Company is reduced on the Company's balance sheet upon the conversion or exchange (other than by a Subsidiary) subsequent to the date on which the Senior Notes were originally issued of any Debt of the Company convertible or exchangeable for Capital Stock (other than Redeemable Stock or Exchangeable Stock) of the Company (less the amount of any cash, or other property, distributed by the Company upon such conversion or exchange).

So long as no Default shall have occurred and be continuing (or would result therefrom), the foregoing limitations on Restricted Payments shall not prohibit: (i) any purchase or redemption of Capital Stock or Subordinated Obligations of the Company made by exchange for, or out of the proceeds of the substantially concurrent sale of, Capital Stock of the Company (other than Redeemable Stock or Exchangeable Stock and other than Capital Stock issued or sold to a Subsidiary or an employee stock ownership plan); provided, however, that (A) such purchase or redemption shall be excluded in the calculation of the amount of Restricted Payments and (B) the Net Cash Proceeds from such sale shall be excluded from clauses (3) (b) and (3) (c) of the previous paragraph;

(ii) any purchase or redemption of Subordinated Obligations of the Company made by exchange for, or out of the proceeds of the substantially concurrent sale of, Debt of the Company other than to a Subsidiary; provided, however, that such Debt (A) shall be subordinated to the Senior Notes to at least the same extent as the Subordinated Obligations so exchanged, purchased or redeemed, (B) shall have a Stated Maturity later than the Stated Maturity of the Senior Notes and (C) shall have an Average Life greater than the remaining Average Life of the Senior Notes; provided further, however, that such purchase or redemption shall be excluded in the calculation of the amount of Restricted Payments; (iii) any purchase or redemption of Subordinated Obligations from Net Available Cash to the extent permitted by the covenant described below under "--Limitation on Sales of Assets and Subsidiary Stock"; provided, however, that such purchase or redemption shall be excluded in the calculation of the amount of Restricted Payments; or (iv) dividends paid within 60 days after the date of declaration thereof if at such date of declaration such dividend would have complied with this provision; provided, however, that such dividend shall be included in the calculation of the amount of Restricted Payments.

Limitation on Issuance and Sale of Capital Stock of Subsidiaries. The Company shall not permit any Subsidiary to issue or sell any Capital Stock to any person, or permit any person in either case, other than the Company and its Wholly Owned Subsidiaries, to own or hold an interest, other than any lien permitted by the covenant described under "--Limitation on Liens" above or any interest or right to receive any interest owned or held on the date on which the Senior Notes were originally issued by a person other than the Company and its Wholly Owned Subsidiaries, in any Capital Stock of any Subsidiary; provided, however, that the foregoing limitation shall not apply to (i) the sale of all but not less than all of the Capital Stock of any Subsidiary made in accordance with "--Limitation on Sales of Assets and Subsidiary Stock," and (ii) the issuance and sale of Capital Stock of CHTC pursuant to one or more firm commitment underwritten public offerings by CHTC (each a "Public Offering"); provided, however, that (1) following each Public Offering the Company shall continue to own at least 75% of the outstanding Capital Stock of CHTC, (2) the net proceeds from each Public Offering shall be invested by CHTC in the business of CHTC, (3) CHTC may not within 18 months after the closing of each Public Offering (A) declare or pay any dividend or make any distribution on or in respect of its Capital Stock (including any payment in connection with any merger or consolidation involving CHTC) or to the direct or indirect holders of its Capital Stock (except dividends or distributions payable solely in its Non-Convertible Capital Stock or in options, warrants or other rights to purchase its Non-Convertible Capital Stock) or (B) purchase, redeem or otherwise acquire or retire for value any Capital Stock of CHTC, and (4) as of the date of commencement of each Public Offering the Adjusted EBITDA for the period of the most recently completed four fiscal quarters of the Company ending at least 45 days prior to such date exceeds 95% of EBITDA for such period, provided, however, that (A) if the Company or any Subsidiary has issued any Debt since the beginning of such period that remains outstanding, EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA for such period shall be calculated after giving effect on a pro forma basis to such Debt as if such Debt had been issued on the first day of such period and the discharge of any other Debt refinanced, refunded, exchanged or otherwise discharged with the proceeds of such new Debt as if any such discharge had occurred on the first day of such period, (B) if since the beginning of such period the Company or any Subsidiary shall have made any Asset Disposition, EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA for such period shall be reduced by an amount equal to the EBITDA (if positive) directly attributable to the assets which are the subject of such Asset Disposition for such period, or increased by an amount equal to the EBITDA (if negative) directly attributable thereto for such period, and (C) if since the beginning of such period the Company or any Subsidiary (by merger or otherwise) shall have made an Investment in any Subsidiary (or any person which becomes a Subsidiary) or an acquisition of assets, including any acquisition of assets occurring in connection with a transaction causing a calculation to be made hereunder, which constitutes all of an operating unit of a business, EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA for such period shall be calculated after giving pro forma effect thereto (including the issuance of any Debt), as if such Investment or acquisition occurred on the first day of such period. For purposes of this calculation, whenever pro forma effect is to be given to an acquisition of assets, the amount of income or earnings relating thereto, and the amount of Consolidated Interest Expense associated with any Debt issued in connection therewith, the pro forma calculations shall be determined in good faith by a responsible financial or accounting Officer of the Company. If any Debt bears a floating rate of interest and is being given pro forma effect, the interest on such Debt shall be calculated as if the rate in effect on the date of determination had been the applicable rate for the entire period.

Limitation on Restrictions on Distributions from Subsidiaries. The Company shall not, and shall not permit any Subsidiary to, create or otherwise cause or permit to exist or become effective any consensual encumbrance or restriction on the ability of any Subsidiary to (i) pay dividends or make any other distributions on its Capital Stock or pay any Debt or other obligation owed to the Company or any Subsidiary, (ii) make any Investment in or loans or advances to the Company or any Subsidiary, or (iii) transfer any of its property or assets to the Company or any Subsidiary. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company may, and may permit any Subsidiary to, suffer to exist: (1) any encumbrance or restriction pursuant to an agreement in effect at or entered into on or prior to the date on which the Senior Notes were originally issued; (2) any encumbrance or restriction with respect to a Subsidiary pursuant to an agreement relating to any Debt issued by such Subsidiary on or prior to the date on which such Subsidiary became a Subsidiary (other than Debt issued as consideration in, or to provide all or any portion of the funds utilized to consummate, the transaction or series of related transactions pursuant to which such Subsidiary became a Subsidiary or was acquired by the Company) and outstanding on such date; (3) any encumbrance or restriction pursuant to an agreement effecting a refinancing or extension of Debt issued pursuant to an agreement referred to in clause (1) or (2) above or contained in any amendment to an agreement referred to in clause (1) or (2) above; provided, however, that the encumbrances and restrictions contained in any such refinancing or extension agreement or amendment are not materially less favorable to the holders of the Senior Notes than encumbrances and restrictions contained in such agreement referred to in clause (1) or (2) above; (4) any encumbrance or restriction consisting of customary nonassignment provisions in leases governing leasehold interests to the extent such provisions restrict the transfer of the lease; (5) in the case of clause (iii) above, restrictions contained in security agreements securing Debt of a Subsidiary otherwise permitted by the Note Indenture to the extent such restrictions restrict the transfer of the property subject to such security agreements; and (6) restrictions imposed pursuant to clause (ii) of "--Limitation on Issuance and Sale of Capital Stock of Subsidiaries" above.

Limitation on Sales of Assets and Subsidiary Stock. The Company shall not, and shall not permit any Subsidiary to, make any Asset Disposition unless: (i) the Company or such Subsidiary receives consideration at the time of such Asset Disposition at least equal to the Fair Market Value, as determined in good faith, with or without independent appraisal, by the Board of Directors of the Company (including as to the value of all non-cash consideration), of the shares and assets subject to such Asset Disposition and at least 85% of the consideration thereof received by the Company or such Subsidiary is in the form of cash or Cash Equivalents; and (ii) an amount equal to 100% of the Net Available Cash from such Asset Disposition is applied by the Company (or such Subsidiary, as the case may be) (A) first, to the extent the Company is required by the terms of any Debt to prepay, repay or purchase Debt (other than any Redeemable Stock) of the Company, such Subsidiary or any Wholly Owned Subsidiary (in each case other than Debt owed to the Company or an Affiliate of the Company) within 60 days from the later of the date of such Asset Disposition or the receipt of such Net Available Cash; (B) second, to the extent of the balance of such Net Available Cash after application in accordance with clause (A), at the Company's election to the investment by the Company, such Subsidiary or any Wholly Owned Subsidiary in assets to replace the assets that were the subject of such Asset Disposition or in assets that (as determined by the Board of Directors) will be used in the businesses of the Company and its Wholly Owned Subsidiaries existing on the date on which the Senior Notes were originally issued or in businesses reasonably related thereto, in all cases within the later of one year from the date of such Asset Disposition or the receipt of such Net Available Cash; (C) third, to the extent of the balance of such Net Available Cash after application in accordance with clauses (A) and (B) above, to make an offer pursuant to and subject to the Note Indenture, to the holders of the Senior Notes to purchase Senior Notes at a purchase price of 100% of the principal amount thereof plus accrued and unpaid interest; and (D) fourth, to the extent of the balance of such Net Available Cash after application in accordance with clauses (A), (B) and (C) above, to the prepayment, repayment or purchase of Debt (other than any Redeemable Stock) of the Company (other than Debt owed to an Affiliate of the Company) or Debt of any Subsidiary (other than Debt owed to the Company or an Affiliate of the Company), in each case within one year from the later of the receipt of such Net Available Cash and, if applicable, the date the offer described in the next paragraph below is consummated; provided, however, that in connection with any prepayment, repayment or purchase of Debt pursuant to clause (A) or clause (D) above, the Company shall cause the related loan commitment (if any) to be permanently reduced in an amount equal to the principal amount so prepaid, repaid or purchased; and provided, further, however, that in connection with an offer pursuant to clause (C) above, if the principal amount of such Senior Notes, together with accrued and unpaid interest, tendered for acceptance pursuant to such offer exceeds the balance of Net Available Cash, then the Company will accept for purchase the Senior Notes of each such tendering holder on a pro rata basis in accordance with the principal amount so tendered.

Notwithstanding the provisions of clause (ii) above, in the event that the Net Available Cash resulting from any Asset Disposition is less than $2.5 million, the application of an amount equal to such Net Available Cash in accordance with such clause (ii) may be deferred until such time as such Net Available Cash from any prior or subsequent Asset Dispositions not otherwise applied in accordance with such clause (ii), is at least equal to $2.5 million. In the event that the Net Available Cash resulting from any Asset Disposition, after giving effect to clauses (A) and (B) above, is less than $2.5 million, the application of such amount equal to such Net Available Cash to make an offer to purchase Senior Notes in accordance with clause (C) above may be deferred until such time as such Net Available Cash, together with Net Available Cash from any prior or subsequent Asset Dispositions not otherwise applied in accordance with this provision, is at least equal to $2.5 million. Pending application of Net Available Cash pursuant to this provision, such Net Available Cash shall be invested in Cash Equivalents. To the extent any portion of the amount of Net Available Cash remains after compliance with this provision and provided that all holders of Senior Notes have been given the opportunity to tender their Senior Notes for repurchase as provided in clause (C) above, the Company may use such remaining amount for general corporate purposes.

In the event of an Asset Disposition that requires the purchase of the Senior Notes pursuant to clause (ii)(C) above, the Company will be required to purchase the Senior Notes tendered pursuant to an offer by the Company for the Senior Notes (the "Offer") at the purchase price set forth above in accordance with the procedures (including prorationing in the event of oversubscription) set forth in the Note Indenture.

The Company shall comply, to the extent applicable, with the requirements of Section 14(e) of the Exchange Act and any other securities laws or regulations in connection with the repurchase of Senior Notes pursuant to the preceding paragraphs. To the extent that the provisions of any securities laws or regulations conflict with provisions of the Note Indenture, the Company shall comply with the applicable securities laws and regulations and shall not be deemed to have breached its obligations under the Note Indenture by virtue thereof.

Limitation on Transactions with Affiliates. The Company shall not, and shall not permit any Subsidiary to, conduct any business or enter into any transaction or series of similar transactions (including the purchase, sale, lease or exchange of any property or the rendering of any service) with any Affiliate of the Company or any legal or beneficial owner of 5% or more of any class of Capital Stock of the Company or with any Affiliate of any such owner (other than (i) a Wholly Owned Subsidiary or (ii) an employee stock ownership plan for the benefit of the Company's or a Subsidiary's employees), unless the terms of such business, transaction or series of transactions are (A) set forth in writing, (B) as favorable to the Company or such Subsidiary as terms that would be obtainable at the time for a comparable transaction or series of similar transactions in arm's-length dealings with an unrelated third person, and (C) if such business or transaction or series of transactions involves in excess of $1.0 million, (x) the Board of Directors of the Company has, by resolution approved by a majority of the disinterested directors, determined in good faith that such business or transaction or series of transactions meets the criteria set forth in clause (B) above, and (y) the Company has obtained an opinion of a nationally recognized expert with experience in appraising the terms and conditions of the type of business or transaction or series of transactions stating that such business or transaction or series of transactions is fair (from a financial point of view) to the Company or such Subsidiary, as the case may be. The foregoing, however, will not prohibit (1) any transactions between the Company or a Subsidiary and its own employee stock ownership plan or (2) any Restricted Payment permitted under "--Limitation on Restricted Payments" above, and (3) management compensation arrangements approved by the disinterested members of the Board of Directors.

Lines of Business. The Company shall not, and shall not permit any of its Subsidiaries to, enter into any business, either directly or through any Subsidiary, except for those businesses in which the Company and its Subsidiaries were engaged on the date on which the Senior Notes were originally issued or businesses reasonably related thereto.

SEC Reports. Each of the Company and the Guarantor Subsidiaries shall file with the Trustee and provide holders of the Senior Notes, within 15 days after it files them with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission"), copies of its annual report and of the information, documents and other reports (or copies of such portions of any of the foregoing as the Commission may by rules and regulations prescribe) which the Company or such Guarantor Subsidiary is required to file with the Commission pursuant to Section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act. Notwithstanding that the Company may not be required to remain subject to the reporting requirements of Section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act, the Company shall continue to file with the Commission and provide the Trustee and holders of the Senior Notes with such annual reports and such information, documents and other reports (or copies of such portions of any of the foregoing as the Commission may by rules and regulations prescribe) which are specified in Sections 13 and 15(d) of the Exchange Act.

SUCCESSOR COMPANY

The Company may not consolidate with or merge with or into, or convey, transfer or lease all or substantially all its assets to, any person unless: (i) the resulting, surviving or transferee person (if not the Company) is organized and existing under the laws of the United States of America or any state thereof or the District of Columbia and such person expressly assumes by a supplemental indenture, executed and delivered to the Trustee, in form satisfactory to the Trustee, all the obligations of the Company under the Note Indenture and the Senior Notes; (ii) immediately after giving effect to such transaction (and treating any Debt which becomes an obligation of the resulting, surviving or transferee person or any Subsidiary as a result of such transaction as having been issued by such person or such Subsidiary at the time of such transaction), no Default has occurred and is continuing; (iii) immediately after giving effect to such transaction, on a pro forma basis, the resulting, surviving or transferee Person would be able to issue at least an additional $1.00 of Debt pursuant to the Consolidated EBITDA Coverage Ratio as set forth in the first paragraph of "Certain Covenants--Limitation on Debt"; (iv) immediately after giving effect to such transaction, on a pro forma basis, the resulting, surviving or transferee person has Consolidated Net Worth in an amount which is not less than the Consolidated Net Worth of the Company immediately prior to such transaction; and (v) the Company delivers to the Trustee an Officers' Certificate and an opinion of counsel, each stating that such consolidation, merger or transfer and such supplemental indenture (if any) comply with the Note Indenture.

The resulting, surviving or transferee person will be the successor company.

DEFAULTS

An Event of Default is defined in the Note Indenture as: (i) a default in any payment of interest on the Senior Notes when due, continued for 30 days, (ii) a default in the payment of principal of any Note when due at its Stated Maturity, upon redemption, upon acceleration or otherwise, or the failure to redeem or purchase the Senior Notes when required pursuant to the Note Indenture or the Senior Notes; (iii) the failure by the Company to comply with its obligations under "Successor Company" above, to make or consummate an Offer in accordance with the provisions of "Certain Covenants--Limitation on Sales of Assets and Subsidiary Stock" or to make or consummate a Change of Control Offer in accordance with the provisions of "Change of Control," (iv) the failure by the Company to observe or comply with any of the agreements in the Senior Notes or the Note Indenture (other than those referred to in clauses (i), (ii) or (iii) above), which continues for 60 days after there has been given to the Company by the Trustee or to the Company and the Trustee by the holders of at least 25% in principal amount of Senior Notes then outstanding a written notice specifying such failure, (v) Debt of the Company or any Subsidiary is not paid within any applicable grace period after final maturity or is accelerated by the holders thereof because of a default and the total amount of such Debt unpaid or accelerated exceeds $5.0 million, (vi) any judgment or decree for the payment of money in excess of $5.0 million is rendered and entered against the Company or a Subsidiary and is not discharged and either (A) an enforcement proceeding has been commenced by any creditor upon such judgment or decree or (B) there is a period of 60 days following such judgment or decree during which such judgment or decree is not discharged, waived or the execution thereof stayed, (vii) any Subsidiary Guarantee ceases to be in full force and effect, other than in accordance with its terms, or any Guarantor Subsidiary shall deny or disaffirm its obligations under its Subsidiary Guarantee, or (viii) certain events of bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization of the Company or a Subsidiary (a "bankruptcy default").

If an Event of Default (other than a bankruptcy default) occurs and is continuing, the Trustee or the holders of at least 25% in principal amount of the outstanding Senior Notes may declare the principal of and accrued interest on all the Senior Notes to be due and payable. Upon such a declaration, such principal and interest shall be due and payable immediately. If a bankruptcy default occurs, the principal of and interest on all the Senior Notes will ipso facto become and be immediately due and payable without any declaration or other act on the part of the Trustee or any holders of the Senior Notes. Under certain circumstances, the holders of a majority in principal amount of the outstanding Senior Notes may rescind any such acceleration with respect to the Senior Notes and its consequences if the rescission would not conflict with any judgment or decree and if all Events of Default, other than the nonpayment of accelerated principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the Senior Notes, have been cured or waived as provided in the Note Indenture. The holders of a majority in principal amount of the Senior Notes may waive any past default under the Note Indenture, except a default in the payment of principal, premium or interest on a Note or default with respect to certain covenants under the Indenture. See "Amendment, Supplement, Waiver" below.

Subject to the provisions of the Note Indenture relating to the duties of the Trustee, in case an Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the Trustee will be under no obligation to exercise any of the rights or powers under the Note Indenture at the request or direction of any of the holders of the Senior Notes unless such holders have offered to the Trustee reasonable indemnity or security against any loss, liability or expense. Except to enforce the right to receive payment of principal, premium (if any) or interest when due, no holder of a Senior Note may pursue any remedy with respect to the Note Indenture or the Senior Notes unless (i) such holder has previously given the Trustee notice that an Event of Default is continuing, (ii) holders of at least 25% in principal amount of the Senior Notes make a written request to the Trustee to pursue the remedy, (iii) such holders have offered the Trustee reasonable security or indemnity against any loss, liability or expense, (iv)

the Trustee has not complied with such request within 60 days after the receipt thereof and the offer of security or indemnity, and (v) the holders of a majority in principal amount of the outstanding Senior Notes have not given the Trustee a direction inconsistent with such request within such 60-day period. Subject to certain restrictions, the holders of a majority in principal amount of the outstanding Senior Notes are given the right to direct the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee or of exercising any trust or power conferred on the Trustee. The Trustee, however, may refuse to follow any direction that conflicts with law or the Note Indenture or that the Trustee determines is unduly prejudicial to the rights of any other holder of a Senior Note or that would involve the Trustee in personal liability.

The Note Indenture provides that if a Default occurs and is continuing and is known to the Trustee, the Trustee must mail to each holder of the Senior Notes and to the Company notice of the Default within 90 days after it occurs. Except in the case of a Default in the payment of principal of, premium (if any) or interest on any Senior Note, the Trustee may withhold notice if and so long as a committee of its trust officers determines in good faith that withholding notice is in the interest of the holders of the Senior Notes. In addition, the Company and the Guarantor Subsidiaries are required to deliver to the Trustee, within 120 days after the end of each fiscal year, a certificate indicating whether the signers thereof know of any Default that occurred during the previous year. Each of the Company and the Guarantor Subsidiaries are also required to deliver to the Trustee, within 30 days after the Company or such Guarantor Subsidiary becomes aware or should reasonably become aware thereof, written notice of any event which would constitute certain Defaults, their status and what action the Company is taking or proposes to take in respect thereof.

AMENDMENT, SUPPLEMENT, WAIVER

Subject to certain exceptions, the Note Indenture may be amended or supplemented with the written consent of the holders of a majority in principal amount of the Senior Notes then outstanding and any past default or compliance with any provisions may be waived with the consent of the holders of a majority in principal amount of the Senior Notes then outstanding. However, without the consent of each holder of an outstanding Senior Note, no amendment may, among other things, (i) reduce the amount of Senior Notes whose holders must consent to an amendment, (ii) reduce the rate of or extend the time for payment of interest on any Senior Note, (iii) reduce the principal of or extend the Stated Maturity of any Senior Note, (iv) reduce the premium payable upon the redemption of any Senior Note or change the time at which any Senior Note may or shall be redeemed as described under "Optional Redemption" above, (v) make any Senior Note payable in money other than that stated in the Senior Note, (vi) make any change in the amendment provisions which require each holder's consent or in the waiver provisions, (vii) make any change in provisions regarding Change of Control, or (viii) make any change adversely affecting the rights of any holder of the Senior Notes.

Without notice to or consent of any holder of the Senior Notes, the Company and the Trustee may amend or supplement the Note Indenture to cure any ambiguity, omission, defect or inconsistency, to provide for the assumption by a successor corporation of the obligations of the Company under the Note Indenture, to provide for uncertificated Senior Notes in addition to or in place of certificated Senior Notes (provided that the uncertificated Senior Notes are issued in registered form for purposes of Section 163(f) of the Code, or in a manner such that the uncertificated Senior Notes are described in Section 163(f)(2)(B) of the Code), to add Guarantees of the Senior Notes, to add to the covenants of the Company for the benefit of the holders of the Senior Notes or to surrender any right or power conferred upon the Company, to reflect the release of any Guarantor Subsidiary from its Subsidiary Guarantee, or the addition of any Subsidiary of the Company as a Guarantor Subsidiary in the manner provided in the Note Indenture or to make any change that does not adversely affect the rights of any holder of the Senior Notes or to comply with any requirement of the Commission in connection with the qualification of the Note Indenture under the Trust Indenture Act of 1939, as amended.

The consent of the holders of the Senior Notes is not necessary under the Note Indenture to approve the particular form of any proposed amendment. It is sufficient if such consent approves the substance of the proposed amendment.

After an amendment under the Note Indenture becomes effective, the Company is required to mail to holders of the Senior Notes a notice briefly describing such amendment. However, the failure to give such notice to all holders of the Senior Notes, or any defect therein, will not impair or affect the validity of the amendment.

TRANSFER

The Senior Notes will be issued in registered form and will be transferable only upon the surrender of the Senior Notes being transferred for registration of transfer. The Company may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax, assessment or other governmental charge payable in connection with certain transfers and exchanges.

DEFEASANCE

The Company at any time may terminate all its obligations under the Senior Notes and the Note Indenture ("legal defeasance"), except for certain obligations, including those respecting the defeasance trust and obligations to register the transfer or exchange of the Senior Notes, to replace mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Senior Notes and to maintain a registrar and paying agent in respect of the Senior Notes. The Company at any time may terminate its obligations under the covenants described under "Certain Covenants" and "Change of Control," the operation of the cross acceleration provision, the bankruptcy defaults with respect to Subsidiaries and the judgment default provision described under "Defaults" above ("covenant defeasance").

The Company may exercise its legal defeasance option notwithstanding its prior exercise of its covenant defeasance option. If the Company exercises its legal defeasance option, payment of the Senior Notes may not be accelerated because of an Event of Default with respect thereto. If the Company exercises its covenant defeasance option, payment of the Senior Notes may not be accelerated because of an Event of Default specified in clause (iii) or (iv) of the first paragraph of "Defaults" above.

In order to exercise either defeasance option, the Company must irrevocably deposit in trust (the "defeasance trust") with the Trustee sufficient money or U.S. Government Obligations which, together with the payments of interest when due (and without reinvestment) to be received on the deposited U.S. Government Obligations to the date of redemption or maturity of the Senior Notes, as the case may be, will fully provide for the payment of principal, premium (if any) and interest on the Senior Notes to redemption or maturity, as the case may be, and must comply with certain other conditions, including delivering to the Trustee an opinion of counsel to the effect that holders of the Senior Notes will not recognize income, gain or loss for federal income tax purposes as a result of such deposit and defeasance and will be subject to federal income tax on the same amount and in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such deposit and defeasance had not occurred (and, in the case of legal defeasance only, such opinion of counsel must be based on a ruling of the Internal Revenue Service or a change in applicable federal income tax law).

CONCERNING THE TRUSTEE

Shawmut Bank, N.A. is to be the Trustee under the Note Indenture and has been appointed by the Company as registrar and paying agent with regard to the Senior Notes. The Trustee is expected also to become a lender to the Company under the amended Bank Revolver.

The Trustee may become owner or pledgee of Senior Notes and may otherwise deal with the Company or Affiliates of the Company with the same rights it would have if it were not Trustee.

The Note Indenture will provide that in case an Event of Default shall occur and be continuing, the Trustee will exercise the rights and powers vested in it by the Note Indenture and use the same degree of care and skill in their exercise as a prudent person would exercise or use under the circumstances in the conduct of such person's own affairs.

GOVERNING LAW

The Note Indenture provides that it and the Senior Notes will be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of New York without giving effect to applicable principles of conflicts of law to the extent that the application of the law of another jurisdiction would be required thereby.

The Company has been advised by the Underwriters that they propose to offer the Senior Notes to the public initially at the public offering price set forth on the cover page of this Prospectus, and to certain dealers at such price less a concession not in excess of 1.75% of the principal amount per Senior Note; that the Underwriters and such dealers may allow a discount of 0.25% of such principal amount on sales to certain other dealers; and that after the Offering, the public offering price and concession and discount to dealers may be changed.

However, the Underwriters are not obligated to do so and may discontinue any market making at any time without notice. No assurance can be given as to the liquidity of the trading market for the Senior Notes.

contribute to payments which the Underwriters may be required to make in respect thereof.

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of Clean Harbors, Inc. and its subsidiaries as of December 31, 1993 and 1992, and the related consolidated statements of income, stockholders' equity and cash flows for the years ended December 31, 1993 and 1992 and the ten-month period ended December 31, 1991. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of Clean Harbors, Inc. and its subsidiaries as of December 31, 1993 and 1992, and the consolidated results of their operations and their cash flows for the years ended December 31, 1993 and 1992 and the ten-month period ended December 31, 1991, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

CLEAN HARBORS, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(1) OPERATIONS

Clean Harbors, Inc. and its wholly-owned subsidiaries (collectively, the "Company") are engaged in the business of hazardous waste management, environmental remediation and technical services.

(2) SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The accompanying consolidated financial statements of the Company reflect the application of certain significant accounting policies as described below:

(a) Principles of Consolidation

The accompanying consolidated statements include the accounts of Clean Harbors, Inc. and its wholly-owned subsidiaries. All material intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

In 1992 the Company reformatted its consolidated statement of income in order to conform its internal and external reporting. The new format reclassifies depreciation expense previously included in cost of revenue and selling, general and administrative expenses and combines it with amortization in order to reveal on one line, within the consolidated statement of income, the non-cash portion of expenses. The Company believes that the new format is more informative and is consistent with other companies in the industry.

(b) Change in Year End

Effective with the ten-month period ended December 31, 1991, the Company adopted a December 31 or calendar year end. The accompanying consolidated financial statements include audited financial statements for the ten-month transition period ended December 31, 1991. Certain comparative, unaudited information for the twelve-month period ended December 31, 1991 is presented in Note 17 below.

(c) Property, Plant and Equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost. The Company depreciates and amortizes the cost of these assets, less the estimated salvage value, using the straight-line method as follows:

ASSET CLASSIFICATION -----	ESTIMATED USEFUL LIFE -----
Buildings and improvements.....	5-30 years
Vehicles and equipment.....	3-15 years
Furniture and fixtures.....	5-8 years

Leaseholds are amortized over the shorter of the life of the lease or the asset. Upon retirement or other disposition, the cost and related accumulated depreciation of the assets are removed from the accounts and the resulting gain or loss is reflected in income. Site preparation and improvement costs are included in land.

(d) Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenues and accrues the related cost of treatment and disposal upon the receipt of waste materials. Other revenues are recognized as the related costs are incurred.

(e) Income Taxes

The Company has adopted the Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes." Under the liability method specified by SFAS No. 109, the deferred tax liability is determined based upon the difference between the financial statement and tax basis of assets and liabilities as measured by the enacted tax rates which will be in effect when these differences reverse. Deferred tax expense is the result of changes in the liability for deferred taxes. The principal types of differences between assets and liabilities for financial statement and tax return purposes are accumulated depreciation, business combinations accounted for by the purchase method, and provisions for doubtful accounts. The deferred tax liability is reduced by net operating losses being carried forward for tax purposes.

(f) Net Income Per Common and Common Equivalent Share

Net income per common and common equivalent share is computed using the weighted average number of common and common equivalent shares outstanding during each of the respective years. Fully diluted net income per common share has not been presented as the amount would not differ significantly from that presented.

(g) Capitalization of Interest

The Company capitalizes interest on funds used to finance the construction of major capital additions. The Company capitalized interest costs aggregating $301,000 in the year 1992 and $408,000 in the ten-month period ended December 31, 1991. No interest was capitalized during the year 1993.

(h) Intangible Assets

Intangible assets, as further discussed in Notes 4 and 5, are stated at cost and are being amortized using the straight line method over periods ranging from 20 years for permits and from 20 to 40 years for costs in excess of identifiable net assets acquired.

(i) Supplies Inventory

Supplies inventory, stated at the lower of cost or market, is charged to operations on a first in, first out basis.

(j) Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid instruments purchased with a maturity of less than three months to be cash equivalents.

(k) Letters of Credit

In its fiscal year ended February 28, 1991, the Company adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standard No. 105, which requires disclosure of information about financial instruments with off-balance-sheet risk and about concentrations of credit risk for all financial instruments.

The Company utilizes letters of credit to provide collateral assurance to issuers of performance bonds for certain contracts, and to assure regulatory authorities that certain funds will be available for closure of hazardous waste storage and disposal facilities. As of December 31, 1993 and 1992, the Company had outstanding letters of credit amounting to $12,471,000 and $10,845,000, respectively.

As of December 31, 1993, the Company had no significant concentrations of credit risk.

(l) Reclassifications

Certain reclassifications have been reflected in prior years' financial statements to conform the presentations to that as of December 31, 1993.

(3) FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The carrying amounts of cash and cash equivalents, restricted cash, and long-term obligations approximate fair value. The Company believes similar terms for long-term obligations would be attainable, except for its senior subordinated debt. The fair value of its senior subordinated debt was determined by discounting the future cash flows of this debt using the Company's incremental borrowing rate. At December 31, 1993, the estimated fair values of the Company's financial instruments are as follows (in thousands):

	CARRYING AMOUNT	FAIR VALUE
	-----	-----
Cash and cash equivalents.....	$ 816	$ 816
Restricted cash.....	1,037	1,037
Long-term obligations.....	42,476	42,476
Senior subordinated notes.....	30,000	33,594

(4) BUSINESS ACQUISITIONS

On February 16, 1993, the Company acquired all of the outstanding shares of Spring Grove Resource Recovery, Inc. ("Spring Grove"), a hazardous waste treatment, storage and disposal facility located in Cincinnati OH, from Southdown Environmental Treatment Systems, Inc. ("SETS") in exchange for $1,400,000 in cash and 112,000 shares of newly issued Series B Convertible Preferred Stock with a stated value of $5,600,000. The transfer of ownership from the seller to the Company is subject to approval by regulatory authorities, which is expected to be received during 1994.

On June 30, 1992, the Company acquired all of the outstanding shares of Connecticut Treatment Corporation ("CTC"), a hazardous waste treatment, storage and disposal facility located in Bristol CT, from SETS in exchange for $500,000 in cash and a promissory note in the amount of $1,883,000. The first principal installment on the note was $376,600, due on June 30, 1993, with installments of $94,150 due at the end of each quarter thereafter, until the remaining balance is paid in full. The note bears interest at the corporate base rate announced by The First National Bank of Boston (the "Bank") (6.0% at December 31, 1993) plus 2%.

SETS' parent Southdown, Inc. has indemnified the Company against on-site and off-site environmental liabilities arising from the prior ownership and operation of Spring Grove and CTC. The assets acquired consist primarily of real estate and operating machinery for wastewater treatment and related facilities and equipment. Both acquisitions were accounted for as a purchase. In each case the total acquisition cost equaled the fair value of the assets acquired; therefore, no goodwill was recorded.

On July 30, 1992, the Company acquired all of the outstanding shares of Mr. Frank, Inc., located in Matteson IL in exchange for 233,000 shares of the Company's common stock, with a fair market value of $2,155,000. The assets acquired consist primarily of vehicles, equipment and a leasehold interest in real estate. The acquisition was accounted for as a purchase, with approximately $2,113,000 excess of acquisition cost over the fair value of Mr. Frank, Inc.'s identifiable assets being assigned to goodwill. Upon closing, 32,222 of the exchanged shares of the Company's common stock valued at $300,000 were deposited into an escrow account for a minimum of two years as security for the sellers' agreement to indemnify the Company against potential liabilities, including certain environmental liabilities arising from prior ownership and operation of Mr. Frank, Inc.

The results of operations of Spring Grove, CTC and Mr. Frank, Inc. are included in the consolidated financial statements subsequent to the dates of acquisition by the Company. Pro forma information has not been included concerning these acquisitions since the assets and operations acquired were not material to those of the Company.

(5) INTANGIBLE ASSETS

Below is a summary of intangible assets at December 31, 1993 and 1992 (in thousands):

	1993	1992
	-----	-----
Permits.....	$17,303	$15,350
Costs in excess of identifiable net assets acquired.....	27,529	27,529
	-----	-----
	44,832	42,879
Less--Accumulated amortization.....	6,276	4,843
	-----	-----
	$38,556	$38,036

Amortization expense approximated $1,433,000 and $1,325,000 for the years 1993 and 1992, respectively, and $1,076,000 for the ten-month period ended December 31, 1991.

The Company continually reevaluates the propriety of the carrying amount of permits and goodwill as well as the amortization period to determine whether current events and circumstances warrant adjustments to the carrying value and estimates of useful lives. At this time, the Company believes that no significant impairment of goodwill or other intangibles has occurred and that no reduction of the estimated useful lives is warranted.

(6) RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Company leases certain facilities from a partnership of which the Company's principal stockholder is a limited partner. Under the terms of the lease, the Company agreed to make aggregate lease payments of $5,633,000 from the inception of the lease through June 1, 1996. In addition, the Company has an option to renew the lease for a five-year period. Total rent expense charged to operations was $703,000 during each of the years 1993 and 1992, and $553,000 during the ten-month period ended December 31, 1991. See Note 12 for further discussion of lease commitments. The Company has subleased a portion of these facilities to an unrelated third party.

(7) RESTRICTED CASH

The Company has deposited funds into interest-bearing accounts administered by various state environmental regulatory agencies. These accounts were established under requirements that companies engaged in the treatment and disposal of hazardous materials provide assurance that certain funds will be available for closure of hazardous waste storage and disposal facilities and to satisfy claims made by creditors in the event of insolvency. At December 31, 1993 and 1992, the balance in these accounts was $31,000 and $234,000, respectively. As described in Note 2(k), the Company's practice is to utilize letters of credit to satisfy closure obligations, in lieu of maintaining restricted cash accounts. In addition, there are funds which are restricted for the payment of insurance claims. The balance of these insurance funds was $1,006,000 and $789,000 as of December 31, 1993 and 1992, respectively.

(8) FINANCING ARRANGEMENTS

At December 31, 1993, the Company had a Revolving Credit Agreement (the "Revolver") with three banks, which permitted borrowings of up to $38,000,000 in cash and allowed the Company to have a maximum of $20,000,000 of letters of credit outstanding. The combination of cash and letters of credit outstanding was limited to $50,000,000 at any one time. At December 31, 1993 and 1992, borrowings under the Revolver were $32,705,000 and $26,077,000, respectively (exclusive of outstanding letters of credit). The entire balance of the Revolver matures on July 1, 1996. All borrowings under the Revolver are collateralized by substantially all of the Company's assets.

On February 1, 1994, the Company and its banks amended the Revolver to increase the amount of the Revolver to $55,000,000. The amended Revolver permits borrowings of up to $40,000,000 in cash, and allows the Company to have up to $20,000,000 of letters of credit outstanding. The combination of cash and letters of credit outstanding may not exceed $55,000,000 at any one time. The amount of the Revolver reduces on April 1, 1995 to $50,000,000.

Interest on amounts outstanding under the Revolver are payable monthly in arrears and accrue at the Bank's base rate plus 1%, or at the Company's option, at a rate which is 3% over the "Eurodollar Rate" offered to the Bank by prime banks in the Eurodollar interbank market. At December 31, 1993, the Company had elected the Eurodollar option with respect to $29,000,000 of the amounts outstanding under the Revolver; the Eurodollar Rate was 3.25% and the Bank's base rate was 6%. The Company also pays a commitment fee at the rate of one-half of 1% per annum on the unused portion of the total commitment.

The Revolver provides for the maintenance of certain restrictive covenants including, among others, restrictions on the ratio of accounts receivable to current liabilities, total liabilities to tangible net worth, and earnings before interest and taxes to total interest expense. The Company is also restricted from making certain dividend payments, incurring certain additional debt, and capital expenditures are limited to $12,000,000 each year.

On May 25, 1989, the Company issued senior subordinated notes and warrants to purchase 100,000 shares of common stock for aggregate proceeds, before issuance costs, of $30,300,000. The $30,000,000 of notes bear interest at 13.25%, payable semiannually, and mature at the rate of $7,500,000 per year commencing on May 15, 1994. At December 31, 1993, current liabilities included the first $7,500,000 principal installment due May 15, 1994. The note agreement provides for the maintenance of certain restrictive covenants including, among others, restrictions on the ratio of current assets to current liabilities, the levels of net worth and the percentage of debt in an aggregate unpaid principal amount to total capitalization. Should an event of default occur with respect to the specified restrictive covenants, all notes become immediately payable and the Company can be required to pay a premium ranging from 8% to 13% of the outstanding principal balance, depending on when such event of default occurs.

At December 31, 1993, the Company owed $2,150,000 on a term loan from a financial institution at a floating interest rate equal to the greater of 8% or the financial institution's "prime" rate plus 1%. Principal payments of $50,000 each are due monthly, with a balloon payment at maturity of the loan, originally scheduled to be April 30, 1994. On November 3, 1993, the financial institution agreed to extend the maturity date of the loan to April 30, 1996.

On November 12, 1991, the Company issued to a financial institution a $3,500,000 unsecured subordinated convertible note due in 1999, which is convertible into common stock at $15 per share. On July 17, 1992, the Company issued to the same financial institution an additional $1,500,000 unsecured subordinated convertible note due in 1999, which is convertible into common stock at $10 per share, bringing the total amount of unsecured convertible notes to $5,000,000. The notes bear interest at 8%, and principal is payable in five equal installments of $1,000,000 each, beginning on October 31, 1995 and ending on October 31, 1999. The Company has the right to convert the notes into common stock at $25 per share. The notes provide for the maintenance of certain restrictive covenants including, among others, restrictions on the ratio of current assets to current liabilities, senior liabilities to net worth, and level of net worth.

Effective January 1, 1992 the Company adopted the provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes" ("SFAS 109"). SFAS 109 requires recognition of deferred tax liabilities and assets for the expected future tax consequences of events that have been included in the financial statements or tax returns. Under this method, deferred tax liabilities and assets are determined based on the difference between the financial statement and tax bases of assets and liabilities using enacted tax rates in effect for the year in which the differences are expected to reverse. The Company had previously adopted SFAS 96. The adoption of SFAS 109 did not have a material impact on the Company's financial condition or results of operations.

For federal income tax purposes at December 31, 1993, as a result of the acquisition of ChemClear Inc. ("ChemClear") in January 1989, the Company has regular tax net operating loss carryforwards of $4,338,000 and alternative minimum tax net operating loss carryforwards of $3,440,000, which may be used to offset future taxable income, if any, of the former ChemClear entities, subject to certain limitations. These net operating loss carryforwards expire commencing in 2002.

(10) EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLAN

The Company has a profit-sharing plan under Section 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code covering substantially all employees. The plan allows employees to make contributions up to a specified percentage of their compensation, a portion of which is matched by the Company. During the years 1993 and 1992 and the ten-month period ended December 31, 1991, the Company's nonelective contributions aggregated approximately $743,000, $609,000 and $281,000, respectively.

(11) LEGAL MATTERS AND OTHER CONTINGENCIES

(a) Legal Matters

In August 1990, a lawsuit was filed against the Company in New York state court in connection with the accidental death of an employee who was responding to an oil spill on the Hudson River in 1989. The complaint seeks punitive damages and $10 million for wrongful death. The Company believes the claims are barred by worker's compensation laws and that it has insurance coverage for any liability up to $10 million. The Company does not believe that the ultimate liability in this case will exceed the limits of available insurance, although there can be no assurance in this regard.

In the ordinary course of conducting its business, the Company becomes involved in environmentally related lawsuits and administrative proceedings. Some of these proceedings may result in fines, penalties or judgments against the Company. The Company does not believe that these proceedings, individually or in the aggregate, are material to its business.

As of December 31, 1993, the Company has been named in a number of lawsuits arising from the disposal of wastes by certain Company subsidiaries at 18 state and federal Superfund sites. Ten of these cases involve two subsidiaries which the Company acquired from Chemical Waste Management, Inc. ("ChemWaste"). As part of the acquisition, ChemWaste agreed to indemnify the Company with respect to any liability of its Braintree and Natick subsidiaries for waste disposed of before the Company acquired them. Accordingly, ChemWaste is paying all costs of defending the Natick and Braintree subsidiaries in these 10 cases, including legal fees and settlement costs. Two cases involve Mr. Frank, Inc. and one case involves CTC. As discussed in Note 4, Southdown, Inc. has agreed to indemnify the Company with respect to any liability for waste disposed of by CTC before the Company acquired CTC, and the sellers of Mr. Frank, Inc. have agreed to indemnify the Company against certain environmental liabilities arising from prior ownership of Mr. Frank, Inc.

The remaining five pending cases involve former ChemClear subsidiaries. The Company is unable to predict accurately its potential liability with respect to these cases, but believes that any future settlement costs will not be material to the Company's operations or financial position.

Management routinely reviews each Superfund site in which the Company's subsidiaries are involved, considers each subsidiary's role at each site and its relationship to the other potentially responsible parties ("PRPs") at the site, the quantity and content of the waste it disposed of at the site, and the number and financial capabilities of the other PRPs at the site. Based on reviews of the various sites and currently available information, and management's judgment and prior experience with similar situations, expense accruals are provided by the Company for its share of future site cleanup costs, and existing accruals are revised as necessary. As of December 31, 1993, the Company had accrued environmental costs of $470,000 for cleanup of Superfund sites. Superfund legislation permits strict joint and several liability to be imposed without regard to fault, and as a result, one PRP might be required to bear significantly more than its proportional share of the cleanup costs if other PRPs do not pay their share of such costs.

(b) Environmental Matters

Under the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976, as amended ("RCRA"), every facility that treats, stores or disposes of hazardous waste must obtain a RCRA permit from EPA or an authorized state agency and must comply with certain operating requirements. Of the Company's 10 waste management facilities, seven are subject to RCRA licensing; all seven have been issued Part B permits, one of which is under appeal. RCRA requires that Part B permits contain a schedule of required on-site study and cleanup activities, known as "corrective action", including detailed compliance schedules and provisions for assurance of financial responsibility.

The EPA has begun RCRA corrective action investigations at the Company's Part B licensed facilities in Baltimore MD, Chicago IL, Braintree MA, Natick MA, and Woburn MA. The Company is also involved in site studies at its non-RCRA facilities in Cleveland OH, Kingston MA and South Portland ME. The Company spent approximately $600,000 on corrective action at the foregoing facilities in 1993. The Company may become involved in a RCRA corrective action investigation at a site in Chester PA where a Company subsidiary operated a hazardous waste treatment facility prior to closing the facility in 1989. As discussed in Note 4, the Company's other two RCRA facilities in Bristol CT and Cincinnati OH were acquired from a subsidiary of Southdown, Inc., which has agreed to indemnify the Company against any costs incurred or liability arising from contamination on-site, including the cost of corrective action.

While the final scope of the work to be done at these facilities has not yet been agreed upon, the Company believes, based upon information known to date about the nature and extent of contamination at these sites, that such costs will not have a material effect on its results of operations or its financial position, and that it will be able to finance from operating revenues any additional corrective action required at its facilities.

Environmental expenditures that relate to current operations are expensed or capitalized as appropriate. Costs incurred to obtain or renew required permits are capitalized to the related permit account as incurred and are amortized over the permit's remaining life. Costs incurred to remediate properties owned by the Company are capitalized in property, plant and equipment only if the costs extend the life, increase the capacity or improve the safety or efficiency of the property or the costs mitigate or prevent environmental contamination that has yet to occur and that otherwise may result from future operations or activities. Remediation costs incurred in excess of the fair market value of the property being remediated are expensed as incurred.

(c) Other Contingencies

The Company is subject to various regulatory requirements, including the procurement of requisite licenses and permits at its facilities. These licenses and permits are subject to periodic renewal without which the Company's operations would be adversely affected. The Company anticipates that, once a license or permit is issued with respect to a facility, the license or permit will be renewed at the end of its term if the facility's operations are in compliance with the applicable regulatory requirements.

Under the Company's insurance programs, coverage is obtained for catastrophic exposures as well as those risks required to be insured by law or contract. It is the policy of the Company to retain a significant portion of certain expected losses related primarily to workers' compensation, physical loss to property, and comprehensive general and vehicle liability. Provisions for losses expected under these programs are recorded based upon the Company's estimates of the aggregate liability for claims.

(12) LEASES

(a) Capital Leases

The Company possesses certain equipment under capital leases. The capitalized cost of this equipment was $6,603,000 and $6,450,000 with related accumulated amortization of $4,630,000 and $4,392,000 at December 31, 1993 and 1992, respectively. The obligations of the Company under such leases are collateralized by the leased equipment.

Future minimum lease payments under capital leases are as follows (in thousands):

During the years 1993 and 1992 and the ten-month period ended December 31, 1991, rent expense was approximately $9,796,000, $9,483,000, and $5,764,000, respectively.

(13) STOCK PURCHASE AGREEMENT

In connection with the acquisition of its Braintree and Natick subsidiaries from ChemWaste, the Company entered into a disposal agreement with ChemWaste under which the Company is entitled to quantity discounts if it delivers specified minimum amounts of hazardous waste to ChemWaste's disposal facilities. At the same time, the Company and its principal stockholder entered into a stock purchase agreement with ChemWaste under which the Company and its principal stockholder agreed that, through the term of the disposal agreement, they will not, subject to certain exceptions, sell the stock or substantially all of the assets of the Company or any of its subsidiaries to any third party without first offering to sell such stock or assets to ChemWaste on the same terms as those offered by a third party or, in the case of a proposed public offering, at 90% of the proposed public offering price. These agreements, as amended, expire on March 31, 1995.

(14) STOCKHOLDERS' EQUITY

(a) Stock Option Plans

In 1987, the Company adopted a nonqualified stock option plan (the "1987 Plan"). In 1992, the Company adopted a nonqualified equity incentive plan which provides for a variety of incentive awards, including stock options (the "1992 Plan"). As of December 31, 1993, all awards under the 1992 Plan were in the form of stock options. These options generally become exercisable after a period of one to five years from the date of grant, subject to certain employment requirements, and terminate ten years from the date of grant. At December 31, 1993, the Company had reserved 955,600 and 495,000 shares of common stock for issuance under the 1987 and 1992 Plans, respectively.

Under the terms of the 1987 and 1992 Plans, as amended, options may be granted to purchase shares of common stock at an exercise price not less than 85% of the fair market value on the date of grant. The difference between the exercise price and fair market value at the date of grant is charged to operations ratably over the option vesting period. Total compensation expense charged to operations in the year 1992 and the ten-month period ended December 31, 1991 was approximately $8,000 and $20,000, respectively. All existing deferred compensation was fully amortized during 1992. No options were granted during 1993 with exercise prices lower than the fair market value of the common stock at the date of grant.

On September 17, 1990, the Board of Directors approved a plan whereby all employees who previously were awarded stock options in October 1987 and as a result of the ChemClear merger in January 1989 at prices in excess of $7.65 per share be given the opportunity to surrender those options in exchange for new options awarded at fair market value ($7.65 per share) with a five year vesting period commencing upon the date of the award of their original option agreement. On January 4, 1994, the Board of Directors approved a plan whereby certain employees (excluding senior management) who previously were awarded stock options in May 1993 at $15.00 per share be given the opportunity to surrender those options in exchange for new options awarded at fair market value ($7.00 per share) with a five year vesting period commencing upon the date of the award of their original option agreement.

(b) Warrants

In connection with the issuance of senior subordinated notes payable in May 1989, the Company issued warrants to purchase 100,000 shares of common stock at $20.75 per share in exchange for $300,000. In April 1990, the exercise price of the warrants was reduced to $9 per share. In February 1991, in connection with the refinancing of the Company's short term debt, the exercise price was further reduced to fair market value ($5 per share). These warrants are exercisable at any time until February 1, 2001.

In connection with the refinancing of the Company's short term debt in February 1991, the Company issued warrants to purchase 425,000 shares of common stock at fair market value ($5 per share) to the three banks which provided the Revolver. These warrants are exercisable at any time until February 6, 2001.

(c) Preferred Stock

On February 16, 1993 the Company issued 112,000 shares of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock, $.01 par value ("Preferred Stock"), for the acquisition of Spring Grove. The liquidation value of each preferred share is the liquidation preference of $50 plus unpaid dividends. The Company has the option to redeem the Preferred Stock in whole or in part at any time on or before August 16, 1994 at liquidation value. Thereafter, any unredeemed Preferred Stock may be converted by the holder into Common Stock at a conversion rate of $18.63, and the Company will have the option to redeem such Preferred Stock at liquidation value plus a redemption premium of 7% which declines 1% each year thereafter. Each preferred share entitles its holder to receive a cumulative annual cash dividend of $3.50 per share from February 16, 1993 to February 16, 1994 and $4.00

(UNAUDITED)

NOTE 1 BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The consolidated interim financial statements included herein have been prepared by the Company, pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission, and include, in the opinion of management, all adjustments (consisting of only normal recurring accruals) necessary for the fair presentation of interim period results. The operating results for the three months ended March 31, 1994 are not necessarily indicative of those to be expected for the full fiscal year. Reference is made to the audited consolidated financial statements and notes thereto for the years ended December 31, 1993 and 1992 and for the ten-month period ended December 31, 1991 included elsewhere in this Prospectus.

NOTE 2 SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(A) Net Income Per Common and Common Equivalent Share

Net income per common and common equivalent share is based on net income less preferred stock dividend requirements divided by the weighted average number of common and common equivalent shares outstanding during each of the respective periods. Fully diluted net income per common share has not been presented as the amount would not differ significantly from that presented.

NOTE 3 FINANCIAL ARRANGEMENTS

At December 31, 1993, the Company had a Revolving Credit Agreement (the "Revolver") with three banks, which permitted borrowings of up to $38,000,000 in cash and allowed the Company to have a maximum of $20,000,000 of letters of credit outstanding. The combination of cash and letters of credit outstanding was limited to $50,000,000 at any one time. At March 31, 1994, borrowings under the Revolver were $31,004,569 (exclusive of outstanding letters of credit). The entire balance of the Revolver matures on July 1, 1996. All borrowings under the Revolver are collateralized by substantially all of the Company's assets.

On February 1, 1994, the Company and its banks amended the Revolver to increase the amount of the Revolver to $55,000,000. The amended Revolver permits borrowings of up to $40,000,000 in cash, and allows the Company to have up to $20,000,000 of letters of credit outstanding. The combination of cash and letters of credit outstanding may not exceed $55,000,000 at any one time. The amount of the Revolver reduces on April 1, 1995 to $50,000,000.

ITEM 17. UNDERTAKINGS

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

ALEX. BROWN & SONS INCORPORATED
c/o CS First Boston Corporation, Park Avenue Plaza
New York, NY 10055

Dear Sirs:

1. Introductory. Clean Harbors, Inc., a Massachusetts corporation (the "Company"), proposes to issue and sell to CS First Boston Corporation and Alex. Brown & Sons Incorporated (the "Underwriters") an aggregate of $50,000,000 principal amount of its 12.5% Senior Notes due May 15, 2001 (the "Notes"). Each subsidiary of the Company set forth on the signature pages hereof (each a "Guarantor," collectively the "Guarantors," and together with the Company, the "Issuers") proposes to issue and sell to the Underwriters unconditional guarantees, on a senior basis, of the Notes (collectively, the "Guarantees"). Each Note, together with the related Guarantees thereof, is referred to herein as a "Security," and the Notes, together with the related Guarantees thereof, are referred to herein collectively as the "Securities." The Securities are to be issued under an indenture, to be dated as of August 4, 1994 (the "Indenture"), between the Company, the Guarantors and Shawmut Bank., N.A., as trustee (the "Trustee").

2. Representations and Warranties. The Issuers, jointly and severally, represent and warrant to, and agree with, the several Underwriters that:

(a) The Issuers meet the requirements for use of Form S-2 and a registration statement (No. 33-54191) on Form S-2, including a form of prospectus, relating to the Securities has been filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") and either (i) has been declared effective under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Act"), and is not proposed to be amended, or (ii) is proposed to be amended by amendment or post-effective amendment. If the Issuers do not propose to amend such registration statement or if any post-effective amendment to such registration statement has been filed with the Commission prior to the execution and delivery of this Agreement, the most recent such amendment has been declared effective by the Commission. For purposes of this Agreement,

"Effective Time" means (i) if the Company has advised you that it does not propose to amend such registration statement, the date and time as of which such registration statement, or the most recent post-effective amendment thereto (if any) filed prior to the execution and delivery of this Agreement, was declared effective by the Commission, or (ii) if the Issuers have advised you that they propose to file an amendment or post-effective amendment to such registration statement, the date and time as of which such registration statement, as amended by such amendment or post-effective amendment, as the case may be, is declared effective by the Commission. "Effective Date" means the date of the Effective Time. Such registration statement, as amended at the Effective Time, including all material incorporated by reference therein and including all information (if any) deemed to be a part of such registration statement as of the Effective Time pursuant to Rule 430A(b) under the Act, is hereinafter referred to as the "Registration Statement", and the form of prospectus relating to the Securities, as first filed with the Commission pursuant to and in accordance with Rule 424(b) ("Rule 424(b)") under the Act or (if no such filing is required) as included in the Registration Statement, including all material incorporated by reference in such prospectus, is hereinafter referred to as the "Prospectus". No stop order suspending the effectiveness of such Registration Statement or any part thereof has been issued and no proceeding for that purpose has been instituted or threatened by the Commission.

(b) If the Effective Time is prior to the execution and delivery of this Agreement: (i) on the Effective Date, the Registration Statement conformed in all respects to the requirements of the Act, the Trust Indenture Act of 1939 (the "Trust Indenture Act") and the rules and regulations of the Commission (the "Rules and Regulations") and did not include any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, and (ii) on the date of this Agreement, the Registration Statement conforms, and at the time of filing of the Prospectus pursuant to Rule 424(b), or (if no such filing is required) as the Prospectus is included in the Registration Statement, the Registration Statement and the Prospectus will conform, in all respects to the requirements of the Act, the Trust Indenture Act and the Rules and Regulations, and neither of such documents includes, or will include, any untrue statement of a material fact or omits, or will omit, to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading. If the Effective Time is subsequent to the execution and delivery of this Agreement: on the Effective Date, the Registration Statement and the Prospectus will conform in all respects to the requirements of the Act, the Trust Indenture Act and the Rules and Regulations, and neither of such documents will include any untrue statement of a material fact or will omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading. The two preceding sentences do not apply to statements in or omissions from the Registration Statement

Each Guarantor has full power and authority to execute, deliver and perform this Agreement and to authorize, issue, sell and deliver its Guarantees as contemplated by this Agreement.

(f) This Agreement has been duly authorized, executed and delivered by each Issuer and constitutes the legal, valid and binding obligation of each Issuer, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms.

The Guarantees have been duly authorized by each Guarantor and, on the Closing Date, will have been duly executed by each Guarantor and will conform in all material respects to the description thereof in the Prospectus. When the Securities are issued, authenticated and delivered in accordance with the Indenture and paid for in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, the Notes will constitute valid and legally binding obligations of the Company, enforceable against the Company in accordance with their terms and entitled to the benefits of the Indenture, and the Guarantees will constitute valid and legally binding obligations of each Guarantor, enforceable against each Guarantor in accordance with their terms and entitled to the benefits of the Indenture.

Neither the Company nor any of the Subsidiaries (i) has received any notice of infringement of or conflict with asserted rights of others with respect to any Proprietary Rights, (ii) is aware of the assertion by others of any rights inconsistent with the Proprietary Rights and (iii) is aware of any facts which it believes would render any of its Proprietary Rights invalid, in each case for clauses (i), (ii), or (iii), which singly or in the aggregate, would result in any Material Adverse Effect or which might materially and adversely affect the consummation of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby.

(k) The financial statements included or incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement and the Prospectus comply in all material respects with the requirements of the Act and the Rules and Regulations, present fairly the consolidated financial position of the Company and the Subsidiaries as of the dates indicated and the consolidated results of their operations for the periods specified and have been prepared in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a consistent basis. earnings, affairs or business prospects of the Company and the Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, whether or not arising in the ordinary course of business, (ii) there have been no transactions entered into by the Company or any of the Subsidiaries, other than those in the ordinary course of business, which are material with respect to the Company and the Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, (iii) there has been no dividend or distribution of any kind declared, paid or made by the Company on its capital stock since March 31, 1994 (other than the dividends paid on April 15 and July 15, 1994 to the holders of Company's Series B Convertible Preferred Stock), and (iv) there has not been any change in the capital stock of the Company or any of the Subsidiaries or, except as previously disclosed to you, any change in the long-term debt of the Company and the Subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

(m) Neither the Company nor any of the Subsidiaries is (i) in violation of its charter, or (ii) in violation of any law, administrative regulation or rule, ordinance or order of any court or governmental agency, arbitration panel or other authority applicable to it or (iii) in default in the performance or observance of any obligation, agreement, covenant or condition contained in any contract, indenture, mortgage, loan agreement, note, lease or other instrument to which it is a party or by which it or its property may be bound, which violations or defaults, singly or in the aggregate, could have a Material Adverse Effect or which might materially and adversely affect the consummation of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby; and the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by the Company and the Guarantors will not conflict with or constitute or result in a breach or violation of, or default under, or result in the creation or imposition of any lien, charge or encumbrance upon any property or assets of the Company or any of the Subsidiaries pursuant to, any contract, indenture, mortgage, loan agreement, note, lease or other agreement or instrument to which the Company or any of the Subsidiaries is a party or by which it or any of them may be bound, or to which any of the property or assets of the Company or any of the Subsidiaries is subject, which, singly or in the aggregate, could have a Material Adverse Effect or which might materially and adversely affect the consummation of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, nor will such action result in any violation of the provisions of the charter or by-laws of the Company or any of the Subsidiaries or any applicable law, any rule, regulation or order of any governmental agency or authority or any decree or order of any court having jurisdiction over the Company or any of the Subsidiaries or any of their properties, the violation of which, singly or in the aggregate, would have a Material Adverse Effect or which might materially and adversely affect the consummation of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby.

(n) The Company and each of the Subsidiaries are each in compliance with all laws, ordinances and regulations applicable to its operations, properties (whether owned or leased) and its business as described in the Prospectus except where noncompliance with such laws, ordinances and regulations would not have a Material

Adverse Effect and would not materially and adversely affect the consummation of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby.

(o) Except as described in the Registration Statement and the Prospectus, neither the Company nor any of the Subsidiaries has violated or has received any notice that it has violated any environmental safety or similar law or regulation applicable to its business relating to the protection of human health and safety, the environment or hazardous or toxic substances or wastes, pollutants or contaminants ("Environmental Laws"), lacks any permits, licenses or other approvals required of them under applicable Environmental Laws to own, lease and operate their respective properties and to conduct their business in the manner described in the Prospectus, is violating any terms and conditions of any such permit, license or approval or has permitted to occur any event that allows, or after notice or lapse of time would allow, revocation, termination of any such permit, license or approval or results in any other impairment of their rights thereunder, which in each case might result, singly or in the aggregate, in a Material Adverse Effect or which might materially and adversely affect the consummation of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby.

(p) Neither the Company nor any of the Subsidiaries has violated any federal, state or local law relating to discrimination in hiring, promotion or pay of employees prior to any applicable wage or hour laws, nor any provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA") or the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, nor has the Company or any of the Subsidiaries engaged in any unfair labor practice, which in each case might result, singly or in the aggregate, in a Material Adverse Effect

There is (i) no significant unfair labor practice complaint pending against the Company or any of the Subsidiaries or, to the best knowledge of the Company, threatened against any of them before the National Labor Relations Board or any state or local labor relations board, and no significant grievance or significant arbitration proceeding arising out of or under any collective bargaining agreement is so pending against the Company or any of the Subsidiaries or, to the best knowledge of the Company, threatened against any of them, (ii) no strike, labor dispute, slowdown or stoppage pending against the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or, to the best knowledge of the Company, threatened against the Company or any of the Subsidiaries and (iii) to the best knowledge of the Company, no union representation question existing with respect to the employees of the Company or any of the Subsidiaries and, to the best knowledge of the Company, no union organizing activities are taking place, except (with respect to any matter specified in clause (i), (ii), or (iii) above, singly or in the aggregate) such as would not have a Material Adverse Effect and would not materially and adversely affect the consummation of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby.

(q) There is no action, suit or proceeding before or by any court or governmental agency or body, domestic or foreign, now pending, or, to the knowledge of the Company, threatened, against or affecting the Company or any of the Subsidiaries, which is required to be disclosed in the Registration Statement or the Prospectus (other than as disclosed therein or in any document incorporated by reference therein), which could be reasonably expected to result in any Material Adverse Effect or which might materially and adversely affect the consummation of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby; and there are no contracts or documents of the Company or any of the Subsidiaries which are required to be described in the Prospectus or the Registration Statement or filed as exhibits to the Registration Statement by the Act or by the Rules and Regulations which have not been so described or so filed.

(r) No authorization, approval or consent of, or registration or qualification with, any Person or any court or governmental authority or agency is necessary in connection with the issuance or sale of the Securities or the consummation of the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement, except such as may be required under the Act or the Trust Indenture Act and have been or will be obtained prior to the Closing Date, and such as may be required under the Rules and Regulations or state securities laws or the by-laws and rules of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. (the NASD) in connection with the purchase and distribution by the Underwriters of the Securities.

(s) The Company and each of the Subsidiaries possess and are operating in substantial compliance with the terms, provisions, and conditions of all licenses, certificates, authorities or permits issued by the appropriate governmental or regulatory agencies or authorities that are necessary to enable them to own, lease and operate their respective properties and to carry on their respective businesses as presently conducted and which are material to the Company and the Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, and neither the Company nor any of the Subsidiaries has received any notice of proceedings relating to the revocation or modification of any such license, certificate, authority or permit which, singly or in the aggregate, would be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect or which might materially and adversely affect the consummation of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby.

3. Purchase, Sale and Delivery of Securities. On the basis of the representations, warranties and agreements herein contained, but subject to the terms and conditions herein set forth, the Issuers agree to issue and sell to the Underwriters, and the Underwriters agree, severally and not jointly, to purchase from the Issuers, at a purchase price of 96.5% of the principal amount thereof, the respective principal amounts of Securities set forth opposite the names of the Underwriters on Schedule A hereto.

(h) Whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated or this Agreement is terminated, the Issuers will pay and be responsible for all costs, expenses, fees and taxes in accordance with or incident to (i) the printing, processing, filing, distribution and delivery under the Act of the Registration Statement, each preliminary prospectus, the Prospectus and all amendments or supplements thereto, (ii) the printing, processing, execution, distribution and delivery of this Agreement, the Indenture, any memoranda describing state securities or Blue Sky laws and all other agreements, memoranda, correspondence and other documents printed, distributed and delivered in connection with the offering of the Securities, (iii) the registration with the Commission and the issuance and delivery of the Securities, (iv) the registration or qualification of the Securities for offer and sale under the securities or Blue Sky laws of the jurisdictions referred to in paragraph (f) above (including, in each case the fees and disbursements of counsel relating to such registration or qualification and memoranda relating thereto and any filing fees in connection therewith, (v) furnishing such copies of the Registration Statement, Prospectus and preliminary prospectus, and all amendments and supplements to any of them, as may be reasonably requested by you, (vi) filing, registration and clearance with the NASD in connection with the offering of the Securities (including the fees and disbursements of counsel relating thereto), (vii) the listing of the Securities, if any, on a stock exchange or automated quotation system, (viii) the rating or tentative rating of the Securities by investment rating agencies, and (ix) the performance by the Issuers of their other obligations under this Agreement, including (without limitation) the fees of the Trustee and the Trustee's counsel, the cost of their personnel and other internal costs, the cost of printing and engraving the certificates representing the Securities, and all expenses and taxes incident to the sale and delivery of the Securities to you.

(i) The Company will use the proceeds from the sale of the Securities in the manner described in the Prospectus under the caption "Use of Proceeds."

(j) The Issuers will not voluntarily claim, and will actively resist any attempts to claim, the benefit of any usury laws against the holders of the Securities.

(k) The Issuers will use their best efforts to do and perform all things required to be done and performed under this Agreement by them prior to or after the Closing Date and to satisfy all conditions precedent on

6. Conditions of the Obligations of the Underwriters. The obligations of the several Underwriters to purchase and pay for the Securities will be subject to the accuracy of the representations and warranties on the part of the Issuers herein, to the accuracy of the statements of Issuers' officers made pursuant to the provisions hereof, to the performance by the Issuers of their obligations hereunder and to the following additional conditions precedent:

(a) You shall have received a letter, dated the date of delivery thereof (which, if the Effective Time is prior to the execution and delivery of this Agreement, shall be on or prior to the date of this Agreement, or, if the Effective Time is subsequent to the execution and delivery of this Agreement, shall be prior to the filing of the amendment or post-effective amendment to the registration statement to be filed shortly prior to the Effective Time), of Coopers & Lybrand confirming that they are independent public accountants within the meaning of the Act and the applicable published Rules and Regulations thereunder and stating in effect that:

(iii) on the basis of the review referred to in clause (ii) above, a reading of the latest available interim financial statements of the Company, inquiries of officials of the Company who have responsibility for financial and accounting matters and other specified procedures, nothing came to their attention that caused them to believe that:

(A) the unaudited financial statements included in the Registration Statement do not comply in form in all material respects with the applicable accounting requirements of the Act and the related published Rules and Regulations or are not in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis substantially consistent with that of the audited financial statements in the Registration Statement;

(B) at the date of the latest available balance sheet read by such accountants, or at a subsequent specified date not more than five days prior to the date of this Agreement, there was any change in the capital stock or any material increase in short-term indebtedness or

the latest balance sheet included in the Prospectus; or

(C) for the period from the closing date of the latest income statement included in the Prospectus to the closing date of the latest available income statement read by such accountants there were any decreases, as compared with the corresponding period of the previous year and with the period of corresponding length ended the date of the latest income statement included in the Prospectus, in consolidated revenues or income from operations, or in the ratio of earnings to fixed charges;

except in all cases set forth in clauses (B) and (C) above for changes, increases or decreases which the Prospectus discloses have occurred or may occur or which are described in such letter; and

(iv) they have compared specified dollar amounts (or percentages derived from such dollar amounts) and other financial information contained in the Registration Statement (in each case to the extent that such dollar amounts, percentages and other financial information are derived from the general accounting records of the Company and its Subsidiaries subject to the internal controls of the Company's accounting system or are derived directly from such records by analysis or computation) with the results obtained from inquiries, a reading of such general accounting records and other procedures specified in such letter and have found such dollar amounts, percentages and other financial information to be in agreement with such results, except as otherwise specified in such letter.

(c) Subsequent to the execution and delivery of this Agreement, there shall not have occurred: (i) any change, or any development involving a prospective change, in or affecting particularly the business or properties of the Company or its Subsidiaries which, in your judgment, materially impairs the investment quality of the Securities; (ii) any downgrading in the rating or tentative rating of any debt securities of the Company by any "nationally recognized statistical rating organization" (as defined for purposes of Rule 436(g) under the Act), or any public announcement that any such organization has under surveillance or review its rating of any debt securities of the Company (other than an announcement with positive implications of a possible upgrading, and no implication of a possible downgrading, of such rating); (iii) any suspension or limitation of trading in securities generally on the New York Stock Exchange, or any setting of minimum prices for trading on such exchange, or any suspension of trading of any securities of the Company on any exchange or in the over-the-counter market; (iv) any banking moratorium declared by Federal or New York authorities; or (v) any outbreak or escalation of major hostilities in which the United States is involved, any declaration of war by Congress or any other substantial national or international calamity or emergency if, in the judgment of a majority in interest of the Underwriters including you, the effect of any such outbreak, escalation, declaration, calamity or emergency makes it impractical or inadvisable to proceed with completion of the sale of and payment for the Securities.

(g) You shall have received a letter, dated the Closing Date, of Coopers & Lybrand which meets the requirements of subsection (a) of this Section, except that the specified date referred to in such subsection will be a date not more than five days prior to the Closing Date for the purposes of this subsection.

The Issuers will furnish you with such conformed copies of such opinions, certificates, letters and documents as you reasonably request.

7. Indemnification and Contribution.

(a) The Issuers, jointly and severally, will indemnify and hold harmless each Underwriter against any losses, claims, damages or liabilities, joint or several, to which such Underwriter may become subject, under the Act or otherwise, insofar as such losses, claims, damages or liabilities (or actions in respect thereof) arise out of or are based upon any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of any material fact contained in the Registration Statement, the Prospectus, or any amendment or supplement thereto, or any related preliminary prospectus, or arise out of or are based upon the omission or alleged omission to state therein a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, and will reimburse each Underwriter for any legal or other expenses reasonably incurred by such Underwriter in connection with investigating or defending any such loss, claim, damage, liability or action as such expenses are incurred; provided, however, that (i)

the Issuers will not be liable in any such case to the extent that any such loss, claim, damage or liability arises out of or is based upon an untrue statement or alleged untrue statement in or omission or alleged omission from any of such documents in reliance upon and in conformity with written information furnished to the Issuers by any Underwriter specifically for use therein; and (ii) the Company shall not be liable for the costs and expenses of more than one law firm representing all of the Underwriters.

(b) Each Underwriter, severally and not jointly, will indemnify and hold harmless the Issuers against any losses, claims, damages or liabilities to which the Issuers may become subject, under the Act or otherwise, insofar as such losses, claims, damages or liabilities (or actions in respect thereof) arise out of or are based upon any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of any material fact contained in the Registration Statement, the Prospectus, or any amendment or supplement thereto, or any related preliminary prospectus, or arise out of or are based upon the omission or the alleged omission to state therein a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, in each case to the extent, but only to the extent, that such untrue statement or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission was made in reliance upon and in conformity with written information furnished to the Issuers by such Underwriter specifically for use therein, and will reimburse any legal or other expenses reasonably incurred by the Issuers in connection with investigating or defending any such loss, claim, damage, liability or action as such expenses are incurred.

(c) Promptly after receipt by an indemnified party under this Section of notice of the commencement of any action, such indemnified party will, if a claim in respect thereof is to be made against the indemnifying party under subsection (a) or (b) above, notify the indemnifying party of the commencement thereof; but the omission so to notify the indemnifying party will not relieve it from any liability which it may have to any indemnified party otherwise than under Subsection (a) or (b) above. In case any such action is brought against any indemnified party and it notifies the indemnifying party of the commencement thereof, the indemnifying party will be entitled to participate therein and, to the extent that it may wish, jointly with any other indemnifying party similarly notified, to assume the defense thereof, with counsel satisfactory to such indemnified party (who shall not, except with the consent of the indemnified party, be counsel to the indemnifying party), and after notice from the indemnifying party to such indemnified party of its election so to assume the defense thereof, the indemnifying party will not be liable to such indemnified party under this Section for any legal or other expenses subsequently incurred by such indemnified party in connection with the defense thereof other than reasonable costs of investigation. No indemnifying party shall, without the prior written consent of the indemnified party, effect any settlement of any pending or threatened action in respect to which any indemnified party is or could have been a party and indemnity could have been sought hereunder by such indemnified party unless such settlement includes an unconditional release of such indemnified party from all liability on any claims that are the subject matter of such action.

(d) If the indemnification provided for in this Section is unavailable or insufficient to hold harmless an indemnified party under subsection (a) or (b) above, then each indemnifying party shall contribute to the amount paid or payable by such indemnified party as a result of the losses, claims, damages or liabilities referred to in subsection (a) or (b) above (i) in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative benefits received by the Issuers on the one hand and the Underwriters on the other from the offering of the Securities or (ii) if the allocation provided by clause (i) above is not permitted by applicable law, in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect not only the relative benefits referred to in clause (i) above but also the relative fault of the Issuers on the one hand and the Underwriters on the other in connection with the statements or omissions which resulted in such losses, claims, damages or liabilities as well as any other relevant equitable considerations. The relative benefits received by the Issuers on the one hand and the Underwriters on the other shall be deemed to be in the same proportion as the total net proceeds from the offering (before deducting expenses) received by the Issuers bear to the total underwriting discounts and commissions received by the Underwriters. The relative fault shall be determined by reference to, among other things, whether the untrue or alleged untrue statement of a material fact or the omission or alleged omission to state a material fact relates to information supplied by the Issuers or the Underwriters and the parties' relative intent, knowledge, access to information and opportunity to correct or prevent such untrue statement or omission. The amount paid by an indemnified party as a result of the losses, claims, damages or liabilities referred to in the first sentence of this subsection (d) shall be deemed to include any legal or other expenses reasonably incurred by such indemnified party in connection with investigating or defending any action or claim which is the subject of this subsection (d). Notwithstanding the provisions of this subsection (d), no Underwriter shall be required to contribute any amount in excess of the amount by which the total price at which the Securities underwritten by it and distributed to the public were offered to the public exceeds the amount of any damages which such Underwriter has otherwise been required to pay by reason of such untrue or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission. No Person guilty of fraudulent misrepresentation (within the meaning of Section 11(f) of the Act) shall be entitled to contribution from any Person who was not guilty of such fraudulent misrepresentation. The Underwriters' obligations in this subsection (d) to contribute are several in proportion to their respective underwriting obligations and not joint.

(e) The obligations of the Issuers under this Section shall be in addition to any liability which the Issuers may otherwise have and shall extend, upon the same terms and conditions, to each person, if any, who controls any Underwriter within the meaning of the Act; and the obligations of the Underwriters under this Section shall be in addition to any liability which the respective Underwriters may otherwise have and shall extend, upon the same terms and conditions, to each director of the Issuers, to each officer of the Issuers who has signed the Registration Statement and to each Person, if any, who controls the Issuers within the meaning of the Act.

8. Default of Underwriters. If any Underwriter defaults in its obligations to purchase Securities hereunder and the aggregate principal amount of the Securities that such defaulting Underwriter agreed but failed to purchase does not exceed 10% of the total principal amount of the Securities, you may make arrangements satisfactory to the Issuers for the purchase of such Securities by other Persons, including the other Underwriter, but if no such arrangements are made by the Closing Date, the nondefaulting Underwriter shall be obligated to purchase the Securities that such defaulting Underwriter agreed but failed to purchase. If any Underwriter so defaults and the aggregate principal amount of the Securities with respect to which such default occurs exceeds 10% of the total principal amount of the Securities and arrangements satisfactory to you and the Issuers for the purchase of such Securities by other Persons are not made within 36 hours after such default, this Agreement will terminate without liability on the part of any nondefaulting Underwriter or the Issuers, except as provided in Section 9. As used in this Agreement, the term "Underwriter" includes any Person substituted for an Underwriter under this Section. Nothing herein will relieve a defaulting Underwriter from liability for its default.

9. Survival of Certain Representations and Obligations. ARTICLE 2 - The Securities

SECTION 2.01 Form and Dating. The Securities and the Trustee's certificate of authentication shall be substantially in the form of Exhibit A, which is hereby incorporated in and expressly made a part of this Indenture. The notation on each Security relating to the Subsidiary Guarantees shall be substantially in the form set forth on Exhibit C, which is hereby incorporated in and expressly made a part of this Indenture. The Securities may have notations, legends or endorsements required by law, stock exchange rules, agreements to which the Company is subject, if any, or usage (provided that any such notation, legend or endorsement is in a form acceptable to the Company). Each Security shall be dated the date of its authentication. The terms of the Securities set forth in Exhibit A are part of the terms of this Indenture.

SECTION 2.02 Execution and Authentication. Two Officers shall sign the Securities for the Company by manual or facsimile signature. The Company's seal shall be impressed, affixed, imprinted or reproduced on the Securities and may be in facsimile form.

If an Officer whose signature is on a Security no longer holds that office at the time the Trustee authenticates the Security, the Security shall be valid nevertheless.

A Security shall not be valid until an authorized signatory of the Trustee manually signs the certificate of authentication on the Security. The signature shall be conclusive evidence that the Security has been authenticated under this Indenture.

The Trustee shall authenticate and deliver Securities for original issue in an aggregate principal amount of $50,000,000, upon a written order of the Company signed by two Officers or by an Officer and either an Assistant Treasurer or an Assistant Secretary of the Company. Such order shall specify the amount of the Securities to be authenticated and the date on which the original issue of Securities is to be authenticated. The aggregate amount of Securities outstanding at any time may not exceed that amount except as provided in Section 2.07.

The Trustee may appoint an authenticating agent reasonably acceptable to the Company to authenticate the Securities. Unless limited by the terms of such appointment, an authenticating agent may authenticate Securities whenever the Trustee may do so. Each reference in this Indenture to authentication by the Trustee includes authentication by such agent. An authenticating agent has the same rights as any Registrar, Paying Agent or agent for service of notices and demands.

SECTION 2.03 Registrar and Paying Agent. The Company may maintain an office or agency where Securities may be presented for registration or transfer or for exchange (the "Registrar") and an office or agency where Securities may be presented for payment (the "Paying Agent"). The Registrar shall keep a register of the Securities and of their transfer and exchange. The Company may have one or more co-registrars and one or more additional paying agents.

The Company shall enter into an appropriate agency agreement with any Registrar, Paying Agent or co-registrar not a party to this Indenture, which shall incorporate the terms of the TIA. The agreement shall implement the provisions of this Indenture that relate to such agent. The Company shall notify the Trustee of the name and address of any such agent. If the Company fails to maintain a Registrar or Paying Agent, the Trustee shall act as such and shall be entitled to appropriate compensation therefor pursuant to Section 7.07. The Company or any of its domestically incorporated Wholly Owned Subsidiaries may act as Paying Agent, Registrar, co-registrar or transfer agent.

The Company initially appoints Shawmut Bank, N.A. as Registrar and Paying Agent in connection with the Securities.

SECTION 2.04 Paying Agent to Hold Money in Trust. Prior to each due date of the principal and interest on any Security, the Company shall deposit with the Paying Agent a sum sufficient to pay such principal and interest when so becoming due. The Company shall require each Paying Agent (other than the Trustee) to agree in writing that the Paying Agent shall hold in trust for the benefit of Securityholders or the Trustee all money held by the Paying Agent for the payment of principal of or interest on the Securities and shall notify the Trustee of any default by the Company in making any such payment. If the Company or a Subsidiary acts as Paying Agent, it shall segregate the money held by it as Paying Agent and hold it as a separate trust fund. The Company at any time may require a Paying Agent to pay all money held by it to the Trustee and to account for any funds disbursed by the Paying Agent. Upon complying with this Section, the Paying Agent shall have no further liability for the money delivered to the Trustee.

SECTION 2.05 Securityholder Lists. The Trustee shall preserve in as current a form as is reasonably practicable the most recent list available to it of the names and addresses of Securityholders. If the Trustee is not the Registrar, the Company shall furnish to the Trustee, in writing at least five Business Days before each interest payment date and at such other times as the Trustee may request in writing, a list in such form and as of such date as the Trustee may reasonably require of the names and addresses of Securityholders.

SECTION 2.06 Transfer and Exchange. The Securities shall be issued in registered form and shall be transferable only upon the surrender of a Security for registration of transfer. When a Security is presented to the Registrar or a co-registrar with a request to register a transfer, the Registrar shall register the transfer as requested if the requirements of section 8-401(1) of the Uniform Commercial Code are met. When Securities are presented to the Registrar or a co-registrar with a request to exchange them for an equal principal amount of Securities of other denominations, the Registrar shall make the exchange as requested if the same requirements are met. To permit registration of transfers and exchanges, the Company shall execute and the Trustee shall authenticate Securities at the Registrar's or co-registrar's request. The Company may require payment of a sum sufficient to pay all taxes, assessments or other governmental charges in connection with any transfer or exchange pursuant to this Section (other than any such tax assessment or other governmental charges payable upon exchanges pursuant to Sections 2.09, 3.06 or 9.05, which the Company shall pay). The Company shall not be required to make and the Registrar need not register transfers or exchanges of Securities selected for redemption (except, in the case of Securities to be redeemed in part, the portion thereof not to be redeemed) or any Securities for a period of 15 days before a selection of Securities to be redeemed or 15 days before an interest payment date.

Prior to the due presentation for registration of transfer of any Security, the Company, the Trustee, the Paying Agent, the Registrar or any co-registrar may deem and treat the person in whose name a Security is registered as the absolute owner of such Security for the purpose of receiving payment of principal of and interest on such Security and for all other purposes whatsoever, whether or not such Security is overdue, and none of the Company, the Trustee, the Paying Agent, the Registrar or any co-registrar shall be affected by notice to the contrary.

All Securities issued upon any transfer or exchange pursuant to the terms of this Indenture will evidence the same debt and will be entitled to the same benefit under this Indenture as the Securities surrendered upon such transfer or exchange.

SECTION 2.07 Replacement Securities. If a mutilated Security is surrendered to the Registrar or if the Holder of a Security claims that the Security has been lost, destroyed or wrongfully taken, the Company shall issue and the Trustee shall authenticate a replacement Security if the requirements of Section 8-405 of the Uniform Commercial Code are met and the Holder satisfies any other reasonable requirements of the Trustee. If required by the Trustee or the Company, such Holder shall furnish an indemnity bond sufficient in the judgment of the Company and the Trustee to protect the Company, the Trustee, the Paying Agent, the Registrar and any co-registrar from any loss which any of them may suffer if a Security is replaced. The Company and the Trustee may charge the Holder for their expenses in replacing a Security.

Every replacement Security is an additional obligation of the Company.

SECTION 2.08 Outstanding Securities. Securities outstanding at any time are all Securities authenticated by the Trustee except for those canceled by it, those delivered to it for cancellation and those described in this Section as not outstanding. A Security does not cease to be outstanding because the Company or an Affiliate of the Company holds the Security.

If a Security is replaced pursuant to Section 2.07, it ceases to be outstanding unless the Trustee and the Company receive proof satisfactory to them that the replaced Security is held by a bona fide purchaser.

If the Paying Agent segregates and holds in trust, in accordance with this Indenture, on a redemption date or maturity date money sufficient to pay all principal and interest payable on that date with respect to the Securities (or portions thereof) to be redeemed or maturing, as the case may be, and the Paying Agent is not prohibited from paying such money to the Securityholders on that date pursuant to the terms of this Indenture, then on and after that date such Securities (or portions thereof) cease to be outstanding and interest on them ceases to accrue.

SECTION 2.09 Temporary Securities. Until definitive Securities are ready for delivery, the Company may prepare and the Trustee shall authenticate temporary Securities. Temporary Securities shall be substantially in the form of definitive Securities but may have variations that the Company considers appropriate for temporary Securities. Without unreasonable delay, the Company shall prepare and the Trustee shall authenticate definitive Securities and deliver them in exchange for temporary Securities. Until such exchange, temporary Securities shall be entitled to the same rights, benefits and privileges as definitive Securities.

SECTION 2.10 Cancellation. The Company at any time may deliver Securities to the Trustee for cancellation. The Registrar and the Paying Agent shall forward to the Trustee any Securities surrendered to them for registration of transfer, exchange or payment. The Trustee and no one else shall cancel and destroy (subject to the record retention requirements of the Exchange Act) all Securities surrendered for registration of transfer, exchange, payment or cancellation and deliver a certificate of such destruction to the Company unless the Company directs the Trustee to deliver canceled Securities to the Company. The Company may not issue new Securities to replace Securities it has redeemed, paid or delivered to the Trustee for cancellation.

SECTION 2.11 Defaulted Interest. If the Company defaults in a payment of interest on the Securities, the Company shall pay defaulted interest (plus interest on such defaulted interest to the extent lawful) in any lawful manner. The Company may pay the defaulted interest to the persons who are Securityholders on a subsequent special record date, which date shall be at least five Business Days prior to the payment date. The Company shall fix or cause to be fixed any such special record date and payment date, and, at least 15 days before any such special record date, the Company shall mail to each Securityholder a notice that states the special record date, the payment date and the amount of defaulted interest to be paid.

SECTION 2.12 Payments to Trustee. Any payments to be made by the Company to the Trustee hereunder shall be made by no later than 11:00 a.m. Boston time on the date specified in immediately available funds.

ARTICLE 3 - Redemption

SECTION 3.01 Notices to Trustee. If the Company elects to redeem

Securities pursuant to paragraph 5 of the Securities, it shall notify the Trustee in writing of the redemption date, the principal amount of Securities to be redeemed and the paragraph of the Securities pursuant to which the redemption will occur.

The Company shall give each notice to the Trustee provided for in this Section at least 60 days before the redemption date unless the Trustee consents to a shorter period. Such notice shall be accompanied by an Officers' Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel from the Company to the effect that such redemption will comply with the conditions herein. If fewer than all the Securities are to be redeemed, the record date relating to such redemption shall be selected by the Company and given to the Trustee, which record date shall be not less than 15 days after the date of notice to the Trustee. If the Trustee is not the Registrar, the Company shall, concurrently with delivery of its notice to the Trustee of redemption, cause the Registrar to deliver to the Trustee a certificate (upon which the Trustee may rely) setting forth the name of, and the aggregate principal amount of Securities held by each Holder.

SECTION 3.02 Selection of Securities to be Redeemed. If fewer than all the Securities are to be redeemed, the Trustee shall select the Securities to be redeemed by lot or by a method that complies with applicable legal and securities exchange requirements, if any, and that the Trustee considers fair and appropriate and in accordance with methods generally used at the time of selection by fiduciaries in similar circumstances. The Trustee shall make the selection from outstanding Securities not previously called for redemption. The Trustee may select for redemption portions of the principal of Securities that have denominations larger than $1,000. Securities and portions of them the Trustee selects shall be in amounts of $1,000 or a whole multiple of $1,000. Provisions of this Indenture that apply to Securities called for redemption also apply to portions of Securities called for redemption. The Trustee shall notify the Company promptly of the Securities or portions of Securities to be redeemed.

SECTION 3.03 Notice of Redemption. At least 30 days but not more than 60 days before a date for redemption of Securities, the Company shall mail a notice of redemption by first-class mail to each Holder of Securities to be redeemed.

The notice shall identify the Securities or portions thereof to be redeemed and shall state:

- (1) the redemption date;
- (2) the redemption price and the amount of unpaid and accrued interest on such Securities as of the date of redemption;
- (3) the name and address of the Paying Agent;
- (4) that Securities called for redemption must be surrendered to the Paying Agent to collect the redemption price for and any accrued but unpaid interest on such Securities;
- (5) if fewer than all the outstanding Securities are to be redeemed, the identification and principal amounts of the particular Securities to be redeemed and, that, after the redemption date, upon surrender of such Security, a new Security or a Security in principal amount of the unredeemed portions will be issued;
- (6) that, unless the Company defaults in making such redemption payment or the Paying Agent is prohibited from making such payment pursuant to the terms of this Indenture, interest on Securities (or portions thereof) called for redemption ceases to accrue on and after the redemption date and that the only remaining right of the Holders of such Securities is to receive payment of the redemption price upon surrender to the Paying Agent of the Securities redeemed;

(7) the paragraph of the Securities pursuant to which the Securities called for redemption are being redeemed; and

(8) The CUSIP number of the Securities to be redeemed, if any.

At the Company's request, the Trustee shall give the notice of redemption in the Company's name and at the Company's expense. In such event, the Company shall provide the Trustee at least 10 days prior to the date that notice of the redemption is to be mailed to Holders, an Officer's Certificate that (i) requests the Trustee to give notice of the redemption to Holders, (ii) sets forth the information to be provided to Holders in the notice of redemption, as set forth in the preceding paragraph, and (iii) sets forth the aggregate principal amount of Securities to be redeemed and the amount of accrued and unpaid interest thereon as of the redemption date. If the Trustee is not the Registrar, the Company shall, concurrently with any such request, cause the Registrar to deliver to the Trustee a certificate (upon which the Trustee may rely) setting forth the name of, the address of, and the aggregate principal amount of Securities held by, each Holder.

SECTION 3.04 Effect of Notice of Redemption. Once notice of redemption is mailed, Securities called for redemption become due and payable on the redemption date and at the redemption price stated in the notice. Upon surrender to the Paying Agent, such Securities shall be paid at the redemption price stated in the notice, plus accrued interest to the redemption date. Failure to give notice or any defect in the notice to any Holder shall not affect the validity of the notice to any other Holder.

SECTION 3.05 Deposit of Redemption Price. Prior to the redemption date, the Company shall deposit with the Paying Agent (or, if the Company or a Subsidiary is the Paying Agent, shall segregate and hold in trust) money sufficient to pay the redemption price of and accrued interest on all Securities to be redeemed on that date other than Securities or portions of Securities called for redemption which have been delivered by the Company to the Trustee for cancellation.

SECTION 3.06 Securities Redeemed in Part. Upon surrender of a Security that is redeemed in part, the Company shall execute and the Trustee shall authenticate for the Holder (at the Company's request) a new Security equal in principal amount to the unredeemed portion of the Security surrendered.

ARTICLE 4 - Covenants

SECTION 4.01 Payment of Securities. The Company shall promptly pay the principal of and interest on the Securities on the dates and in the manner provided in the Securities and in this Indenture. Principal and interest shall be considered paid on the date due if on such date the Trustee or the Paying Agent holds in accordance with this Indenture money sufficient to pay all principal and interest then due and the Trustee or the Paying Agent, as the case may be, is not prohibited from paying such money to the Securityholders on that date pursuant to the terms of this Indenture.

The Company shall pay interest on overdue principal at the rate specified therefor in the Securities, and it shall pay interest on overdue installments of interest (without regard to any applicable grace period) at the same rate to the extent lawful.

SECTION 4.02 SEC Reports. Each of the Company and the Guarantor

Subsidiaries shall file with the Trustee and provide Securityholders, within 15 days after it files them with the SEC, copies of its annual report and of the information, documents and other reports (or copies of such portions of any of the foregoing as the SEC may by rules and regulations prescribe) which the Company or such Guarantor Subsidiary is required to file with the SEC pursuant to Section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act. Notwithstanding that the Company may not be required to remain subject to the reporting requirements of Section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act, the Company shall continue to file with the SEC and provide the Trustee and Securityholders with such annual reports and such information, documents and other reports (or copies of such portions of any of the foregoing as the SEC may by rules and regulations prescribe) which are specified in Sections 13 and 15(d) of the Exchange Act. The Company also shall comply with the other provisions of TIA (S)314(a).

SECTION 4.03 Limitation on Debt.

(a) The Company shall not issue, directly or indirectly, any Debt unless immediately after giving effect to the issuance of such Debt and the receipt and application of the proceeds thereof the Consolidated EBITDA Coverage Ratio for the period of the most recently completed four fiscal quarters of the Company ending at least 45 days prior to the date such Debt is issued exceeds 2.5 to 1.0; provided, however, that nothing herein shall limit the ability of the Subsidiaries to incur Debt in accordance with Section 4.04.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 4.03(a), the Company may issue the following Debt:

(1) Debt issued pursuant to the Bank Revolver or any other Bank Debt in an aggregate principal amount outstanding at any one time not to exceed the greater of $35.0 million or 80% of Eligible Accounts Receivable; provided, however, that such amount shall be reduced by the aggregate outstanding principal amount of all Debt issued pursuant to clauses (5), (6) and (7) below and clause (3) under Section 4.04 below;

(2) Debt owed to and held by a Wholly Owned Subsidiary; provided, however, that any subsequent issuance or transfer of any Capital Stock which results in any such Wholly Owned Subsidiary ceasing to be a Wholly Owned Subsidiary or any transfer of such Debt (other than to a Wholly Owned Subsidiary) shall be deemed, in each case, to constitute the issuance of such Debt by the Company;

(3) the Securities and Debt issued in exchange for, or the proceeds of which are used to refund or refinance, any Debt permitted by this clause (3); provided, however, that (i) the principal amount of the Debt so issued shall not exceed the principal amount of the Debt so exchanged, refunded or refinanced and (ii) the Debt so issued (A) shall not mature prior to the Stated Maturity of the Debt so exchanged, refunded or refinanced and (B) shall have an Average Life equal to or greater than the remaining Average Life of the Debt so exchanged, refunded or refinanced;

(4) Debt (other than Debt described in clause (1), (2) or (3) above) outstanding on the date on which the Securities were originally issued and Debt issued in exchange for, or the proceeds of which are used to refund or refinance, any Debt permitted by this clause (4) or by clause (4) under Section 4.04 below, or any Debt issued as permitted by Section 4.03(a); provided, however, that (i) the principal amount of the

Debt so issued shall not exceed the principal amount of the Debt so exchanged, refunded or refinanced and (ii) the Debt so issued (A) shall not mature prior to the Stated Maturity of the Debt so exchanged, refunded or refinanced and (B) shall have an Average Life equal to or greater than the remaining Average Life of the Debt so exchanged, refunded or refinanced;

(5) Debt issued with respect to obligations that are tax-exempt pursuant to Section 103 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as from time to time amended (the "Code"), and that are issued in connection with pollution control facilities or other plant and equipment or other facilities of the Company or a Subsidiary; provided, however, that the aggregate principal amount of all Debt permitted by this clause (5) outstanding at any one time shall not exceed $10.0 million;

(6) Debt issued by the Company, whether or not secured by a Lien, constituting all or a part of the purchase price of assets or property acquired or constructed in the ordinary course of business after the date on which the Securities were originally issued and Debt issued by the Company in exchange for, or the proceeds of which are used to refund or refinance, any then outstanding Debt permitted by this clause (6); provided, however, that (i) the principal amount of the Debt

so issued shall not exceed the principal amount of the Debt so exchanged, refunded or refinanced, and (ii) the Debt so issued (A) shall not mature prior to the Stated Maturity of the Debt so exchanged, refunded or refinanced and (B) shall have an Average Life equal to or greater than the remaining Average Life of the Debt so exchanged, refunded or refinanced; provided further, however, that the aggregate principal amount of all Debt permitted by this clause (6) outstanding at any one time shall not exceed $10.0 million; and

(7) Debt (other than Debt described in clauses (1) through (6) above and in Section 4.03(a)) in an aggregate principal amount outstanding at any time not to exceed $10.0 million minus the aggregate outstanding principal amount of all Debt of Subsidiaries issued pursuant to clause (3) of Section 4.04 below.

(c) Notwithstanding Sections 4.03(a) and 4.03(b), the Company shall not issue any Debt (i) if the proceeds thereof are used, directly or indirectly, to repay, prepay, redeem, defease, retire, refund or refinance any Subordinated Obligations unless such Debt shall be subordinated to the Securities to at least the same extent as such Subordinated Obligations or (ii) if such Debt is subordinate or junior in ranking in any respect to any other indebtedness unless such Debt is expressly subordinated in right of payment to the Securities.

SECTION 4.04 Limitation on Subsidiary Debt and Preferred Stock. The Company shall not permit any Subsidiary to issue, directly or indirectly, any Debt or Preferred Stock except:

(1) any Subsidiary Guarantee and any Bank Obligation;

(2) Debt or Preferred Stock issued to and held by the Company or a Wholly Owned Subsidiary; provided, however, that (i) any subsequent issuance or transfer of any Capital Stock which results in any such Wholly Owned Subsidiary ceasing to be a Wholly Owned Subsidiary, or (ii) any subsequent transfer of such Debt or Preferred Stock (other than to the Company or a Wholly Owned Subsidiary) shall be deemed, in each case, to constitute the issuance of such Debt or Preferred Stock by the issuer thereof;

(3) Debt or Preferred Stock of a Subsidiary issued and outstanding on or prior to the date on which such Subsidiary was acquired by the Company (other than Debt or Preferred Stock issued as consideration in, or to provide all or any portion of the funds or credit support utilized to consummate, the transaction or series of related transactions pursuant to which such Subsidiary became a Subsidiary or was acquired by the Company); provided, however, that the aggregate principal amount or liquidation value of such Debt and Preferred Stock permitted by this clause (3) outstanding at any one time shall not exceed $10.0 million;

(4) Debt or Preferred Stock (other than Debt or Preferred Stock described in clauses (1) through (3) above) outstanding on the date of this Indenture; and

(5) Debt or Preferred Stock issued in exchange for, or the proceeds of which are used to refinance, Debt or Preferred Stock referred to in the foregoing clause (3) or (4); provided, however, that

(i) the principal amount or liquidation value of such Debt or Preferred Stock so issued shall not exceed the principal amount or liquidation value of the Debt or Preferred Stock so exchanged, refunded or refinanced and (ii) the Debt or Preferred Stock so issued (A) shall have a Stated Maturity later than the Stated Maturity of the Debt or Preferred Stock so exchanged, refunded or refinanced and (B) shall have an Average Life equal to or greater than the remaining Average Life of the Debt or Preferred Stock so exchanged, refunded or refinanced.

SECTION 4.05 Limitation on Liens. The Company shall not, and shall not permit any Subsidiary to, create or permit to exist any Lien upon any of its property or assets, now owned or hereafter acquired, securing any obligation unless concurrently with the creation of such Lien effective provision is made to secure the Securities equally and ratably with such obligation for so long as such obligation is so secured; provided, however, that if such obligation is a

Subordinated Obligation, the Lien securing such obligation shall be subordinated and junior to the Lien securing the Securities with the same or lesser relative priority as such Subordinated Obligation shall have with respect to the Securities. The preceding restriction shall not require the Company or any Subsidiary to equally and ratably secure the Securities if the Lien consists of the following:

(1) Liens created by the Indenture and Liens existing as of the date on which the Securities were originally issued;

(2) Permitted Liens;

(3) Liens to secure Debt issued by the Company for the purpose of financing all or a part of the purchase price of assets or property acquired or constructed in the ordinary course of business after the date on which the Securities were originally issued; provided, however, that (i) the aggregate principal amount (or accreted value in the case of Debt issued at a discount) of Debt so issued shall not exceed the lesser of cost or Fair Market Value, as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors of the Company, of the assets or property so acquired or constructed, (ii) the Debt secured by such Liens shall have been permitted to be issued under Section 4.03(b)(6) and (iii) such Liens shall not encumber any other assets or property of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries other than such assets or property or any improvement on such assets or property and shall attach to such assets or property within 90 days of the construction or acquisition of such assets or property;

(4) Liens on the assets or property of a Subsidiary existing at the time such Subsidiary became a Subsidiary and not issued as a result of (or in connection with or in anticipation of) such Subsidiary becoming a Subsidiary; provided, however, that (i) the Debt secured by such Liens shall have been permitted to be issued under clause (3) of Section 4.04 above and (ii) such Liens do not extend to or cover any other property or assets of the Company or any of its other Subsidiaries;

(5) Liens on the assets of the Company or any Subsidiary that is a guarantor thereof or which acts as a co-borrower thereunder securing Debt under the Bank Revolver or other revolving credit agreement permitted under Section 4.03(b)(1) above;

(6) Liens securing industrial revenue or pollution control bonds issued by the Company; provided, however, that (i) the aggregate principal amount of Debt secured by such Liens shall not exceed the lesser of cost or Fair Market Value, as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors of the Company, of the assets or property so financed, (ii) the Debt secured by such Liens shall have been permitted to be issued under clause (5) of Section 4.03 above, and (iii) such Liens do not extend to or cover any other property or assets of the Company; or

(7) Liens securing Debt issued to refinance Debt which has been secured by a Lien permitted under this Indenture and is permitted to be refinanced under this Indenture; provided, however, that such Liens do not extend to or cover any property or assets of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries not securing the Debt so refinanced, and the principal amount (or accreted value) of the Debt so secured is not increased except as otherwise permitted pursuant to this Indenture.

SECTION 4.06 Limitation on Sale/Leaseback Transactions. The Company shall not, and shall not permit any Subsidiary to, enter into, Guarantee or otherwise become liable with respect to any Sale/Leaseback Transaction unless at least one of the following conditions is satisfied:

(1) The Company or such Subsidiary, pursuant to Sections 4.05(2) through (7) could create a Lien on the property to secure Debt in an amount at least equal to the Attributable Debt in respect of such Sale/Leaseback Transaction and the Company or such Subsidiary, as the case may be, receives consideration at least equal to the Fair Market Value, as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors of the Company, of the property transferred; or

(2) the Sale/Leaseback Transaction is treated as an Asset Disposition and all the conditions of Section 4.10 are satisfied with respect to such Sale/Leaseback Transaction (without giving effect to the exceptions for Net Available Cash, as set forth in Section 4.10(a)).

SECTION 4.07 Limitation on Restricted Payments.

(a) The Company shall not, and shall not permit any Subsidiary, directly or indirectly, to (i) declare or pay any dividend or make any distribution on or in respect of its Capital Stock (including any payment in connection with any merger or consolidation involving the Company) or to the direct or indirect holders of its Capital Stock (except dividends or distributions payable solely in its Non-Convertible Capital Stock or in options, warrants or other rights to purchase its Non-Convertible Capital Stock and except dividends or distributions payable to the Company or a Wholly Owned Subsidiary), (ii) purchase, redeem or otherwise acquire or retire for value any of its Capital Stock (except Capital Stock of a Wholly Owned Subsidiary), (iii) purchase, repurchase, redeem, defease or otherwise acquire or retire for value, prior to scheduled maturity, scheduled repayment or scheduled sinking fund payment, any Subordinated Obligations (other than the purchase, repurchase or other acquisition of Subordinated Obligations purchased in anticipation of satisfying a sinking fund obligation, principal installment or final maturity, in each case due within one year of the date of acquisition) or (iv) make any Investment other than Permitted Investments (any such dividend, distribution, purchase, redemption, repurchase, defeasance, other acquisition, retirement or Investment being herein referred to as a "Restricted Payment"), if at the time the Company or such Subsidiary makes such Restricted Payment:

(1) a Default shall have occurred and be continuing (or would result therefrom); or

(2) upon giving effect to such Restricted Payment, the Company is not able to incur an additional $1.00 of Debt pursuant to the Consolidated EBITDA Coverage Ratio as set forth in Section 4.03(a); or

(3) upon giving effect to such Restricted Payment, the aggregate amount of such Restricted Payment and all other Restricted Payments since the date on which the Securities were originally issued would exceed the sum of:

(a) 50% of the Consolidated Net Income accrued during the period (treated as one accounting period) from the first day of the first month of the fiscal quarter in which Securities were originally issued through the last full fiscal quarter for which quarterly or annual financial statements are available prior to the date of such Restricted Payment (or, in case such Consolidated Net Income shall be a deficit, minus 100% of such deficit); provided, however, that if a Public Offering as described in Section 4.08

below has been consummated, Consolidated Net Income for the purposes of this clause (iv) (3) (a) shall be reduced by an amount equal to the net income of CHTC from the date of the original issuance of the Securities to the date of the closing of the Public Offering;

(b) the aggregate Net Cash Proceeds received by the Company from the issue or sale of its Capital Stock (other than Redeemable Stock or Exchangeable Stock) subsequent to the date on which the Securities were originally issued (other than an issuance or sale to a Subsidiary or an employee stock ownership plan or similar trust);

(c) the aggregate Net Cash Proceeds received by the Company from the issue or sale of its Capital Stock (other than Redeemable Stock or Exchangeable Stock) to an employee stock ownership plan subsequent to the date on which the Securities were originally issued, but (if such employee stock ownership plan incurs any Debt) only to the extent that any such proceeds are equal to any increase in the Consolidated Net Worth of the Company resulting from principal repayments made by such employee stock ownership plan with respect to indebtedness incurred by it to finance the purchase of such Capital Stock; and

(d) the amount by which consolidated Debt of the Company is reduced on the Company's balance sheet upon the conversion or exchange (other than by a Subsidiary) subsequent to the date on which the Securities were originally issued, of any Debt of the Company convertible or exchangeable for Capital Stock (other than Redeemable Stock or Exchangeable Stock) of the Company (less the amount of any cash, or other property, distributed by the Company upon such conversion or exchange).

(b) So long as no Default shall have occurred and be continuing (or would result therefrom) the provisions of Section 4.07(a) shall not prohibit:

(i) any purchase or redemption of Capital Stock or Subordinated Obligations of the Company made by exchange for, or out of the proceeds of the substantially concurrent sale of, Capital Stock of the Company (other than Redeemable Stock or Exchangeable Stock and other than Capital Stock issued or sold to a Subsidiary or an employee stock ownership plan); provided, however, that (A) such purchase or redemption shall be excluded in the calculation of the amount of Restricted Payments and (B) the Net Cash Proceeds from such sale shall be excluded from clauses (3) (b) and (3) (c) of Section 4.07(a);

(ii) any purchase or redemption of Subordinated Obligations of the Company made by exchange for, or out of the proceeds of the substantially concurrent sale of, Debt of the Company other than to a Subsidiary; provided, however, that such Debt (A) shall be subordinated to the Securities to at least the same extent as the Subordinated Obligations so exchanged, purchased or redeemed, (B) shall have a Stated Maturity later than the Stated Maturity of the Securities and (C) shall have an Average Life greater than the remaining Average Life of the Securities; provided further, however, that such purchase or redemption shall be excluded in the calculation of the amount of Restricted Payments;

(iii) any purchase or redemption of Subordinated Obligations from Net Available Cash to the extent permitted by Section 4.10; provided, however, that such purchase or redemption shall be excluded in the calculation of the amount of Restricted Payments; or

(iv) dividends paid within 60 days after the date of declaration thereof if at such date of declaration such dividend would have complied with this Section; provided, however, that at the time of payment of such dividend, no other Default shall have occurred and be continuing (or result therefrom); provided further, however, that such

SECTION 4.08 Limitation on Issuance and Sale of Capital Stock of Subsidiaries. The Company shall not permit any Subsidiary to issue or sell any Capital Stock to any person, or permit any person in either case, other than the Company and its Wholly Owned Subsidiaries, to own or hold an interest, other than any Lien permitted by Section 4.05 or any interest or right to receive any interest owned or held on the date on which the Securities were originally issued by a person other than the Company and its Wholly Owned Subsidiaries, in any Capital Stock of any Subsidiary; provided, however, that the foregoing limitation shall not apply to (i) the sale of all but not less than all of the Capital Stock of any Subsidiary made in accordance with Section 4.10 hereof, and (ii) the issuance and sale of Capital Stock of Clean Harbors Technology Corporation ("CHTC") pursuant to one or more firm commitment underwritten public offerings by CHTC (each a "Public Offering"); provided, however, that (1)

following each Public Offering the Company shall continue to own at least 75% of the outstanding Capital Stock of CHTC, (2) the net proceeds from each Public Offering shall be invested by CHTC in the business of CHTC, (3) CHTC may not within 18 months after the closing of the Public Offering (A) declare or pay any dividend or make any distribution on or in respect of its Capital Stock (including any payment in connection with any merger or consolidation involving CHTC) or to the direct or indirect holders of its Capital Stock (except dividends or distributions payable solely in its Non-Convertible Capital Stock or in options, warrants or other rights to purchase its Non-Convertible Capital Stock) or (B) purchase, redeem or otherwise acquire or retire for value any Capital Stock of CHTC, and (4) as of the date of commencement of each Public Offering the Adjusted EBITDA for the period of the most recently completed four fiscal quarters of the Company ending at least 45 days prior to such date exceeds 95% of EBITDA for such period, provided, however, that (A) if the Company or any Subsidiary has issued any Debt since the beginning of such period that remains outstanding, EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA for such period shall be calculated after giving effect on a pro forma basis to such Debt as if such Debt had been issued on the first day of such period and the discharge of any other Debt refinanced, refunded, exchanged or otherwise discharged with the proceeds of such new Debt as if any such discharge had occurred on the first day of such period, (B) if since the beginning of such period the Company or any Subsidiary shall have made any Asset

Disposition, EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA for such period shall be reduced by an amount equal to the EBITDA (if positive) directly attributable to the assets which are the subject of such Asset Disposition for such period, or increased by an amount equal to the EBITDA (if negative) directly attributable thereto for such period, and (C) if since the beginning of such period the Company or any Subsidiary (by merger or otherwise) shall have made an Investment in any Subsidiary (or any person which becomes a Subsidiary) or an acquisition of assets, including any acquisition of assets occurring in connection with a transaction causing a calculation to be made hereunder, which constitutes all of an operating unit of a business, EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA for such period shall be calculated after giving pro forma effect thereto (including the issuance of any Debt), as if such Investment or acquisition occurred on the first day of such period. For purposes of this calculation, whenever pro forma effect is to be given to an acquisition of assets, the amount of income or earnings relating thereto, and the amount of Consolidated Interest Expense associated with any Debt issued in connection therewith, the pro forma calculations shall be determined in good faith by a responsible financial or accounting Officer of the Company. If any Debt bears a floating rate of interest and is being given pro forma effect, the interest on such Debt shall be calculated as if the rate in effect on the date of determination had been the applicable rate for the entire period.

SECTION 4.09 Limitation on Restrictions on Distributions from

create or otherwise cause or permit to exist or become effective any consensual encumbrance or restriction on the ability of any Subsidiary to (i) pay dividends or make any other distributions on its Capital Stock or pay any Debt or other obligation owed to the Company or any Subsidiary, (ii) make any loans or advances to the Company or any Subsidiary, or (iii) transfer any of its property or assets to the Company or any Subsidiary. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company may, and may permit any Subsidiary to, suffer to exist:

(1) any encumbrance or restriction pursuant to an agreement in effect at or entered into on or prior to the date on which the Securities were originally issued;

(2) any encumbrance or restriction with respect to a Subsidiary pursuant to an agreement relating to any Debt issued by such Subsidiary on or prior to the date on which such Subsidiary became a Subsidiary of the Company (other than Debt issued as consideration in, or to provide all or any portion of the funds utilized to consummate, the transaction or series of related transactions pursuant to which such Subsidiary became a Subsidiary or was acquired by the Company) and outstanding on such date;

(3) any encumbrance or restriction pursuant to an agreement effecting a refinancing or extension of Debt issued pursuant to an agreement referred to in clause (1) or (2) of this Section or contained in any amendment to an agreement referred to in clause (1) or (2) of this Section; provided, however, that the encumbrances and restrictions contained in any such refinancing or extension agreement or amendment are not materially less favorable to the Securityholders than encumbrances and restrictions contained in such agreements referred to in clause (1) or (2) above;

(4) any encumbrance or restriction consisting of customary nonassignment provisions in leases governing leasehold interests to the extent such provisions restrict the transfer of the lease;

(5) in the case of clause (iii) above, restrictions contained in security agreements securing Debt of a Subsidiary otherwise permitted by this Indenture to the extent such restrictions restrict the transfer of the property subject to such security agreements; and

(6) restrictions imposed pursuant to clause (ii) of Section 4.08 above.

SECTION 4.10 Limitation on Sales of Assets and Subsidiary Stock.

(a) The Company shall not, and shall not permit any Subsidiary to, make any Asset Disposition unless: (i) the Company or such Subsidiary receives consideration at the time of such Asset Disposition at least equal to the Fair Market Value, as determined in good faith, with or without independent appraisal, by the Board of Directors of the Company (including as to the value of all non-cash consideration), of the shares and assets subject to such Asset Disposition and at least 85% of the consideration thereof received by the Company or such Subsidiary is in the form of cash or Cash Equivalents; and (ii) an amount equal to 100% of the Net Available Cash from such Asset Disposition is applied by the Company (or such Subsidiary, as the case may be) (A) first, to the extent the Company is required by the terms of any Debt to prepay, repay or purchase Debt (other than any Redeemable Stock) of the Company, such Subsidiary or any Wholly Owned Subsidiary (in each case other than Debt owed to the Company or an Affiliate of the Company) within 60 days from the later of the date of such Asset Disposition or the receipt of such Net Available Cash; (B) second, to the extent of the balance of such Net Available Cash after application in accordance with clause (A), at the Company's election to the investment by the Company, such Subsidiary or any Wholly Owned Subsidiary in assets to replace the assets that were the subject of such Asset Disposition or in assets that (as determined by the Board of Directors) will be used in the businesses of the Company and its Wholly Owned Subsidiaries existing on the date on which the Securities were originally issued or in businesses reasonably related thereto, in all cases within the later of one year from the date of such Asset Disposition or the receipt of such Net Available Cash; (C) third, to the extent of the balance of such Net

Available Cash after application in accordance with clauses (A) and (B) above, to make an offer pursuant to and subject to this Indenture, to the holders of the Securities to purchase Securities at a purchase price of 100% of the principal amount thereof plus accrued and unpaid interest; and (D) fourth, to the extent of the balance of such Net Available Cash after application in accordance with clauses (A), (B) and (C) above, to the prepayment, repayment or purchase of Debt (other than any Redeemable Stock) of the Company (other than Debt owed to an Affiliate of the Company) or Debt of any Subsidiary (other than Debt owed to the Company or an Affiliate of the Company), in each case within one year from the later of the receipt of such Net Available Cash and, if applicable, the date the offer described in the next paragraph below is consummated; provided, however, that in connection with any prepayment, repayment or purchase of Debt pursuant to clause (A) or clause (D) above, the Company shall cause the related loan commitment (if any) to be permanently reduced in an amount equal to the principal amount so prepaid, repaid or purchased; and provided, further, however, that in connection with an offer pursuant to clause (C) above, if the principal amount of such Securities, together with accrued and unpaid interest, tendered for acceptance pursuant to such offer exceeds the balance of Net Available Cash, then the Company will accept for purchase the Securities of each such tendering holder on a pro rata basis in accordance with the principal amount so tendered.

Notwithstanding the provisions of clause (ii) above, in the event that the Net Available Cash resulting from any Asset Disposition is less than $2.5 million, the application of an amount equal to such Net Available Cash in accordance with such clause (ii) may be deferred until such time as such Net Available Cash from any prior or subsequent Asset Dispositions not otherwise applied in accordance with such clause (ii), is at least equal to $2.5 million. In the event that the Net Available Cash resulting from any Asset Disposition, after giving effect to clauses (A) and (B) above, is less than $2.5 million, the application of such amount equal to such Net Available Cash to make an offer to purchase Securities in accordance with clause (C) above may be deferred until such time as such Net Available Cash, together with Net Available Cash from any prior or subsequent Asset Dispositions not otherwise applied in accordance with this provision, is at least equal to $2.5 million. Pending application of Net Available Cash pursuant to this Section 4.10, such Net Available Cash shall be invested in Cash Equivalents. To the extent any portion of the amount of Net Available Cash remains after compliance with this Section 4.10 and provided that all holders of Securities have been given the opportunity to tender their Securities for repurchase as provided in subsection (a)(ii)(C) above, the Company may use such remaining amount for general corporate purposes.

(b) In the event of an Asset Disposition that requires the purchase of Securities pursuant to Section 4.10(a)(ii)(C), the Company will be required to purchase Securities tendered pursuant to an offer by the Company for the Securities (the "Offer") at a purchase price set forth in Section 4.10(a) in accordance with the procedures (including prorationing in the event of oversubscription) set forth in Section 4.10(c).

(c) (1) Promptly, and in any event within 5 days after the date by which the Company must have applied Net Available Cash pursuant to Section 4.10(a)(ii)(B), the Company shall be obligated to deliver to the Trustee and send, by first-class mail to each Holder, a written notice stating that the Holder may elect to have his Securities purchased by the Company either in whole or in part (subject to prorationing as hereinafter described in the event the Offer is oversubscribed) in integral multiples of $1,000 of principal amount, at the applicable purchase price. The notice shall specify a purchase date not less than 30 days nor more than 60 days after the date of such notice (the "Purchase Date") and shall contain information concerning the business of the Company which the Company in good faith believes will enable such Holders to make an informed decision (which at a minimum will include (i) the most recently filed Annual Report on Form 10-K (including audited consolidated financial statements) of the Company, the most recent subsequently filed Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q and any Current Report on Form 8-K of the Company filed subsequent to such Quarterly Report, other than Current Reports describing Asset Dispositions otherwise described in the offering materials (or corresponding successor reports), (ii) a description of material developments in the Company's business subsequent to the date of the latest of such Reports, and (iii) if material, appropriate pro forma financial information and all instructions and materials necessary to tender Securities pursuant to the Offer, together with the information contained in subsection (c)(3) below.

(2) Not later than the date upon which written notice of an Offer is delivered to the Trustee as provided in subsection (c)(1) above, the Company shall deliver to the Trustee an Officers' Certificate as to (i) the amount of the Offer (the "Offer Amount"), (ii) the allocation of the Net Available Cash from the Asset Dispositions pursuant to which such Offer is being made and (iii) the compliance of such allocation with the provisions of Section 4.10. On such date, the Company shall irrevocably deposit with the Trustee or with a paying agent (or, if the Company or a Subsidiary is acting as its own paying agent, segregate and hold in trust) in immediately available funds an amount equal to the Offer Amount to be held for payment in accordance with the provisions of this Section 4.10. The amount so deposited, at the option of, and pursuant to the specific written direction of, the Company, may be invested in Cash Equivalents the maturity date of which is not later than the Purchase Date. The Company shall be entitled to any interest or dividends accrued, earned or paid on such Cash Equivalents. Upon the expiration of the period for which the Offer remains open (the "Offer Period"), the Company shall deliver to the Trustee the Securities or portions thereof which have been properly tendered to and are to be accepted by the Company. The Trustee shall, on the Purchase Date, mail or deliver payment to each tendering Holder in the amount of the purchase price. In the event that the aggregate purchase price of the Securities delivered by the Company to the Trustee is less than the Offer Amount, the Trustee shall deliver the excess to the Company immediately after the expiration of the Offer Period.

(3) Holders electing to have a Security purchased will be required to surrender the Security, with an appropriate form duly completed, to the Company at the address specified in the notice at least 10 Business Days prior to the Purchase Date. Holders will be entitled to withdraw their election if the Trustee or the Company receives not later than three Business Days prior to the Purchase Date, a telegram, telex, facsimile transmission or letter setting forth the name of the Holder, the principal amount of the Security which was delivered for purchase by the Holder and a statement that such Holder is withdrawing its election to have such Security purchased. If at the expiration of the Offer Period the purchase price of Securities surrendered by Holders exceeds the Offer Amount, the Company shall select the Securities and such other Senior Subordinated Debt to be purchased on a pro rata basis (with such adjustments as may be deemed appropriate by the Company so that only Securities in denominations of $1,000, or integral multiples thereof, shall be purchased). Holders whose Securities are purchased only in part will be issued new Securities equal in principal amount to the unpurchased portion of the Securities surrendered. The Company shall promptly execute, and the Guarantor

Subsidiaries shall promptly execute their Subsidiary Guarantees to be endorsed thereon and thereafter the Trustee shall promptly authenticate and mail or deliver to such Holders a new Security equal in principal amount to any unpurchased portion of the Security surrendered. Any Security not accepted for payment shall be promptly mailed or delivered by the Company to the Holder thereof. The Company shall publicly announce the results of the Offer on or as soon as practicable after the Purchase Date.

(4) At the time the Company delivers Securities to the Trustee which are to be accepted for purchase, the Company will also deliver an Officers' Certificate stating that such Securities are to be accepted by the Company pursuant to and in accordance with the terms of this Section. A Security shall be deemed to have been accepted for purchase at the time the Trustee, directly or through an agent, mails or delivers payment therefor to the surrendering Holder.

(d) The Company shall comply, to the extent applicable, with the requirements of Section 14(e) of the Exchange Act and any other securities laws or regulations in connection with the repurchase of Securities pursuant to this Section. To the extent that the provisions of any securities laws or regulations conflict with provisions of this Indenture, the Company shall comply with the applicable securities laws and regulations and shall not be deemed to have breached its obligations under this Indenture by virtue thereof.

SECTION 4.11 Limitation on Transactions with Affiliates. The Company shall not, and shall not permit any Subsidiary to, conduct any business or enter into any transaction or series of similar transactions (including the purchase, sale, lease or exchange of any property or the rendering of any service) with any Affiliate of the Company or any legal or beneficial owner of 5% or more of any class of Capital Stock of the Company or with any Affiliate of any such owner (other than (i) a Wholly Owned Subsidiary or (ii) an employee stock ownership plan for the benefit of the Company's or a Subsidiary's employees), unless the terms of such business, transaction or series of transactions are (A) set forth in writing, (B) as favorable to the Company or such Subsidiary as terms that would be obtainable at the time for a comparable transaction or series of similar transactions in arm's-length dealings with an unrelated third person and (C) if such business or transaction or series of transactions involves in excess of $1.0 million, (x) the Board of Directors of the Company has, by resolution approved by a majority of the disinterested directors, determined in good faith that such business or transaction or series of transactions meets the criteria set forth in clause (B) above, and (y) the Company has obtained an opinion of a nationally recognized expert with experience in appraising the terms and conditions of the type of business or transaction or series of transactions stating that such business or transaction or series of transactions is fair (from a financial point of view) to the Company or such Subsidiary, as the case may be. This Section, however, will not prohibit (1) any transactions between the Company or a Subsidiary and its own employee stock ownership plan, (2) Restricted Payments permitted under Section 4.07 or (3) management compensation arrangements approved by the disinterested members of the Board of Directors.

SECTION 4.12 Lines of Business. The Company shall not, and shall not permit any of its Subsidiaries to, enter into any business, either directly or through any Subsidiary, except for those businesses in which the Company and its Subsidiaries were engaged on the date on which the Securities were originally issued or businesses reasonably related thereto.

SECTION 4.13 Compliance Certificate.

(a) The Company and the Guarantor Subsidiaries shall deliver to the Trustee, within 120 days after the end of each fiscal year, an Officers'

Certificate, one of the signers of which shall be the principal executive officer, principal financial officer or principal accounting officer, stating whether or not to the best knowledge of the signers thereof the Company or the Guarantor Subsidiaries, as the case may be, have fulfilled all their obligations hereunder, are not in default in the performance and observance of any of the terms, and if the Company or the Guarantor Subsidiaries, as the case may be, shall be in default, specifying all such defaults and the nature and status thereof of which they may have knowledge. For purposes of this Section 4.13, such compliance or default shall be determined without regard to any period of grace or requirement of notice provided under this Indenture.

(b) The Company and each Guarantor Subsidiary shall deliver to the Trustee, as soon as possible and in any event within 30 days after the Company or any Guarantor Subsidiary becomes aware or should reasonably become aware of the occurrence of an Event of Default or an event which, with notice or the lapse of time or both, would constitute an Event of Default, an Officers' Certificate setting forth the details of such Event of Default or default, and the action which the Company or any Guarantor Subsidiary proposes to take with respect thereto.

SECTION 4.14 Change of Control.

(a) Upon the occurrence of a Change of Control, each Holder shall have the right to require that the Company repurchase such Holder's Securities at a purchase price in cash equal to 101% of the principal amount thereof plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the date of repurchase, in accordance with the terms contemplated in this Section 4.14.

(b) Within 30 days following any Change of Control, the Company shall send by first-class mail, postage prepaid a notice to each Holder at his address appearing in the Security register, with a copy to the Trustee stating:

(1) that a Change of Control has occurred and that such Holder has the right to require the Company to purchase such Holder's Securities at a repurchase price in cash equal to 101% of the principal amount thereof plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the date of repurchase;

(2) the circumstances and relevant facts regarding such Change of Control (including information with respect to pro forma historical income, cash flow and capitalization after giving effect to such Change of Control);

(3) the repurchase date (the "Change of Control Payment Date") which shall be no earlier than 30 days nor later than 60 days from the date such notice is mailed; and

(4) the instructions determined by the Company, consistent with this Section, that a Holder must follow in order to have its Securities purchased.

(c) Holders electing to have a Security purchased will be required to surrender the Security, with an appropriate form duly completed, to the Company at the address specified in the notice at least three Business Days prior to the purchase date. Holders will be entitled to withdraw their election if the Trustee or the Company receives not later than three Business Days prior to the purchase date, a telegram, telex, facsimile transmission or letter setting forth the name of the Holder, the principal amount of the Securities which were delivered for repurchase by the Holder as to which its election is to be withdrawn and a statement that such Holder is withdrawing its election to have such Securities repurchased. Holders whose Securities are repurchased only in part will be issued new Securities equal in principal amount to the unpurchased portion of the Securities surrendered.

(d) On the Change in Control Payment Date, the Company shall (i) accept for payment Securities or portions thereof tendered pursuant to the Change in Control Offer, (ii) deposit with the Paying Agent money sufficient to pay the purchase price of all Securities or portions thereof so tendered, and (iii) deliver to the Trustee Securities so accepted together with an Officers' Certificate stating the Securities or portions thereof tendered to the Company. The Paying Agent shall promptly mail to the Holder of Securities so accepted payment in an amount equal to the purchase price, and the Trustee shall promptly authenticate and mail to such Holders a new Security equal in principal amount to any unpurchased portion of the Security surrendered.

(e) The Company shall comply, to the extent applicable, with the requirements of Section 14(e) of the Exchange Act and any other securities laws or regulations in connection with the repurchase of Securities pursuant to a Change of Control.

SECTION 4.15 Additional Subsidiary Guarantees. If the Company or any of its Subsidiaries shall, after the date of this Indenture, create or acquire any Subsidiary, then such newly created or acquired Subsidiary shall and the Company shall cause such Subsidiary to, promptly, but in no event later than 15 days following the date any Person shall become a Subsidiary, execute and deliver to the Trustee a supplemental indenture substantially in the form of Exhibit B hereof, pursuant to which such Subsidiary shall Guarantee all of the Obligations of the Company with respect to the Securities as provided in Article 10 hereof, together with an Opinion of Counsel, all as set forth in Section 10.04 hereof.

SECTION 4.16 Corporate Existence. Subject to Article 5 hereof, the Company will do or cause to be done all things necessary to preserve and keep in full force and effect the corporate existence, rights (charter and statutory), licenses and franchises of the Company and each Guarantor Subsidiary.

SECTION 4.17 Further Instruments and Acts. Upon request of the Trustee, the Company and each Guarantor Subsidiary will execute and deliver such further instruments and do such further acts as may be reasonably necessary or proper to carry out more effectively the purpose of this Indenture.

ARTICLE 5 - Successor Company -----

SECTION 5.01 When Company May Merge or Transfer Assets. The Company shall not consolidate with or merge with or into, or convey, transfer or lease all or substantially all its assets to, any person, unless:

(i) the resulting, surviving or transferee person (if not the Company) shall be a person organized and existing under the laws of the United States of America, any State thereof or the District of Columbia and such person shall expressly assume, by an indenture supplemental hereto, executed and delivered to the Trustee, in form satisfactory to the Trustee, all the obligations of the Company under the Securities and this Indenture;

(ii) immediately after giving effect to such transaction (and treating any Debt which becomes an obligation of the resulting, surviving or transferee person or any Subsidiary as a result of such transaction as having been issued by such person or such Subsidiary at the time of such transaction), no Default shall have occurred and be continuing;

(iii) immediately after giving effect to such transaction, on a pro forma basis, the resulting, surviving or transferee person would be able to issue at least an additional $1.00 of Debt pursuant to Section 4.03(a) hereof;

(iv) immediately after giving effect to such transaction, on a pro forma basis, the resulting, surviving or transferee person shall have Consolidated Net Worth in an amount which is not less than the Consolidated Net Worth of the Company immediately prior to such transaction; and

(v) the Company shall have delivered to the Trustee an Officers' Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, each stating that such consolidation, merger or transfer and such supplemental indenture (if any) comply with this Indenture.

The resulting, surviving or transferee person shall be the successor Company and shall succeed to, and be substituted for, and may exercise every right and power of, the Company under this Indenture, but the predecessor Company in the case of a conveyance, transfer or lease shall not be released from the obligation to pay the principal of and interest on the Securities.

ARTICLE 6 - Defaults and Remedies

SECTION 6.01 Events of Default. Wherever used herein, "Event of Default" means any one of the following events (whatever the reason for such Event of Default and whether it shall be voluntary or involuntary or be effected by operation of law or pursuant to any judgment, decree or order of any court or any order, rule or regulation of any administrative agency or governmental body):

(2) a default in the payment of principal of any Security when due at its Stated Maturity, upon redemption, upon acceleration or otherwise, or the failure to redeem or purchase the Securities when required pursuant to the Indenture or the Securities;

(3) the failure by the Company to comply with its obligations under Section 5.01 hereof, to make or consummate an Offer in accordance with the provisions of Section 4.10 hereof or to make or consummate a Change of Control Offer in accordance with the provisions of Section 4.14 hereof;

(4) the failure by the Company to observe or comply with any of the agreements in the Securities or this Indenture (other than those referred to in clauses (1), (2) or (3) above), which continues for 60 days after there has been given to the Company by the Trustee or to the Company and the Trustee by the Holders of at least 25% in principal amount of the then outstanding Securities a written notice specifying such failure;

(5) Debt of the Company or any Subsidiary is not paid within any applicable grace period after final maturity or is accelerated by the holders thereof because of a default and the total amount of such Debt unpaid or accelerated exceeds $5.0 million;

(6) any judgment or decree for the payment of money in excess of $5.0 million is rendered and entered against the Company or a Subsidiary and is not discharged and either (A) an enforcement proceeding has been commenced by any creditor upon such judgment or decree or (B) there is a period of 60 days following such judgment or decree during which such judgment or decree is not discharged, waived or the execution thereof stayed; or

(7) any Subsidiary Guarantee issued by any Guarantor Subsidiary ceases to be in full force and effect other than in accordance with its terms, or any Guarantor Subsidiary shall deny or disaffirm its obligations under its Subsidiary Guarantee; or

(8) the Company or any Subsidiary pursuant to or within the meaning of any Bankruptcy Law:

(A) commences a voluntary case;

(B) consents to the entry of an order for relief against it in an involuntary case;

39

(C) consents to the appointment of a Custodian of it or for any substantial part of its property;

(D) makes a general assignment for the benefit of its creditors; or

(E) admits in writing its inability to pay any debts as the same become due; or

(9) a court of competent jurisdiction enters an order or decree under any Bankruptcy Law that:

(A) is for relief against the Company or any Subsidiary in an involuntary case;

(B) appoints a Custodian of the Company or any Subsidiary or for all or any substantial part of its property; or

(C) orders the winding up or liquidation of the Company or any Subsidiary; and the order or decree remains unstayed and in effect for 60 days.

The term "Bankruptcy Law" means Title 11, United States Code, or any similar Federal or state law for the relief of debtors. The term "Custodian" means any receiver, trustee, assignee, liquidator, custodian or similar official under any Bankruptcy Law.

The Company shall deliver to the Trustee, within 30 days after the Company learns of the existence thereof, written notice in the form of an Officers' Certificate of any event which with the giving of notice and the lapse of time would become an Event of Default under clause (4), (5), (6) or (9) of this Section 6.01, its status and what action the Company is taking or proposes to take with respect thereto.

SECTION 6.02 Acceleration. If an Event of Default (other than an Event of Default specified in Section 6.01(8) or (9) with respect to the Company) occurs and is continuing, the Trustee by notice to the Company, or the Holders of at least 25% in principal amount of the Securities by notice to the Company and the Trustee, may declare the principal of and accrued interest on all the Securities to be due and payable. Upon such a declaration, such principal and interest shall be due and payable immediately. If an Event of Default specified in Section 6.01(8) or (9) with respect to the Company occurs, the principal of and interest on all the Securities shall ipso facto become and be immediately due and payable without any declaration or other act on the part of the Trustee or any Securityholders. The

Holders of a majority in principal amount of the Securities by notice to the Trustee may rescind an acceleration and its consequences if the rescission would not conflict with any judgment or decree and if all existing Events of Default have been cured or waived except nonpayment of principal or interest that has become due solely because of acceleration. No such rescission shall affect any subsequent Default or impair any right consequent thereto.

SECTION 6.03 Other Remedies. If an Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the Trustee may pursue any available remedy to collect the payment of principal of or interest on the Securities or to enforce the performance of any provisions of the Securities or this Indenture.

The Trustee may maintain a proceeding even if it does not possess any of the Securities or does not produce any of them in the proceeding. Any custodian, receiver, assignee, trustee, liquidator, or sequestrator (or other similar official) in any such proceeding is hereby authorized by each Holder to make such payments to the Trustee, and in the event that the Trustee shall consent to the making of such payments directly to the Holders, to pay to the Trustee any amount due to it for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee and any predecessor Trustee, their agents and counsel, and any other amounts due the Trustee or any predecessor Trustee under Section 7.07. A delay or omission by the Trustee or any Securityholder in exercising any right or remedy accruing upon an Event of Default shall not impair the right or remedy or constitute a waiver of or acquiescence in the Event of Default. No remedy is exclusive of any other remedy. All available remedies are cumulative.

SECTION 6.04 Waiver of Past Defaults. The Holders of a majority in principal amount of the Securities by notice to the Trustee may waive an existing Default or Event of Default and its consequences except (i) a Default or Event of Default in the payment of the principal of or interest on a Security or (ii) a Default or Event of Default in respect of a provision that under Section 9.02 cannot be amended without the consent of each Securityholder affected. When a Default is waived, it is deemed cured, but no such waiver shall extend to any subsequent or other Default or impair any consequent right.

SECTION 6.05 Control by Majority. The Holders of a majority in principal amount of the Securities may direct the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee or of exercising any trust or power conferred on the Trustee. However, the Trustee may refuse to follow any direction that conflicts with law or this Indenture or, subject to Section 7.01, that the Trustee determines is unduly prejudicial to the rights of other Securityholders or would involve the Trustee in personal liability; provided, however, that the Trustee may take any other action deemed proper by the Trustee that is not inconsistent with such direction. Prior to taking any action hereunder, the Trustee shall be entitled to indemnification satisfactory to it in its sole discretion against all losses and expenses caused by taking or not taking such action.

SECTION 6.06 Limitation on Suits. A Securityholder may not pursue any remedy with respect to this Indenture or the Securities unless:

(1) the Holder shall have previously given to the Trustee written notice stating that an Event of Default is continuing;

(2) the Holders of at least 25% in principal amount of the Securities make a written request to the Trustee to pursue the remedy;

(3) such Holder or Holders offer to the Trustee reasonable security or indemnity against any loss, liability or expense;

(4) the Trustee shall have failed to comply with the request within 60 days after receipt of the request and the offer of security or indemnity; and

(5) the Holders of a majority in principal amount of the Securities do not give the Trustee a direction inconsistent with the request during such 60-day period.

A Securityholder may not use this Indenture to prejudice the rights of another Securityholder or to obtain a preference or priority over another Securityholder.

SECTION 6.07 Rights of Holders to Receive Payment. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, the right of any Holder to receive payment of principal of, premium (if any) and interest on the Securities held by such Holder, on or after the respective due dates expressed in the Securities, or to bring suit for the enforcement of any such payment on or after such respective dates, shall not be impaired or affected without the consent of such Holder.

SECTION 6.08 Collection Suit by Trustee. If an Event of Default in payment of interest or principal specified in Section 6.01(1) or (2) occurs and is continuing, the Trustee may recover judgment in its own name and as trustee of an express trust against the Company for the whole amount of principal and interest remaining unpaid (together with interest on such unpaid interest to the extent lawful) and the amounts provided for in Section 7.07.

SECTION 6.09 Trustee May File Proofs of Claim. The Trustee may file such proofs of claim and other papers or documents as may be necessary or advisable in order to have the claims of the Trustee and the Securityholders allowed in any judicial proceedings relative to the Company, its creditors or its property and, unless prohibited by law or applicable regulations, may vote on behalf of the Holders in any election of a trustee in bankruptcy or other person performing similar functions, and any Custodian in any such judicial proceeding is hereby authorized by each Holder to make payments to the Trustee and, in the event that the Trustee shall consent to the making of such payments directly to the Holders, to pay to the Trustee any amount due it for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee, its agents and its counsel, and any other amounts due the Trustee under Section 7.07.

SECTION 6.10 Priorities. If the Trustee collects any money or property pursuant to this Article 6, it shall pay out the money or property in the following order:

FIRST: to the Trustee for amounts due under Section 7.07;

SECOND: to Securityholders for amounts due and unpaid on the Securities for principal and interest, ratably, without preference or priority of any kind, according to the amounts due and payable on the Securities for principal and interest, respectively; and THIRD: to the Company.

The Trustee may fix a record date and payment date for any payment to Securityholders pursuant to this Section. At least 15 days before such record date, the Company shall mail to each Securityholder and the Trustee a notice that states the record date, the payment date and amount to be paid.

SECTION 6.11 Undertaking for Costs. In any suit for the enforcement of any right or remedy under this Indenture or in any suit against the Trustee for any action taken or omitted by it as Trustee, a court in its discretion may require the filing by the party litigant in the suit of an undertaking to pay the costs of the suit, and the court in its discretion may assess reasonable costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, against any party litigant in the suit, having due regard to the merits and good faith of the claims or defenses made by the party litigant. This Section does not apply to a suit by the Trustee, a suit by a Holder pursuant to Section 6.07 or a suit by Holders of more than 50% in principal amount of the Securities.

SECTION 6.12 Waiver of Stay or Extension Laws. The Company (to the extent it may lawfully do so) shall not at any time insist upon, or plead, or in any manner whatsoever claim or take the benefit or advantage of, any stay or extension law wherever enacted, now or at any time hereafter in force, which may affect the covenants or the performance of this Indenture; and the Company (to the extent that it may lawfully do so) hereby expressly waives all benefit or advantage of any such law, and shall not hinder, delay or impede the execution of any power herein granted to the Trustee, but shall suffer and permit the execution of every such power as though no such law had been enacted.

ARTICLE 7 - Trustee

SECTION 7.01 Duties of Trustee.

(a) If an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Trustee shall exercise the rights and powers vested in it by this Indenture and use the same degree of care and skill in their exercise as a prudent person would exercise or use under the circumstances in the conduct of such person's own affairs.

(b) Except during the continuance of an Event of Default:

(1) the Trustee undertakes to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically set forth in this Indenture and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into this Indenture against the Trustee; and

(2) in the absence of bad faith on its part, the Trustee may conclusively rely, as to the truth of the statements and the correctness of the opinions expressed therein, upon certificates or opinions furnished to the Trustee and conforming to the requirements of this Indenture. However, the Trustee shall examine the certificates and opinions to determine whether or not they conform to the requirements of this Indenture.

(c) The Trustee may not be relieved from liability for its own negligent action, its own negligent failure to act or its own wilful misconduct, except that:

(1) this subsection (c) does not limit the effect of paragraph (b) of this Section;

(2) the Trustee shall not be liable for any error of judgment made in good faith by a Trust Officer unless it is proved that the Trustee was negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts; and

(3) the Trustee shall not be liable with respect to any action it takes or omits to take in good faith in accordance with a direction received by it pursuant to Section 6.05.

(d) Every provision of this Indenture that in any way relates to the Trustee is subject to paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of this Section 7.01.

(e) The Trustee shall not be liable for interest on any money received by it except as the Trustee may agree in writing with the Company.

(f) Money held in trust by the Trustee need not be segregated from other funds except to the extent required by law.

(g) No provision of this Indenture shall require the Trustee to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise incur financial liability in the performance of any of its duties hereunder or in the exercise of any of its rights or powers, if it shall have reasonable grounds to believe that repayment of such funds or adequate indemnity against such risk or liability is not reasonably assured to it.

(h) The Trustee shall not be bound to make any investigation into the facts or matters stated in any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, direction, consent, order, bond, debenture, note, coupon or other paper or document, but the Trustee, in its discretion, may make such further inquiry or investigation into such facts or matters as it may see fit, and, if the Trustee shall determine to make such further inquiry or investigation, it shall be entitled to examine the books, records and premises of the Company, personally or by agent or attorney.

SECTION 7.02 Rights of Trustee.

(a) The Trustee may rely on any document believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper person. The Trustee need not investigate any fact or matter stated in the document.

(b) Before the Trustee acts or refrains from acting, it may require an Officers' Certificate or an Opinion of Counsel. The Trustee shall not be liable for any action it takes or omits to take in good faith in reliance on the Officers' Certificate or Opinion of Counsel.

(c) The Trustee may act through agents and shall not be responsible for the misconduct or negligence of any agent appointed with due care.

(d) The Trustee shall not be liable for any action it takes or omits to take in good faith which it believes to be authorized or within its rights or powers; provided, however, that the Trustee's conduct does not constitute wilful misconduct, negligence or bad faith.

(e) The Trustee may consult with counsel, and the advice or opinion of counsel with respect to legal matters relating to this Indenture and the Securities shall be full and complete authorization and protection from liability in respect to any action taken, omitted or suffered by it hereunder in good faith and in accordance with the advice or opinion of such counsel.

SECTION 7.03 Individual Rights of Trustee. The Trustee in its individual or any other capacity may become the owner or pledgee of Securities and may otherwise deal with the Company or its Affiliates with the same rights it would have if it were not Trustee. Any Paying Agent, Registrar, co-registrar or co-paying agent may do the same with like rights. However, the Trustee must comply with Sections 7.10 and 7.11.

SECTION 7.04 Trustee's Disclaimer. The Trustee shall not be responsible for and makes no representation as to the validity or adequacy of this Indenture or the Securities, it shall not be accountable for the Company's use of the proceeds from the Securities, and it shall not be responsible for any statement of the Company in the Indenture or in any prospectus, registration statement or other document issued in connection with the sale of the Securities or in the Securities other than the Trustee's certificate of authentication.

SECTION 7.05 Notice of Defaults. If a Default occurs and is continuing and if it is known to the Trustee, the Trustee shall mail to each Securityholder and to the Company notice of the Default within 90 days after it occurs. Except in the case of a Default in payment of principal of or interest on any Security, the Trustee may withhold the notice if and so long as a committee of its Trust Officers in good faith determines that withholding the notice is in the interest of Securityholders.

SECTION 7.06 Reports by Trustee to Holders. As promptly as practicable after each February 15 beginning with February 15 following the date of this Indenture, and in any event prior to April 15 in each year, the Trustee shall mail to each Securityholder a brief report dated as of such February 15 that complies with TIA (S)313(a). The Trustee also shall comply with TIA (S)313(b).

A copy of each report at the time of its mailing to Securityholders shall be filed with the SEC and each stock exchange (if any) on which the Securities are listed. The Company agrees to notify promptly the Trustee whenever the Securities become listed on any stock exchange and of any delisting thereof.

SECTION 7.07 Compensation and Indemnity. The Company shall pay to the

 Trustee from time to time reasonable compensation for its services. The Trustee's compensation shall not be limited by any law on compensation of a trustee of an express trust. The Company shall reimburse the Trustee upon request for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred or made by it, including costs of collection, in addition to the compensation for its services. Such expenses shall include the reasonable compensation and expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee's agents, counsel, accountants and experts. The Company shall indemnify the Trustee against any and all loss, liability or reasonable expense (including attorneys' fees) incurred by it in connection with the administration of this trust and the performance of its duties hereunder. The Trustee shall notify the Company promptly of any claim for which it may seek indemnity. Failure by the Trustee to so notify the Company shall not relieve the Company of its obligations hereunder. The Company shall defend the claim and the Trustee may have separate counsel and the Company shall pay the fees and expenses of such counsel. The Company need not reimburse any expense or indemnify against any loss, liability or expense incurred by the Trustee through the Trustee's own wilful misconduct, negligence or bad faith.

To secure the Company's payment obligations in this Section, the Trustee shall have a Lien prior to the Securities on all money or property held or collected by the Trustee other than money or property held in trust to pay principal of and interest on particular Securities.

The Company's payment obligations pursuant to this Section shall survive the discharge of this Indenture. When the Trustee incurs expenses (including the reasonable charges and expenses of its counsel) after the occurrence of a Default specified in Section 6.01(8) or (9) with respect to the Company, the expenses are intended to constitute expenses of administration under the Bankruptcy Law.

SECTION 7.08 Replacement of Trustee. The Trustee may resign at any time by so notifying the Company. The Holders of a majority in principal amount of the Securities may remove the Trustee by so notifying the Trustee and may appoint a successor Trustee. The Company shall remove the Trustee if:

- (1) the Trustee fails to comply with Section 7.10;
- (2) the Trustee is adjudged bankrupt or insolvent;
- (3) a receiver or other public officer takes charge of the Trustee or its property; or
- (4) the Trustee otherwise becomes incapable of acting.

If the Trustee resigns or is removed or if a vacancy exists in the office of Trustee for any reason (the Trustee in such event being referred to herein as the retiring Trustee), the Company shall promptly appoint a successor Trustee.

A successor Trustee shall deliver a written acceptance of its appointment to the retiring Trustee and to the Company. Thereupon the resignation or removal of the retiring Trustee shall become effective, and the successor Trustee shall have all the rights, powers and duties of the Trustee under this Indenture. The successor Trustee shall mail a notice of its succession to Securityholders. The retiring Trustee shall promptly transfer all property held by it as Trustee to the successor Trustee, subject to the Lien provided for in Section 7.07.

If a successor Trustee does not take office within 60 days after the retiring Trustee resigns or is removed, the retiring Trustee, the Company or the Holders of a majority in principal amount of the Securities may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee.

If the Trustee fails to comply with Section 7.10, any Securityholder may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the removal of the Trustee and the appointment of a successor Trustee.

Notwithstanding the replacement of the Trustee pursuant to this Section, the Company's obligations under Section 7.07 shall continue for the benefit of the retiring Trustee.

SECTION 7.09 Successor Trustee by Merger. If the Trustee consolidates with, merges or converts into, or transfers all or substantially all its corporate trust business or assets to another corporation or banking association, the resulting, surviving or transferee corporation without any further act shall be the successor Trustee.

In case at the time such successor or successors by merger, conversion or consolidation to the Trustee shall succeed to the trusts created by this Indenture any of the Securities shall have been authenticated but not delivered, any such successor to the Trustee may adopt the certificate of authentication of any predecessor Trustee, and deliver such Securities so authenticated; and in case at that time any of the Securities shall not have been authenticated, any successor to the Trustee may authenticate such Securities either in the name of any predecessor hereunder or in the name of the successor to the Trustee; and in all such cases such certificates shall have the full force which it is anywhere in the Securities or in this Indenture provided that the certificate of the Trustee shall have.

SECTION 7.10 Eligibility; Disqualification. The Trustee shall at all times satisfy the requirements of TIA (S)310(a). The Trustee shall have a combined capital and surplus of at least $50,000,000 as set forth in its most recent published annual report of condition. The Trustee shall comply with TIA (S)310(b), including the optional provision permitted by the second sentence of TIA (S)310(b)(9); provided, however, that there shall be excluded from the operation of TIA (S)310(b)(1) any indenture or indentures under which other securities or certificates of interest or participation in other securities of the Company are outstanding if the requirements for such exclusion set forth in TIA (S)310(b)(1) are met.

SECTION 7.11 Preferential Collection of Claims Against Company. The Trustee shall comply with TIA (S)311(a), excluding any creditor relationship listed in TIA (S)311(b). A Trustee who has resigned or been removed shall be subject to TIA (S)311(a) to the extent indicated.

ARTICLE 8 - Discharge of Indenture; Defeasance

SECTION 8.01 Discharge of Liability on Securities; Defeasance.

(a) When (i) the Company delivers to the Trustee all outstanding Securities (other than Securities replaced pursuant to Section 2.07) for cancellation or (ii) all outstanding Securities have become due and payable and the Company irrevocably deposits with the Trustee funds sufficient to pay at maturity all outstanding Securities, including interest thereon (other than Securities replaced pursuant to Section 2.07), and if in either case the Company pays all other sums payable hereunder by the Company, then this Indenture shall, subject to Sections 8.01(c) and 8.06, cease to be of further effect. The Trustee shall acknowledge satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture on demand of the Company accompanied by an Officers' Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel and at the cost and expense of the Company.

(b) Subject to Sections 8.01(c), 8.02 and 8.06, the Company at any time may terminate (i) all its obligations under the Securities and this Indenture ("legal defeasance option") or (ii) its obligations under Sections 4.02, 4.03, 4.04, 4.05, 4.06, 4.07, 4.08, 4.09 and 4.10 and the operation of Section 6.01(3) and Section 6.01(4) (with respect to the aforementioned Sections only) ("covenant defeasance option"). The Company may exercise its legal defeasance option notwithstanding its prior exercise of its covenant defeasance option.

If the Company exercises its legal defeasance option, payment of the Securities may not be accelerated because of an Event of Default. If the Company exercises its covenant defeasance option, payment of the Securities may not be accelerated because of an Event of Default specified in Section 6.01(3) or 6.01(4) (with respect to compliance with the aforementioned Sections).

Upon satisfaction of the conditions set forth herein and upon request of the Company, the Trustee shall acknowledge in writing the discharge of those obligations that the Company terminates.

(c) Notwithstanding clauses (a) and (b) above, the Company's obligations in Sections 2.03, 2.04, 2.05, 2.06, 2.07, 7.07, 7.08, 8.04, 8.05 and 8.06 shall survive until the Securities have been paid in full. Thereafter, the Company's obligations in Sections 7.07, 8.04 and 8.05 shall survive.

SECTION 8.02 Conditions to Defeasance. The Company may exercise its legal defeasance option or its covenant defeasance option only if:

(1) the Company irrevocably deposits in trust with the Trustee sufficient money or U.S. Government Obligations which, together with the payment of interest when due (and without reinvestment) to be received on such U.S. Government Obligations to the date of redemption or maturity of the Securities, as the case may be, will fully provide for the payment of principal, premium (if any) and interest on the Securities to maturity or redemption, as the case may be;

(2) the Company delivers to the Trustee a certificate from a nationally recognized firm of independent accountants expressing its opinion that the payments of principal and interest when due (and without reinvestment) to be received on the deposited U.S. Government Obligations plus any deposited money without investment will provide cash at such times and in such amounts (but, in the case of the legal defeasance option only, not more than such amounts) as will be sufficient to pay principal, premium (if any) and interest when due on all the Securities to maturity or redemption, as the case may be;

(3) 123 days pass after the deposit is made and during the 123-day period no Default specified in Section 6.01(8) or (9) with respect to the Company occurs which is continuing at the end of the period;

(4) no Default has occurred and is continuing on the date of such deposit and after giving effect thereto;

(5) the deposit does not constitute a default under any other agreement binding on the Company;

(6) the Company delivers to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that the trust resulting from the deposit does not constitute, or is qualified as, a regulated investment company under the Investment Company Act of 1940;

(7) in the case of the legal defeasance option, the Company shall have delivered to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel stating that (i) the Company has received from, or there has been published by, the Internal Revenue Service a ruling, or (ii) since the date of this Indenture there has been a change in the applicable Federal income tax law, in either case to the effect that, and based thereon such Opinion of Counsel shall confirm that, the Securityholders will not recognize income, gain or loss for Federal income tax purposes as a result of such defeasance and will be subject to Federal income tax on the same amounts, in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such deposit and defeasance had not occurred;

(8) in the case of the covenant defeasance option, the Company shall have delivered to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that the Securityholders will not recognize income, gain or loss for Federal income tax purposes as a result of such covenant defeasance and will be subject to Federal income tax on the same amounts, in the same manner and at the same time as would have been the case if such covenant defeasance had not occurred; and

(9) the Company delivers to the Trustee an Officers' Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, each stating that all conditions precedent to the defeasance and discharge of the Securities as contemplated by this Article 8 have been complied with.

Before or after a deposit, the Company may make arrangements satisfactory to the Trustee for the redemption of Securities at a future date in accordance with Article 3.

SECTION 8.03 Application of Trust Money. The Trustee shall hold in trust money or U.S. Government Obligations deposited with it pursuant to this Article 8. It shall apply the deposited money and the money from U.S. Government Obligations through the Paying Agent and in accordance with this Indenture to the payment of principal of and interest on the Securities.

SECTION 8.04 Repayment to Company. The Trustee and the Paying Agent shall promptly turn over to the Company upon request any excess money or securities held by them at any time.

Subject to any applicable abandoned property law, the Trustee and the Paying Agent shall pay to the Company upon request any money held by them for the payment of principal or interest that remains unclaimed for two years, and, thereafter, Securityholders entitled to the money must look to the Company for payment as general creditors.

SECTION 8.05 Indemnity for Government Obligations. The Company shall pay and shall indemnify the Trustee against any tax, fee or other charge imposed on or assessed against deposited U.S. Government Obligations or the principal and interest received on such U.S. Government Obligations.

SECTION 8.06 Reinstatement. If the Trustee or Paying Agent is unable to apply any money or U.S. Government Obligations in accordance with this Article 8 by reason of any legal proceeding or by reason of any order or judgment of any court or governmental authority enjoining, restraining or otherwise prohibiting such application, the Company's obligations under this Indenture and the Securities shall be revived and reinstated as though no deposit had occurred pursuant to this Article 8 until such time as the Trustee or Paying Agent is permitted to apply all such money or U.S. Government Obligations in accordance with this Article 8; provided, however, that, if the Company has made any payment of interest on or principal of any Securities because of the reinstatement of its obligations, the Company shall be subrogated to the rights of the Holders or such Securities to receive such payment from the money or U.S. Government Obligations held by the Trustee or Paying Agent.

ARTICLE 9 - Amendments

SECTION 9.01 Without Consent of Holders. The Company and the Trustee may amend this Indenture or the Securities without notice to or consent of any Securityholder:

- (1) to cure any ambiguity, omission, defect or inconsistency;
- (2) to comply with Article 5;

(3) to provide for uncertificated Securities in addition to or in place of certificated Securities; provided, however, that the uncertificated Securities are issued in registered form for purposes of Section 163(f) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or in a manner such that the uncertificated Securities are described in Section 163(f)(2)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended;

(4) to add Guarantees with respect to the Securities;

(5) to add to the covenants of the Company or the Guarantor Subsidiaries for the benefit of the Holders or to surrender any right or power herein conferred upon the Company;

(6) to reflect the release of any Guarantor Subsidiary from its Subsidiary Guarantee, or the addition of any Subsidiary of the Company as a Guarantor Subsidiary, in the manner provided by this Indenture;

(7) to comply with any requirements of the SEC in connection with qualifying this Indenture under the TIA; or

(8) to make any change that does not adversely affect the rights of any Securityholder.

After an amendment under this Section becomes effective, the Company shall mail to Securityholders a notice briefly describing such amendment. The failure to give such notice to all Securityholders, or any defect therein, shall not impair or affect the validity of an amendment under this Section.

SECTION 9.02 With Consent of Holders. The Company and the Trustee may amend this Indenture or the Securities without notice to any Securityholder but with the written consent of the Holders of a majority in principal amount of the then outstanding Securities. However, without the consent of each Securityholder affected, an amendment may not:

(1) reduce the amount of Securities whose Holders must consent to an amendment;

(2) reduce the rate of or extend the time for payment of interest on any Security;

(3) reduce the principal of or extend the Stated Maturity of any Security;

(4) reduce the premium payable upon the redemption of any Security or change the time at which any Security may be redeemed in accordance with Article 3;

(5) make any Security payable in money other than that stated in the Security;

(6) make any change in the provisions concerning waiver of Defaults by Holders of Securities or the rights of Holders to receive payments of principal and interest in Section 6.04 or 6.07 or the second sentence of this Section;

(7) make any change in Section 4.14 hereof or the definition "Change of Control";

(8) make any change adversely affecting the rights of any holder; or

(9) make any change in this Section 9.02.

It shall not be necessary for the consent of the Holders under this Section to approve the particular form of any proposed amendment, but it shall be sufficient if such consent approves the substance thereof.

After an amendment under this Section becomes effective, the Company shall mail to Securityholders a notice briefly describing such amendment. The

to all Securityholders, or any defect therein, shall not impair or affect the validity of an amendment under this Section.

SECTION 9.03 Compliance with Trust Indenture Act. Every amendment to this Indenture or the Securities shall comply with the TIA as then in effect.

SECTION 9.04 Revocation and Effect of Consents and Waivers. A consent to an amendment or a waiver by a Holder of a Security shall bind the Holder and every subsequent Holder of that Security or portion of the Security that evidences the same debt as the consenting Holder's Security, even if notation of the consent or waiver is not made on the Security. However, any such Holder or subsequent Holder may revoke the consent or waiver as to such Holder's Security or portion of the Security if the Trustee receives the notice of revocation before the date the amendment or waiver becomes effective. After an amendment or waiver becomes effective, it shall bind every Securityholder.

The Company may, but shall not be obligated to, fix a record date for the purpose of determining the Securityholders entitled to give their consent or take any other action described above or required or permitted to be taken pursuant to this Indenture. If a record date is fixed, then notwithstanding the immediately preceding paragraph, those persons who were Securityholders at such record date (or their duly designated proxies), and only those persons, shall be entitled to give such consent or to revoke any consent previously given or to take any such action, whether or not such persons continue to be the Holders after such record date. No such consent shall be valid or effective for more than 120 days after such record date.

SECTION 9.05 Notation on or Exchange of Securities. If an amendment changes the terms of a Security, the Trustee may require the Holder of the Security to deliver it to the Trustee. The Trustee may place an appropriate notation on the Security regarding the changed terms and return it to the Holder. Alternatively, if the Company or the Trustee so determines, the Company in exchange for the Security shall issue and the Trustee shall authenticate a new Security that reflects the changed terms. Failure to make the appropriate notation or to issue a new Security shall not affect the validity of such amendment.

SECTION 9.06 Trustee to Sign Amendments. The Trustee shall sign any amendment authorized pursuant to this Article 9 if the amendment does not adversely affect the rights, duties, liabilities or immunities of the Trustee. If it does, the Trustee may but need not sign it. In signing such amendment the Trustee shall be entitled to receive indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it and to receive, and (subject to Section 7.01) shall be fully protected in relying upon, an Officers' Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel stating that such amendment is authorized or permitted by this Indenture.

SECTION 9.07 Payment for Consent. Neither the Company, any Affiliate of the Company nor any Subsidiary shall, directly or indirectly, pay or cause to be paid any consideration, whether by way of interest, fee or otherwise, to any Holder for or as an inducement to any consent, waiver or amendment of any of the terms or provisions of this Indenture or the Securities unless such consideration is offered to be paid or agreed to be paid to all Holders which so consent, waive or agree to amend in the time frame set forth in solicitation documents relating to such consent, waiver or agreement.

ARTICLE 10 - Subsidiary Guarantees

SECTION 10.01 Unconditional Subsidiary Guarantee.

(a) Each Guarantor Subsidiary set forth on the signature pages hereof and each Guarantor Subsidiary of the Company which in accordance with Section 4.15 hereof is required to Guarantee the obligations of the Company under the Securities, upon execution of a counterpart of this Indenture, hereby jointly and severally unconditionally Guarantees to each Holder of a Security authenticated and delivered by the Trustee irrespective of the validity or enforceability of this Indenture, the Securities or the obligations of the Company under this Indenture or the Securities, that: (i) the principal of and interest on the Securities will be paid in full when due, whether at maturity or interest payment, by acceleration, call for redemption or otherwise, and interest on the overdue principal of and interest, if any, on the Securities and all other obligations of the Company to the Holders or the Trustee under this Indenture or the Securities will be promptly paid in full or performed, all in accordance with the terms of this Indenture and the Securities; and (ii) in the case of any extension of time or payment or renewal of any Securities or any of such other obligations, they will be paid in full when due or performed in accordance with the terms of the extension or renewal, whether at maturity, by acceleration or otherwise. Failing payment when due of any amount so Guaranteed for whatever reason, each Guarantor Subsidiary will be obligated to pay the same whether or not such failure to pay has become an Event of Default which could cause acceleration pursuant to Section 6.02 hereof. Each Guarantor Subsidiary agrees that this is a Guarantee of payment, not a Guarantee of collection.

(b) Each Guarantor Subsidiary hereby jointly and severally agrees that its obligations with regard to this Subsidiary Guarantee shall be joint and several, unconditional, irrespective of the validity or enforceability of the Securities or the obligations of the Company under this Indenture, the absence of any action to enforce the same, the recovery of any judgment against the Company or any other obligor with respect to this Indenture, the Securities or the obligations of the Company under this Indenture or the Securities, any action to enforce the same or any other circumstances (other than complete performance) which might otherwise constitute a legal or equitable discharge or defense of a Guarantor Subsidiary. Each Guarantor Subsidiary further waives and relinquishes all claims, rights and remedies accorded by applicable law to guarantors and agrees not to assert or take advantage of any such claims, right or remedies, including but not limited to: (a) any right to require the Trustee, the Holders or the Company (each, a "Benefitted Party") to proceed against the Company or any other person or to proceed against or exhaust any security held by a Benefitted Party at any time or to pursue any other remedy in any Benefitted Party's power before proceeding against such Guarantor Subsidiary; (b) the defense of the statute of limitations in any action hereunder or in any action for the collection of any indebtedness or the performance of any obligation hereby Guaranteed; (c) any defense that may arise by reason of the incapacity, lack of authority, death or disability of any other person or the failure of a Benefitted Party to file or enforce a claim against the estate (in administration, bankruptcy or any other proceeding) of any other person; (d) demand, protest and notice of any kind including but not limited to notice of the existence, creation or incurring of any new or additional indebtedness or obligation or of any action or non-action on the part of such Guarantor Subsidiary, the Company, any Benefitted Party, any creditor of such Guarantor Subsidiary, the Company or on the part of any other person whomsoever in connection with any indebtedness or obligations hereby Guaranteed; (e) any defense based upon an election of remedies by a Benefitted Party, including but not limited to an election to proceed against such Guarantor Subsidiary for reimbursement; (f) any defense based upon any statute or rule of law which provides that the obligation of a surety must be neither larger in amount nor in other respects more burdensome than that of the principal; (g) any defense arising because of a Benefitted Party's election, in any proceeding instituted under the Federal Bankruptcy Code, of the application of Section 1111(b) (2) of the Federal Bankruptcy Code; or (h) any defense based on any borrowing or grant of a security interest under Section 364 of the Federal Bankruptcy Code. Each Guarantor Subsidiary hereby covenants that its Subsidiary Guarantee will not be discharged except by complete performance of the obligations contained in its Subsidiary Guarantee and this Indenture.

Each Guarantor Subsidiary agrees that if, after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, the Trustee or any of the Holders are prevented by applicable law from exercising their respective rights to accelerate the maturity of the Securities, to collect interest on the Securities, or to enforce or exercise any other right or remedy with respect to the Securities, such Guarantor Subsidiary agrees to pay to the Trustee for the account of the Holders, upon demand therefor, the amount that would otherwise have been due and payable had such rights and remedies been permitted to be exercised by the Trustee or any of the Holders.

(c) Each Guarantor Subsidiary shall be subrogated to all rights of the Holders of the Securities upon which its Subsidiary Guarantee is endorsed against the Company in respect of any amounts paid by such Guarantor Subsidiary on account of such Security pursuant to the provisions of its Subsidiary Guarantee or this Indenture; provided, however, that no Guarantor Subsidiary shall be entitled to enforce or to receive any payments arising out of, or based upon, such right of subrogation until the principal of (and premium, if any) and interest on all Securities issued hereunder shall have been paid in full.

(d) Each Subsidiary Guarantee shall remain in full force and effect and continue to be effective should any petition be filed by or against the Company for liquidation or reorganization, should the Company become insolvent or make an assignment for the benefit of creditors or should a receiver or trustee be appointed for all or any significant party of the Company's assets, and shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, continue to be effective or be reinstated, as the case may be, if at any time payment and performance of the Securities, is, pursuant to applicable law, rescinded or reduced in amount, or must otherwise be restored or returned by an obligee on the Securities, whether as a "voidable preference," "fraudulent transfer," or otherwise, all as though such payment or performance had not been made. In the event that any payment, or any part thereof, is rescinded, reduced, restored or returned, the Securities shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, be reinstated and deemed reduced only by such amount paid and not so rescinded, reduced, restored or returned.

(e) Each Guarantor Subsidiary shall have the right to seek contribution from any non-paying Guarantor Subsidiary so long as the exercise of such right does not impair the rights of the Holders under the Subsidiary Guarantees.

SECTION 10.02 Limitation of Guarantor Subsidiary's Liability. Each

Guarantor Subsidiary and by its acceptance hereof, each Holder, hereby confirms that it is its intention that the Subsidiary Guarantee by such Guarantor Subsidiary not constitute a fraudulent transfer or conveyance for purposes of any federal or state law to the extent applicable to any Subsidiary Guarantees. To effectuate the foregoing intention, each such person hereby irrevocably agrees that the obligation of such Guarantor Subsidiary under its Subsidiary Guarantee under this Article 10 shall be limited to the maximum amount as will, after giving effect to such maximum amount and all other (contingent or otherwise) liabilities of such Guarantor Subsidiary that are relevant under such laws, and after giving effect to any collections from, rights to receive contribution from or payments made by or on behalf of any other Guarantor Subsidiary in respect of the obligations of such other Guarantor Subsidiary under this Article 10, result in the obligations of such Guarantor Subsidiary in respect of such maximum amount not constituting a fraudulent conveyance.

SECTION 10.03 Execution and Delivery of Subsidiary Guarantees. To further evidence the Subsidiary Guarantees set forth in Section 10.1 hereof, each Guarantor Subsidiary and the Company hereby agree that a notation relating to such Subsidiary Guarantees substantially in the form of Exhibit C hereto shall be endorsed on each Security authenticated and delivery by the Trustee and executed by either manual or facsimile signature of an Officer of each Guarantor Subsidiary.

A Subsidiary Guarantee bearing the manual or facsimile signature of individuals who were at any time the Officers of a Guarantor Subsidiary shall bind such Guarantor Subsidiary, notwithstanding that such individuals or any of them have ceased to hold such offices prior to the authentication and delivery of the Security on which such Subsidiary Guarantee is endorsed or did not hold such offices at the date of such Subsidiary Guarantee.

The delivery of any Security by the Trustee, after the authentication thereof hereunder, shall constitute due delivery of the Subsidiary Guarantee endorsed thereon on behalf of the Guarantor Subsidiary. Each Guarantor Subsidiary hereby jointly and severally agrees that its Subsidiary Guarantee set forth in Section 10.1 hereof shall remain in full force and effect notwithstanding any failure to endorse a Subsidiary Guarantee on any Security.

SECTION 10.04 Addition of Guarantor Subsidiary.

For as long as any Subsidiary Guarantees are required to remain in effect pursuant to the terms of this Indenture, promptly but in no event later than 15 days following the date any person shall become a Subsidiary (other than the Non-Guarantor Subsidiary) after the date of this Indenture, the Company shall cause such Subsidiary to become a Guarantor Subsidiary with respect to the Securities by executing and delivering to the Trustee (i) a supplemental indenture, a form of which is attached hereto as Exhibit B, in form and substance satisfactory to the Trustee, which subjects such person to the provisions (including the representations and warranties) of this Indenture as a Guarantor Subsidiary and (ii) an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that such supplemental indenture has been duly authorized and executed by such person and constitutes the legal, valid, binding and enforceable obligation of such person (subject to such customary exceptions concerning creditors' rights and equitable principles as maybe acceptable to the Trustee in its discretion).

SECTION 10.05 Release of the Subsidiary Guarantees.

(a) Concurrently with any sale or other disposition by way of merger, consolidation or otherwise of all or substantially all the assets of a Guarantor Subsidiary or all the capital stock of a Guarantor Subsidiary permitted by and in accordance with the terms of this Indenture, and upon delivery by the Company to the Trustee of an Officers' Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that such sale or other disposition was made by the Company in accordance with the provisions of this Indenture, the Trustee shall execute any documents reasonably required and reasonably acceptable in form and substance to the Trustee to evidence the release of such Guarantor Subsidiary from the obligations under its Subsidiary Guarantee. Any Guarantor Subsidiary not released from its obligations under its Subsidiary Guarantee endorsed on the Securities and under this Article 10 shall remain liable for the obligations under its Subsidiary Guarantee endorsed on the Securities and under this Article 10.

(c) Concurrently with the defeasance of the Securities or the covenant defeasance of the Securities under Article 8 hereof, the Guarantor Subsidiaries shall be released from all of their obligations under their Subsidiary Guarantees endorsed on the Securities and under this Article 10, without any action on the part of the Trustee or any Holder of Securities.

Securityholders may communicate pursuant to TIA (S)312(b) with other Securityholders with respect to their rights under this Indenture or the Securities. The Company, the Trustee, the Registrar and anyone else shall have the protection of TIA (S)312(c).

SECTION 11.06 When Securities Disregarded. In determining whether the holders of the required principal amount of Securities have concurred in any direction, waiver or consent, Securities owned by the Company or by any person directly or indirectly controlling or controlled by or under direct or indirect common control with the Company shall be disregarded and deemed not to be outstanding, except that, for the purpose of determining whether the Trustee shall be protected in relying on any such direction, waiver or consent, only Securities which the Trustee knows are so owned shall be so disregarded. Also, subject to the foregoing, only Securities outstanding at the time shall be considered in any such determination.

SECTION 11.07 Rules by Trustee, Paying Agent and Registrar. The Trustee may make reasonable rules for action by or a meeting of Securityholders. The Registrar and the Paying Agent may make reasonable rules for their functions.

SECTION 11.08 Legal Holidays. A "Legal Holiday" is a Saturday, a Sunday

SECTION 11.09 Governing Law. This Indenture, the Securities and the Subsidiary Guarantees shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of New York but without giving effect to applicable principles of conflicts of law to the extent that the application of the laws of another jurisdiction would be required thereby.

SECTION 11.10 No Recourse Against Others. A director, officer, employee or stockholder, as such, of the Company or any Guarantor Subsidiary shall not have any liability for any obligations of the Company or any Guarantor Subsidiary under the Securities, the Subsidiary Guarantees or this Indenture or for any claim based on, in respect of or by reason of such obligations or their creation. By accepting a Security and the related Subsidiary Guarantees, each Securityholder shall waive and release all such liability. The waiver and release shall be part of the consideration for the issue of the Securities.

SECTION 11.11 Successors. All agreements of the Company in this

SECTION 11.12 Multiple Originals. The parties may sign any number of Clean Harbors, Inc., a Massachusetts corporation (such corporation, and its successors and assigns under the Indenture hereinafter referred to, being herein called the "Company"), promises to pay interest on the principal amount of this Security at the rate per annum shown above. The Company will pay interest semiannually on May 15 and November 15 of each year. Interest on the Securities will accrue from the most recent date to which interest has been paid or, if no interest has been paid, from August 4, 1994. Interest will be computed on the basis of a 360-day year of twelve 30-day months. The Company shall pay interest on overdue principal at the rate borne by the Securities plus 1% per annum, and it shall pay interest on overdue installments of interest at the same rate to the extent lawful.

2. Method of Payment

The Company will pay interest on the Securities (except defaulted interest) to the persons who are registered holders of Securities at the close of business on the May 1 or November 1 next preceding the interest payment date even if Securities are canceled after the record date and on or before the interest payment date. Holders must surrender Securities to a Paying Agent to collect principal payments. The Company will pay principal and interest in money of the United States that at the time of payment is legal tender for payment of public and private debts. However, the Company may pay principal and interest by check payable in such money. It may mail an interest check to a Holder's registered address.

3. Paying Agent and Registrar

Initially, Shawmut Bank, N.A., a national banking association (the "Trustee"), will act as Paying Agent and Registrar. The Company may appoint and change any Paying Agent, Registrar or co-registrar without notice. The Company or any of its domestically incorporated Wholly Owned Subsidiaries may act as Paying Agent, Registrar or co-registrar.

4. Indenture

The Company issued the Securities under an Indenture dated as of August 4, 1994 (the "Indenture"), between the Company, each of the Guarantor Subsidiaries listed on the face of this Security and the Trustee. The terms of the Securities include those stated in the Indenture and those made part of the Indenture by reference to the Trust Indenture Act of 1939, as amended, (15 U.S.C. (S)(S)77aaa-77bbb) as in effect on the date of the Indenture (the "Act"). Capitalized terms used herein and not defined herein have the meanings ascribed thereto in the Indenture. The Securities are subject to all such terms, and Securityholders are referred to the Indenture and the Act for a statement of those terms.

The Securities are general unsecured obligations of the Company limited to $50,000,000 aggregate principal amount (subject to Section 2.07 of the Indenture). The Indenture imposes certain limitations on, among other things, the issuance of additional Debt by the Company, the issuance of Debt and Preferred Stock by any Subsidiary, the incurrence of Liens on the assets of the Company and its Subsidiaries, the payment of dividends on, and redemption of capital stock of the Company and its Subsidiaries and the redemption of certain subordinated obligations of the Company and the making of Investments by the Company or its Subsidiaries, the issuance and sale of equity interests of the Subsidiaries, sales of assets, including Subsidiary Capital Stock, transactions with Affiliates, and consolidations, mergers and transfers of all or substantially all of the Company's assets. The Indenture also prohibits certain restrictions on distributions from Subsidiaries and the incurrence by the Company or the Subsidiaries of indebtedness that is senior in any respect in right of payment to the Securities or the Subsidiary Guarantees. In addition, the Indenture requires the Company, under certain circumstances, to offer to purchase Securities in the event of a Change of Control.

5. Optional Redemption

Except as set forth in the next paragraph, the Securities may not be redeemed prior to May 15, 1999. On and after that date, the Company may redeem the Securities in whole at any time or in part at the following redemption prices (expressed in percentages of principal amount), plus accrued interest to the redemption date:

If redeemed during the 12-month period beginning May 15 of the years indicated:

Year	Percentage
1999.....	106.25%
2000 and thereafter.....	100.00%

6. Notice of Redemption

Notice of redemption will be mailed by first class mail at least 30 days but not more than 60 days before the redemption date to each Holder of Securities to be redeemed at its registered address. Securities in denominations larger than $1,000 may be redeemed in part but only in whole multiples of $1,000. If money sufficient to pay the redemption price of and accrued interest on all Securities (or portions thereof) to be redeemed on the redemption date is deposited with the Paying Agent on or before the redemption date and certain other conditions are satisfied, on and after such date interest ceases to accrue on such Securities (or such portions thereof) called for redemption.

7. Put Provisions

Upon a Change of Control, any Holder of Securities will have the right to cause the Company to repurchase all or any part of the Securities of such Holder at a repurchase price equal to 101% of the principal amount of the Securities to be repurchased plus accrued interest to the date of repurchase as provided in, and subject to the terms of, the Indenture.

8. Subsidiary Guarantees

As provided in the Indenture and subject to certain limitations therein set forth, the obligations of the Company under the Indenture and this Security are Guaranteed on a senior basis pursuant to Subsidiary Guarantees endorsed hereon by each Guarantor Subsidiary. The Indenture provides that a Guarantor Subsidiary shall be released from its Subsidiary Guarantee and that the Holder shall have no further claim against such Guarantor Subsidiary upon compliance with certain conditions.

9. Denominations; Transfer; Exchange

The Securities are in registered form without coupons in denominations of $1,000 and whole multiples of $1,000. A Holder may transfer or exchange Securities in accordance with the Indenture. The Registrar may require a Holder, among other things, to furnish appropriate endorsements or transfer documents and to pay any taxes and fees required by law or permitted by the Indenture. The Registrar need not register the transfer of or exchange any Securities selected for redemption (except, in the case of a Security to be redeemed in part, the portion of the Security not to be redeemed) or any Securities for a period of 15 days before a selection of Securities to be redeemed or 15 days before an interest payment date.

10. Persons Deemed Owners

The registered Holder of this Security may be treated as the owner of it for all purposes.

11. Unclaimed Money

If money for the payment of principal or interest remains unclaimed for two years, the Trustee or Paying Agent shall pay the money back to the Company at its request unless an abandonment property law designates another person. After any such payment, Holders entitled to the money must look only to the Company and not to the Trustee for payment.

12. Defeasance

Subject to certain conditions, the Company at any time may terminate some or all of its obligations under the Securities and the Indenture if the Company deposits with the Trustee money or U.S. Government Obligations for the payment of principal and interest on the Securities to redemption or maturity, as the case may be.

13. Amendment, Waiver

Subject to certain exceptions set forth in the Indenture, (i) the Indenture or the Securities may be amended with the written consent of the Holders of at least a majority in principal amount outstanding of the Securities and (ii) any default or noncompliance with any provision may be waived with the written consent of the Holders of a majority in principal amount outstanding of the Securities. Subject to certain exceptions set forth in the Indenture, without the consent of any Securityholder, the Company and the Trustee may amend the Indenture or the Securities to cure any ambiguity, omission, defect or inconsistency, or to comply with Article 5 of the Indenture, or to provide for uncertificated Securities in addition to or in place of certificated Securities, or to add Guarantees with respect to the Securities, or to add to the covenants of the Company or the Guarantor Subsidiaries for the benefit of the Holders or surrender any right or power conferred upon the Company, or to reflect either the release of any Guarantor Subsidiary from its Subsidiary Guarantee or the addition of any Subsidiary as a Guarantor Subsidiary to the extent permitted by the Indenture, or to comply with any requirements of the SEC in connection with qualifying the Indenture under the Act, or to make any change that does not adversely affect the rights of any Securityholder.

14. Defaults and Remedies

Under the Indenture, Events of Default include (a) default in any payment of interest on any Security when the same becomes due and payable, and such default continues for a period of 30 days, (b) default in the payment of the principal of any Security when the same becomes due and payable at its Stated Maturity, upon redemption, upon acceleration or otherwise, or failure to redeem or purchase Securities when required pursuant to the Indenture and the Securities, (c) failure to (i) comply with the covenant described under Section 5.01 of the Indenture, (ii) make or consummate an Offer in accordance with the provisions of Section 4.10 of the Indenture or (iii) make or consummate a Change in Control Offer in accordance with the provisions of Section 4.14 of the Indenture, (d) failure to comply with any of the agreements in the Securities or the Indenture (other than those referred to in subsection (a), (b) or (c) above), which continues for 60 days after there has been given to the Company by the Trustee or to the Company and the Trustee by the Holders of at least 25% in principal amount of Securities then outstanding a written notice specifying such failure, (e) Debt of the Company or any Subsidiary is not paid within any applicable grace period after final maturity or is accelerated by the holder thereof because of a default, and the total amount of such Debt unpaid or accelerated exceeds $5.0 million, (f) any judgment or decree for the payment of money in excess of $5.0 million is rendered against the Company or a Subsidiary and is not discharged and either (i) an enforcement proceeding has been commenced by any creditor upon such judgment or decree or (ii) there is a period of 60 days following such judgement during which such judgment or decree is not discharged, waived or the execution thereof stayed, (g) any Subsidiary Guarantee issued by any Guarantor Subsidiary ceases to be in full force and effect other than in accordance with its terms, or any Guarantor Subsidiary shall deny or disaffirm its obligations under its Subsidiary Guarantee, and (h) certain events in bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization with respect to the Company or any Subsidiary.

If an Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the Trustee or the Holders of at least 25% in principal amount of the Securities may declare all the Securities to be due and payable immediately. Certain events of bankruptcy or insolvency with respect to the Company or any Subsidiary are Events of Default which will result in the Securities being due and payable immediately upon the occurrence of such Events of Default.

Securityholders may not enforce the Indenture or the Securities except as provided in the Indenture. The Trustee may refuse to enforce the Indenture or the Securities unless it receives reasonable indemnity or security. Subject to certain limitations, Holders of a majority in principal amount of the Securities may direct the Trustee in its exercise of any trust or power. The Trustee may withhold from Securityholders notice of any continuing default (except a Default in payment of principal or interest) if it determines that withholding notice is in their interest.

15. Trustee Dealings with the Company

Subject to certain limitations imposed by the Act, the Trustee under the Indenture, in its individual or any other capacity, may become the owner or pledgee of Securities and may otherwise deal with and collect obligations owed to it by the Company or its affiliates and may otherwise deal with the Company or its affiliates with the same rights it would have if it were not Trustee.

16. No Recourse Against Others

A director, officer, employee or stockholder, as such, of the Company, any Guarantor Subsidiary or the Trustee shall not have any liability for any obligations of the Company or any Guarantor Subsidiary under the Securities or the Indenture or for any claim based on, in respect of or by reason of such obligations or their creation. By accepting a Security, each Securityholder waives and releases all such liability. The waiver and release are part of the consideration of the issue of the Securities.

17. Authentication

This Security shall not be valid until an authorized signatory of the Trustee (or an authenticating agent) manually signs the certificate of authentication on the other side of this Security.

19. CUSIP Numbers

Pursuant to a recommendation promulgated by the Committee on Uniform Security Identification Procedures the Company has caused CUSIP numbers to be printed on the Securities and has directed the Trustee to use CUSIP numbers in notices of redemption as a convenience to Securityholders. No representation is made as to the accuracy of such numbers either as printed on the Securities or as contained in any notice of redemption and reliance may be placed only on the other identification numbers placed thereon.

Gentlemen:

You are seeking to offer and sell $50,000,000 of the 12 1/2% Senior Notes due 2001 (the "Senior Notes") of Clean Harbors, Inc. (the "Company") through a public offering made in accordance with the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. The Senior Notes will be unconditionally guaranteed by guarantees (the "Subsidiary Guarantees") provided by each of the Company's direct subsidiaries (the "Guarantor Subsidiaries"). You have requested that we furnish to you an opinion as to the legality of these securities, which opinion is to be filed as Exhibit 5 to your Registration Statement, as amended, with respect to such securities (the "Registration Statement").

We have examined the charters and by-laws of each of the Company and the Guarantor Subsidiaries, as amended to date, copies of votes of the Board of Directors of the Company and the Guarantor Subsidiaries, the Registration Statement as filed (or, in the case of Amendment No. 3 thereto, to be filed) with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") with respect to the offering of such securities, and such other documents as we have deemed pertinent. We have also made such examination of law as we have felt necessary in order to render this opinion.

We are of the opinion that, upon the issuance of an appropriate order by the Commission allowing the Registration Statement to become effective, the due execution of the Note Indenture, and the execution, issuance, authentication, sale and delivery of the Senior Notes and the Subsidiary Guarantees as described in the Registration Statement, the Senior Notes and the Subsidiary Guarantees will be duly authorized and validly issued.

This opinion does not pass on the application of the "Blue Sky" or securities laws of the various states.

We hereby consent that this opinion may be filed as an exhibit to the Registration Statement. We further consent to the use of our name and to all references to us included in or made a part of the Registration Statement.

Yours very truly,
